Sweet Spots Teresa A. Toulouse, Barbara C. Ewell, 2018-05-17 Contributions by Carrie Bernhard Scott Bernhard Marilyn R Brown Richard Campanella John P Clark Joel Dinerstein Pableaux Johnson John P Klingman Angel Adams Parham Bruce Boyd Raeburn Ruth Salvaggio Christopher Schaberg Teresa A Toulouse and Beth Willinger Much has been written about New Orleans's distinctive architecture and urban fabric as well as the city's art literature and music There is however little discussion connecting these features Sweet Spots a title drawn from jazz musicians name for the space in between performers and dancers where music best resonates provides multiple connections between the city's spaces its complex culture and its future Drawing on the late Tulane architect Malcolm Heard's ideas about interstitial spaces this collection examines how a variety of literal and represented in between spaces in New

Orleans have addressed race class gender community and environment As scholars of architecture art African American studies English history jazz philosophy and sociology the authors incorporate materials from architectural history and practice literary texts paintings drawings music dance and even statistical analyses Interstitial space refers not only to functional elements inside and outside of many New Orleans houses high ceilings hidden staircases galleries and courtyards but also to compelling spatial relations between the city s houses streets and neighborhoods Rich with visual materials Sweet Spots reveals the ways that diverse New Orleans spaces take on meanings and accrete stories that promote certain consequences both for those who live in them and for those who read such stories The volume evokes preserves criticizes and amends understanding of a powerful and often missed feature of New Orleans s elusive reality

New Orleans and the Design Moment Jacob Wagner, Michael Frisch, 2014-06-11 Following the disaster of Hurricane Katrina in New Orleans people began to discuss and visualize the ways in which the urban structure of the city could be reorganized Rather than defining the disaster recovery process as simply a matter of rebuilding the existing city these voices called for a more radical rethinking of the city s physical social and environmental systems This idea of disaster as an opportunity for urban restructuring is a hallmark of a design moment Design moments are different from the incremental process of urban growth and development Instead of gradual growth and change design moments present the opportunity for a significant restructuring of urban form that can shape the city for decades to come As such a design moment presents a critical juncture in the historical growth and development of a city In this book we explore the question what does urban design have to do with a disaster like Hurricane Katrina Focused on New Orleans the authors explore different dimensions of the post disaster design moment including the politics of physical redevelopment the city s history and identity justice and the image of the city demolition and housing development and the environmental aspects of the recovery process This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Urban Design

Buen Gusto and Classicism in the Visual Cultures of Latin America, 1780-1910 Paul B. Niell, Stacie G. Widdifield, 2013-12-15 The promotion of classicism in the visual arts in late eighteenth and nineteenth century Latin America and the need to revive buen gusto good taste are the themes of this collection of essays The contributors provide new insights into neoclassicism and buen gusto as cultural not just visual phenomena in the late colonial and early national periods and promote new approaches to the study of Latin American art history and visual culture The essays examine neoclassical visual culture from assorted perspectives They consider how classicism was imposed promoted adapted negotiated and contested in myriad social political economic cultural and temporal situations Case studies show such motivations as the desire to impose imperial authority to fashion the nationalist self and to form and maintain new social and cultural ideologies The adaptation of classicism and buen gusto in the Americas was further shaped by local factors including the realities of place and the influence of established visual and material traditions

Educating the Sons of Sugar R. Eric Platt, 2017-10-10 A study of Louisiana French Creole sugar planters role in higher education and a detailed history of the only college ever constructed to serve the sugar elite The education of individual planter classes cotton tobacco sugar is rarely treated in works of southern history Of the existing literature higher education is typically relegated to a footnote providing only brief glimpses into a complex instructional regime responsive to wealthy planters R Eric Platt s Educating the Sons of Sugar allows for a greater focus on the mindset of French Creole sugar planters and provides a comprehensive record and analysis of a private college supported by planter wealth Jefferson College was founded in St James Parish in 1831 surrounded by slave holding plantations and their cash crop sugar cane Creole planters regionally known as the ancienne population designed the college to impart a genteel liberal arts education through instruction architecture and geographic location Jefferson College played host to social class rivalries Creole Anglo American and French immigrant mirrored the revival of Catholicism in a region typified by secular mores was subject to the Americanization of south Louisiana higher education and reflected the ancienne population s decline as Louisiana s ruling population Resulting from loss of funds the college closed in 1848 It opened and closed three more times under varying administrations French immigrant private sugar planter and Catholic Marist before its final closure in 1927 due to educational competition curricular intransigence and the 1927 Mississippi River flood In 1931 the campus was purchased by the Society of Jesus Jesuits and reopened as a silent religious retreat It continues to function to this day as the Manresa House of Retreats While in existence Jefferson College was a social thermometer for the white French Creole sugar planter ethos that instilled the sons of sugar with a cultural heritage resonant of a region typified by the management of plantations slavery and the production of sugar

Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
