Buzawa, Carl G. Buzawa, Evan D.

Stark, 2015-10-01 This new edition of the bestselling Responding to Domestic Violence explores the response to domestic violence today not only by the criminal justice system but also by public and non profit social service and health care agencies After providing a brief theoretical overview of the causes of domestic violence and its prevalence in our society the authors cover such key topics as barriers to intervention variations in arrest practices the role of state and federal legislation and case prosecution Focusing on both victims and offenders the book includes unique chapters on models for judicial intervention domestic violence and health and children and domestic violence In addition this edition provides an in depth discussion of the concept of coercive control in domestic violence and its importance in understanding victim needs Finally this volume includes international perspectives in order to broaden the reader s understanding of alternative responses to the problem of domestic violence The Death Penalty Roger Hood CBE QC (Hon) DCL FBA, Carolyn Hoyle, 2008-03-27

The 4th edition of this authoritative study of the death penalty now written jointly with Carolyn Hoyle brings up to date developments in the movement to abolish the death penalty worldwide It draws on Roger Hood s experience as consultant to the United Nations for the UN Secretary General s five yearly surveys of capital punishment and on the latest information from non governmental organizations and the academic literature Not only have many more countries abolished capital punishment but even amongst those that retain it the majority have been carrying out fewer executions Legal challenges to the mandatory capital punishment have been successful as has the pressure to abolish the death penalty for those who commit a capital crime when under the age of 18 This edition has more to say about the prospects that China will restrict and control the number of executions on the road to abolition Yet despite such advances this book reveals many human rights abuses where the death penalty still exists In some countries a wide range of crimes are still subject to capital punishment and the authorities too often fail to meet the safeguards embodied in international human rights treaties to safeguard those facing the death penalty There is evidence of police abuse unfair trials lack of access to competent defence counsel excessive periods of time spent on in horrible conditions on death row and public painful forms of execution The authors engage with the latest debates on the realities of capital punishment especially its justification as a uniquely effective deterrent whether it can ever be administered equitably without discrimination or error and what influence relatives of victims should have in sentencing and on the public debate For the first time it also discussing the problem of devising an alternative to capital punishment especially life imprisonment without the possibility of parole
