Louisiana's Gothic Revival Architecture Philippe Oszuscik, 1973-01-01 Henry Howard Robert S. Brantley, 2015-06-09
Few nineteenth century architects ventured far from the pattern book styles of their time One architect not constrained by tradition was the Irish born American Henry Howard who started as a carpenter and stair builder in 1836 New York and arrived in New Orleans the following year soon establishing a reputation for distinctive designs that blended American and European trends His career gained momentum as he went on to design an extraordinarily diverse portfolio of magnificent residences and civic buildings in New Orleans and its environs Henry Howard is a lavishly produced clothbound volume featuring hundreds of contemporary and archival images and a comprehensive analysis of his built work The first book to examine the forty year career of the architect Henry Howard establishes a clear lineage of his aesthetic contributions to the urban and rural environments of the South Princeton Architectural Press co publishes Henry Howard with The Historic New Orleans Collection a museum research center and publisher dedicated to the study and preservation of the history and culture of New Orleans and the Gulf South Louisiana Buildings, 1720-1940 Jessie Poesch, Barbara SoRelle Bacot, 1997-08-01 The only New Deal program to continue into the 1990s the Historic American Buildings Survey has through the years drawn attention to the historical and artistic significance of buildings that contemporary taste might otherwise have ignored Louisiana Buildings 1720 1940 makes easily available the fruit of HABS s important and enduring efforts to record Louisiana s architectural heritage In the 1930s the Louisiana HABS team concentrated on public edifices and grand plantation complexes threatened by destruction Later records of HABS include still other habitations of the common man as well as industrial structures The project has yielded not only graphic and written documentation of the buildings many no longer standing but also new insights into the history of the state s architecture An invaluable part of Louisiana Buildings 1720 1940 is the alphabetical listing of HABS structures in Louisiana both by familiar name and by parish The listing by parish gives the location the date of construction the architect when known and the current status of each building It also presents drawings or photographs of many of the structures over 300 pictures in all There are besides nine chapters by leading architectural historians who cover all aspects of Louisiana architecture its Creole beginnings in the south of the state the Appalachian folk style in the north and developments on the plantation in the seventeenth century urban setting and in the modern era Those chapters form an essential frame of reference for the data in the HABS listings and call attention to many other structures that are a part of the history of building in the Pelican State Anyone interested in the state s architecture or history will find Louisiana Buildings indispensable The Architecture of Country Houses Andrew Jackson Downing, 1852 St. Charles Glenn R.
