Loup River Psalter:

Loup River Psalter William Kloefkorn, 2001 Rooted David R. Pichaske, 2009-05 David Pichaske has been writing and teaching about midwestern literature for three decades In Rooted by paying close attention to text landscape and biography he examines the relationship between place and art His focus is on seven midwestern authors who came of age toward the close of the twentieth century their lives and their work grounded in distinct places Dave Etter in small town upstate Illinois Norbert Blei in Door County Wisconsin William Kloefkorn in southern Kansas and Nebraska Bill Holm in Minnesota Linda Hasselstrom in Hermosa South Dakota Jim Heynen in Sioux County Iowa and Jim Harrison in upper Michigan The writers intimate knowledge of place is reflected in their use of details of geography language environment and behavior Yet each writer reaches toward other geographies and into other dimensions of art or thought jazz music and formalism in the case of Etter gender issues in the case of Hasselstrom time past and present in the case of Kloefkorn ethnicity and the role of the artist in the case of Blei magical realism in the case of Heynen the landscape of literature in the case of Holm and the curious worlds of academia best selling novels and Hollywood films in the case of Harrison The result Pichaske notes is the growing away from roots the explorations and alter egos of these writers of place and the tension between the here and there that gives each writer s art the complexity it needs to transcend provincial boundaries Quoting generously from the writers Pichaske employs a practical jargon free literary analysis fixed in the text making Rooted interesting readable and especially useful in treating the literary categories of memoir and literary essay that have become important in recent decades

William Kloefkorn's four part memoir which will cover the four elements water fire earth and air Negotiating the no man's land between ages nine and thirteen this memoir of a small town boy's life in 1940s Kansas continues the story Kloefkorn began in his much loved volume This Death by Drowning With characteristic humor and in prose as lyrical as his poetry he describes the unsentimental education he received at the hands of the denizens of Urie's Barber Shop and the Rexall Drugstore and at the knees of the true characters who made up his family From the firefly stunt that nearly burns down his home to the distant firestorms of World War II fire presents an endless range of subtle and surprising lessons for the boy whose impressions Kloefkorn conveys with the immediacy naiveté and poignancy of youth and reconsiders with the wisdom and distance of age Restoring the Burnt Child powerfully brings to life the lost unforgettable world of a boy and of a poet coming of age in midcentury middle America Chosen as a 2008 One Book One Nebraska selection this Bison Books edition is updated with a set of discussion questions South Dakota Review ,2002 The Laurel Review ,2002 Music and Culture in the Middle Ages and Beyond Benjamin Brand,David J. Rothenberg,2016-10-27 It has become widely accepted among musicologists that medieval music is most profitably studied from interdisciplinary perspectives that situate it within broad cultural contexts The origins of this consensus lie in a decisive reorientation of the field that began approximately four decades ago For much of the twentieth century research on medieval music had focused on the discovery and evaluation of musical and theoretical sources The 1970s and 1980s by contrast witnessed calls for broader methodologies and more fully contextual approaches that in turn anticipated the emergence of the so called New Musicology The fifteen essays in the present collection explore three interrelated areas of inquiry that proved particularly significant the liturgy sources musical and archival and musical symbolism In so doing these essays not only acknowledge past achievements but also illustrate how this broad interdisciplinary approach remains a source for scholarly innovation Great Plains Quarterly ,2004 Soul of the Apostolate Jean Baptiste Chautard,1933 The Psalms in Human Life Rowland Edmund Prothero (Baron Ernle),1905 The Athenaeum ,1874
