By describing the production constraints Portillo has surmounted Fregoso deepens our appreciation of this gifted filmmaker's life her struggles and the evolution of her art The Wounded Heart Yvonne Yarbrow-Bejarano, 2011-05-18 In her work as poet essayist editor dramatist and public intellectual Chicana lesbian writer Cherríe Moraga has been extremely influential in current debates on culture and identity as an ongoing open ended process Analyzing the in between spaces in Moraga's writing where race gender class and sexuality intermingle this first book length study of Moraga's work focuses on her writing of the body and related material practices of sex desire and pleasure Yvonne Yarbrow Bejarano divides the book into three sections which analyze Moraga's writing of the body her dramaturgy in the context of both dominant and alternative Western theatrical traditions and her writing of identities and racialized desire Through close textual readings of Loving in the War Years Giving Up the Ghost Shadow of a Man Heroes and Saints The Last Generation and Waiting in the Wings Yarbrow Bejarano contributes to the development of a language to talk about sexuality as potentially empowering the place of desire within politics and the intricate workings of racialized desire Issues in Contemporary Documentary Jane Chapman, 2009-08-17 Documentary is fast changing with the digital revolution and the enormous increase in Internet usage the range of information and outlets for distribution continues to become more diverse In this context are the traditional themes and frequently irreconcilable critical positions of study still valid or are they changing and if so how In short what are the issues for documentary studies now The starting point of Issues in Contemporary Documentary is that although documentary history cannot be ignored the genre needs to be understood as complex multi faceted and influenced by a range of different contexts Jane Chapman brings to life the challenges of contemporary documentary in an accessible way by balancing theoretical discussion with use of cutting edge material from Europe and North America and the developing world Whilst the need for critical appraisal of documentary is greater than ever before Chapman believes that future discourses are likely to be shared between academics and specialist online communities as viewers become makers and both categories may also become activists Maintaining all parties can benefit from an awareness of continuity and change she predicts that activist documentary will increasingly become a category to follow in the future Each chapter contains recent international case studies and the content evolves thematically with definitions representation objectivity subjectivity censorship authorial voice reflexivity and ethics as headings This free standing innovative study can also be used in conjunction with Documentary in Practice Polity 2007 by the same author The two books provide an essential 2 volume introduction for all students and scholars of film and media plus those practitioners seeking insight into their craft With Her Machete in Her Hand Catriona Rueda Esquibel, 2009-09-15 With the 1981 publication of the groundbreaking anthology This Bridge Called My Back Writings by Radical Women of Color Cherríe Moraga and Gloria Anzaldá ushered in an era of Chicana lesbian writing But while these two writers have achieved iconic status observers of the Chicana experience have been slow to perceive the existence of a whole community lesbian and straight male as well as female who write about the Chicana lesbian experience

To create a first full map of that community this book explores a wide range of plays novels and short stories by Chicana o authors that depict lesbian characters or lesbian desire Catri na Rueda Esquibel starts from the premise that Chicana o communities theories and feminisms cannot be fully understood without taking account of the perspectives and experiences of Chicana lesbians To open up these perspectives she engages in close readings of works centered around the following themes La Llorona the Aztec Princess Sor Juana In s de la Cruz girlhood friendships rural communities and history and Chicana activism Her investigation broadens the community of Chicana lesbian writers well beyond Moraga and Anzald a while it also demonstrates that the histories of Chicana lesbians have had to be written in works of fiction because these women have been marginalized and excluded in canonical writings on Chicano life and experience Encyclopedia of the Documentary Film 3-Volume Set Ian Aitken,2013-10-18 The Encyclopedia of the Documentary Film is a fully international reference work on the history of the documentary film from the Lumi re brothers Workers Leaving the Lumi re Factory 1885 to Michael Moore s Fahrenheit 911 2004 This Encyclopedia provides a resource that critically analyzes that history in all its aspects Not only does this Encyclopedia examine individual films and the careers of individual film makers it also provides overview articles of national and regional documentary film history It explains concepts and themes in the study of documentary film the techniques used in making films and the institutions that support their production appreciation and preservation Reading U.S. Latina Writers A. Quintana,2003-03-18 This essential teaching guide focuses on an emerging body of literature by U S Latina and Latin American Women writers It will assist non specialist educators in syllabus revision new course design and classroom presentation The inclusive focus of the book that is combining both US Latina and Latin American women writers is significant because it introduces a more global and transnational way of approaching the literature The introduction outlines the major historical experiences that inform the literature the important genres periods movements and authors in its evolution the traditions and influences that shape the works and key critical issues of which teachers should be aware The collection seeks to provide readers with a variety of Latina texts that will guarantee its long term usefulness to teachers and students of pan American literature Because it is no longer possible to understand U S Latina literature without taking into consideration the histories and cultures of Latin America the volume will through its organization argue for a more globalized type of analysis which considers the similarities as well as the differences in U S and Latin American women s cultural productions In this context the term Latina evokes a diasporic transnational condition in order to address some of the pedagogical issues posed by the bicultural nature which is inherent in pan American women s literature Latinx Ciné in the Twenty-First Century Frederick Luis Aldama,2019-09-24 Today s Latinx motion pictures are built on the struggles and victories of prior decades Earlier filmmakers threw open doors and cleared new paths for those of the twenty first century to willfully reconstruct Latinx epics as well as the daily tragedies and triumphs of Latinx lives Twenty first century Latinx film offers much to celebrate but as noted pop culture critic Frederick

Luis Aldama writes there's still room to be purposefully critical. In Latinx Cinema in the Twenty-First Century, contributors offer groundbreaking scholarship that does both: bringing together a comprehensive presentation of contemporary film and filmmakers from all corners of Latinx culture. The book's seven sections cover production techniques and evolving genres; profile those behind and in front of the camera; and explore the distribution and consumption of contemporary Latinx films. Chapters delve into issues that are timely, relevant, and influential, including representation or the lack thereof, identity and stereotypes, hybridity, immigration and detention, historical recuperation and historical amnesia. With its capacious range and depth of vision, this timeless volume of cutting-edge scholarship blazes new paths in understanding the full complexities of twenty-first-century Latinx filmmaking.

Latino Images in Film Charles Ramírez Berg, 2009-09-15. The bandido, the harlot, the male buffoon, the female clown, the Latin lover, and the dark lady: these have been the defining and demeaning images of Latinos in U.S. cinema for more than a century. In this book, Charles Ramírez Berg develops an innovative theory of stereotyping that accounts for the persistence of such images in U.S. popular culture. He also explores how Latino actors and filmmakers have actively subverted and resisted such stereotyping. In the first part of the book, Berg sets forth his theory of stereotyping, defines the classic stereotypes, and investigates how actors such as Raúl Julia, Rosie Pérez, Jos Ferrer, Lupe Vélez, and Gilbert Roland have subverted stereotypical roles. In the second part, he analyzes Hollywood's portrayal of Latinos in three genres: social problem films, John Ford westerns, and science-fiction films. In the concluding section, Berg looks at Latino self-representation and anti-stereotyping in Mexican American border documentaries and in the feature films of Robert Rodríguez. He also presents an exclusive interview in which Rodríguez talks about his entire career from Bedhead to Spy Kids and comments on the role of a Latino filmmaker in Hollywood and how he tries to subvert the system.
