now iconic church and thatched cottages its inhabitants including his friend and mentor Doctor Gachet immortalized on canvas and the wide open elds that roused him to paint masterpieces such as Wheat Field with Crows and Landscape with a Carriage and a Train Despite these idyllic surroundings his encouraging pace of production and mounting critical recognition van Gogh chose to end his own life a mere two and a half months later leaving the letters and paintings duplicated here as the only clues to the internal anguish that led him to an act of such desperation The full complexity of van Gogh s personality emotions and relationships is presented here through reproductions of historical documents letters and glorious full color plates of over seventy paintings each of which is also accompanied by incisive commentary from author Wouter van der Veen a renowned van Gogh scholar A nal chapter fully explores the often overlooked role played by his sister in law Johanna Bonger in cultivating and establishing his posthumous legacy
