Valentin de Boulogne Annick Lemoine, Keith Christiansen, 2016-10-07 Following Caravaggio's death in 1610 the French artist Valentin de Boulogne 1591-1632 emerged as one of the great champions of naturalistic painting The eminent art historian Roberto Longhi honored him as the most energetic and passionate of Caravaggio's naturalist followers In Rome Valentin who loved the tavern as much as the painter's palette fell in with a rowdy confederation of artists but eventually received commissions from some of the city's most prominent patrons It was in this artistically rich but violent metropolis that Valentin created such masterworks as a major altarpiece in Saint Peter's Basilica and superb renderings of biblical and secular subjects until his tragic death at the age of forty-one cut short his ascendant career With discussions of nearly fifty works representing practically all of his painted oeuvre Valentin de Boulogne Beyond Caravaggio explores both the artist's superlative depictions of daily life and the tumultuous context in which they were produced Essays by a team of international scholars consider his key attributions to European painting his devotion to everyday objects and models from life his technique of staging pictures with the immediacy of unfolding drama and his place in the pantheon of French artists An extensive chronology surveys the rare extant documents that chronicle his biography while individual entries help situate his works in the contexts of his times Rich with incident and insight and beautifully illustrated in Valentin's complex suggestive paintings Valentin de Boulogne Beyond Caravaggio reveals a seminal artist a practitioner of realism in the seventeenth century who prefigured the naturalistic modernism of Gustave Courbet and Edouard Manet two centuries later

Leonardo da Vinci's work gazes out from the canvas with a quiet serenity. But what lies behind the famous smile? Shrouded in mystery, the Mona Lisa has attracted more speculation and questioning than any other work of art ever created. This work provides an aide memoire of the world's most famous painting. The full-page colour plates portray the Mona Lisa in close-up photographs, while Serge Bramly the author explores its shadowy history and the fascination the painting has engendered.

g illustreerd overzicht van de schilderijen in het Louvre in Parijs Pastels in the Musée Du Louvre Xavier Salmon, 2018 The Musée du Louvre boasts an exceptional collection of 17th and 18th century European pastels. Due to their fragility, there have been scant opportunities to view and learn from these spectacular artworks. This in-depth examination of the collection reproduced here for the first time in color delves into their history and how they were created. Produced primarily during the reigns of Louis XV and Louis XVI, the works whose beautiful delicacy has been likened to the powder covering the wings of a butterfly offer insights into society during the period of the Enlightenment. Featured artists include Rosalba Carriera, Maurice Quentin de La Tour, Jean Baptiste Perronneau, Jean-tienne Liotard, Jean Marc Nattier and Elisabeth Louise Vigée Le Brun, as well as lesser-known masters such as Marie Suzanne Giroust Ad la de Labille Guirard, Joseph Bose and Joseph Ducreux.
