About Love Gay Block, 2011. Gay Block, born 1942, began photographing her own affluent Jewish community in Houston in 1973. She expanded this study to include Jewish senior citizens in South Miami Beach, focusing with affection on the "bubbies" or grandmothers that she attests she wished she herself had had as a child. Later, Block's landmark work Rescuers: Portraits of Moral Courage in the Holocaust, made in collaboration with writer Malka Drucker, explored the lives of non-Jewish Europeans who risked their lives to hide Jews from the Nazis. This series was exhibited at The Museum of Modern Art in 1992 and has been exhibited internationally. In 2003, Block's 30-year series of photo, video and written portraits of her mother, Bertha Alyce, Mother exPosed, was published to great acclaim and was cited as one of Twelve Great Books Published During the Year 2003 by The Review of Arts, Literature, Politics and the Humanities. Here, for the first time, About Love surveys more than 30 years of Block's intimate and moving portraits. She explains the title: thus, "Through photography I have learned about love. I hadn't learned about it at home or in school. I couldn't have learned about love without photography and I'm still learning." Organized chronologically and published in an oversize format that is designed to evoke the idea of a family album, the book offers a thorough overview of the artist's approach to portraiture.

Countablock Christopher Franceschelli, Peskimo, 2014-08-05. Following on the heels of a successful abecedary, Countablock features thick pages cut into the shape of each numeral, creating a peek-through guessing game around the number form itself. One acorn becomes one oak tree. From snowmen to puddles and eggs to chicks, quantities are illustrated twice, both before and after their transformations. As children interact with the pages, they will familiarize themselves not only with the numbers 1-100 and associated quantities but with each numeral's physicality: angles, holes and curves, both front and back. Die-cut numerals include 1, 10 and 20-100 by tens. Illustrated by hip British design team Peskimo, this fresh take on the 1-2-3s encourages readers to manipulate numbers in a whole new way. Note: illustrations are in the style of vintage screen prints with imperfect variations in color and texture. Also available: A BOX OF BLOCKS featuring Alphablock, Countablock and Dinoblock. Award: NAPPA Silver Award Winner.
