

The book cover features a complex, multi-layered illustration. At the top, a golden, winged figure, possibly Cupid or Eros, is depicted against a dark blue background. Below this, a large, gnarled red tree trunk rises on the right side. In the center, a white, winged figure, likely Cupid, is shown in profile, looking towards the left. To the left of the white figure, a golden, winged figure is also visible, seemingly interacting with a large, coiled snake. The background is a deep blue, speckled with white stars, suggesting a night sky. The overall style is reminiscent of classical art, with a focus on mythological figures and symbolic elements.
