Love and Liberation Lauren Carruth, 2021-10-15 Lauren Carruth s Love and Liberation tells a new kind of humanitarian story The protagonists are not volunteers from afar but rather Somali locals caring for each other nurses aid workers policymakers drivers community health workers and bureaucrats The contributions of locals are often taken for granted and the competencies aspirations and effectiveness of local staffers frequently remain muted or absent from the planning and evaluation of humanitarian interventions structured by outsiders Relief work is traditionally imagined as politically neutral and impartial and interventions are planned as temporary extraordinary and distant Carruth provides an alternative vision of what humanitarian response means in practice not driven by International Humanitarian Law the missions of Western relief organizations or trends in the aid industry or academia but instead by what Somalis call samafal Samafal is structured by the cultivation of lasting relationships of care interdependence kinship and ethnic solidarity Samafal is also explicitly political and potentially emancipatory humanitarian responses present opportunities for Somalis to begin to redress histories of colonial partitions and to make the most out of their political and economic marginalization By centering Love and Liberation around Somalis understanding and enactments of samafal Carruth offers a new perspective on politics and intervention in Love, Liberation, and the Law J. Vernon McGee, 1995 The Ten Commandments are central to the Bible because Africa they reveal to us how we are to obey the Greatest Commandment to show our love for God and each other World renowned preacher McGee uses his distinctive style to explain the Ten Commandments and tells how to apply each in a practical and unpretentious way Love and Liberation Sarat Colling, Anthony J. Nocella II, 2012-02 Gabrielle and Andre are an everyday couple working up the corporate ladder in Houston Texas With a brand new condo plans for marriage and successful careers their lives are set or so they think One night while taking out the trash Gabrielle inadvertently gets a glimpse into the underground world of animal liberationists Unsure what to make of it she begins an investigation which leads to some shocking realizations Soon the couple is delving deeper into a covert movement of radical animal liberationists labeled by the FBI as a top domestic threat Armed with nonviolent tactics and love in their heart the couple educates and trains to free those who are caged With captivating black and white illustrations this is an action packed fun and informative read Truth's Table Ekemini Uwan, Christina Edmondson, Michelle Higgins, 2022-04-26 FINALIST FOR THE NAACP Publisher IMAGE AWARD A collection of essays and stories documenting the lived theology and spirituality we need to hear in order to lean into a more freeing loving and liberating faith from the hosts of the beloved Truth's Table podcast The liberating work of Truth s Table creates breathing room to finally have those conversations we ve been needing to have Morgan Harper Nichols artist and poet Once upon a time an activist a theologian and a psychologist walked into a group chat Everything was laid out on the table Dating Politics The Black church Pop culture Soon other Black women began pulling up chairs to gather round And so the Truth's Table podcast was born In their literary debut co hosts Christina Edmondson Michelle Higgins and Ekemini Uwan offer stories by Black women and for Black women examining theology politics race culture and gender matters through a Christian lens For anyone seeking to explore the spiritual dimensions of hot button issues within the church or anyone thirsty to deepen their faith Truth s Table provides exactly the survival guide we need including Michelle Higgins s unforgettable treatise revealing the way racial reconciliation is a spiritually bankrupt empty promise that can often drain us of the ability to do real justice work Ekemini Uwan's exploration of Blackness as the image of God in the past present and future Christina Edmondson's reimagination of what a more just and liberating form of church discipline might look like one that acknowledges and speaks to the trauma in the room These essays deliver a compelling theological re education and pair the spiritual formation and political education necessary for Black women of faith Humanity Ayça Cubukçu, 2018-08-14 On February 15 2003 millions of people around the world demonstrated against the war that the United States the United Kingdom and their allies were planning to wage in Iraq Despite this being the largest protest in the history of humankind the war on Iraq began the next month That year the World Tribunal on Iraq WTI emerged from the global antiwar movement that had mobilized against the invasion and subsequent occupation Like the earlier tribunal on Vietnam convened by Bertrand Russell and Jean Paul Sartre the WTI sought to document and provide grounds for adjudicating war crimes committed by the United States the United Kingdom and their allied forces during the Iraq war For the Love of Humanity builds on two years of transnational fieldwork within the decentralized network of antiwar activists who constituted the WTI in some twenty cities around the world Ay a ubuk u illuminates the tribunal up close both as an ethnographer and a sympathetic participant In the process she situates debates among WTI activists a group encompassing scholars lawyers students translators writers teachers and more alongside key jurists theorists and critics of global democracy WTI activists confronted many dilemmas as they conducted their political arguments and actions often facing interpretations of human rights and international law that unlike their own were not grounded in anti imperialism ubuk u approaches this conflict by broadening her lens incorporating insights into how Amnesty International Human Rights Watch and the Iraqi High Tribunal grappled with the realities of Iraq s occupation Through critical analysis of the global debate surrounding one of the early twenty first century s most significant world events For the Love of Humanity addresses the challenges of forging global solidarity against imperialism and makes a case for reevaluating the relationships between law and violence empire and human rights and cosmopolitan authority and political autonomy Race and the Cosmos Barbara A. Holmes, 2002-06-01 Argues that theoretical physics and cosmology can provide a key to overcoming race related problems explaining how they enable a means for discussing individual and communal quests for fulfillment beyond racial ethnic class and sexual barriers Original The Perilous Savings Amos Winarto Oei, 2017-04-30 Dr Amos Winarto Oei brings fresh clarity and understanding of the antitheses of Jesus from the Sermon on the Mount Providing a thorough evaluation of key historical and contemporary interpretations of Matthew 5 21 48 from notable theologians Oei illustrates the unity surrounding the teachings of Jesus even among disparate denominational traditions Dr Oei also addresses whether the ethics Jesus set out in the antitheses are for Christians only or whether they are demands for all individuals and also the state This book is the product of extensive theological research and sound exeges is and presents a clear argument of the universal nature and individual scope of the ethics and morality of the most famous sermon ever preached We Want to Do More Than Survive Bettina L. Love, 2019-02-19 Winner of the 2020 Society of Professors of Education Outstanding Book Award Drawing on personal stories research and historical events an esteemed educator offers a vision of educational justice inspired by the rebellious spirit and methods of abolitionists Drawing on her life s work of teaching and researching in urban schools Bettina Love persuasively argues that educators must teach students about racial violence oppression and how to make sustainable change in their communities through radical civic initiatives and movements She argues that the US educational system is maintained by and profits from the suffering of children of color Instead of trying to repair a flawed system educational reformers offer survival tactics in the forms of test taking skills acronyms grit labs and character education which Love calls the educational survival complex To dismantle the educational survival complex and to achieve educational freedom not merely reform teachers parents and community leaders must approach education with the imagination determination boldness and urgency of an abolitionist Following in the tradition of activists like Ella Baker Bayard Rustin and Fannie Lou Hamer We Want to Do More Than Survive introduces an alternative to traditional modes of educational reform and expands our ideas of civic engagement and intersectional justice The Oxford Handbook of the Philosophy of Love Christopher Grau, Aaron Smuts, 2024 The Oxford Handbook of the Philosophy of Love offers a wide array of original essays from leading philosophers on the nature and value of love The Law of Love and The Law of Violence Leo Tolstoy, 2012-04-04 This treatise articulates Tolstoy's famous dictum that it is morally superior to suffer violence than to do violence a philosophy that has inspired Gandhi Martin Luther King Jr and countless others Compendium of the Social Doctrine of the Church Catholic Church. Pontificium Consilium de Iustitia et Pace, 2004 This unique un precedented document in the history of the Church serves as a tool to inspire and guide the faithful who are faced with moral and pastoral challenges A Dictionary of the Jewish-Christian Dialogue Leon Klenicki, Geoffrey Wigoder, 1995 This is an invaluable aid in helping readers become better acquainted with key issues involved in the relationship between Judaism and Christianity It brings together significant discussions of major theological and religious topics that are an integral part of the faith dialogue between Jews and Christians Each topic is treated in two separate essays one by a Christian scholar the other by a Jewish scholar and points of agreement and decisive differences stand out clearly BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved American Protestant Ethics and the Legacy of H. Richard Niebuhr William Werpehowski, 2002-09-20 In this careful analysis and evaluation of the monumental influence of Niebuhr Werpehowski traces four streams that flow from Niebuhr s theology particularly as it deals with ethics In a tightly knit and comprehensive investigation of the work of four contemporary ethicists important in their own right Paul Ramsey Stanley Hauerwas James Gustafson and Kathryn Tanner Werpehowski explores how the legacy of Niebuhr has made an impact on their thought and work He presents a clear concise nuanced analytical criticism of the development of the four ethicist's construction of ethics and does it in a way that interweaves and puts the four into a dialogue and conversation with Niebuhr and each other Addressing a number of substantive issues including the viability of just war tradition and the relationship between church and world American Protestant Ethics and the Legacy of H Richard Niebuhr demonstrates that Christian ethics operates within a set of polar tensions and that such conversations as are developed within need to be a part of moral discourse inside and between a variety of communities of faith Searching for Dr. Harris Margaret Humphreys, 2024-08-20 This is the untold story of Dr J D Harris an African American physician whose life and career straddled enormous changes for Black professionals and the practice of medicine Born in Fayetteville North Carolina Harris served as a contract surgeon to the Union army and transitioned to a similar post under the Freedmen's Bureau treating Black troops and freedpeople in Virginia Margaret Humphreys not only narrates what we know about Harris but offers context to his remarkable journey including how incredible it was that a young man born into freedom in a slave state learned to read when literacy for Black people was illegal He was one of very few African Americans to become a doctor before Howard Medical School opened in the 1870s a fact that both reveals the structural barriers to medical education for Black Americans and highlights how those structures weakened in the 1860s Drawing on census records court records Civil War and Reconstruction documents from the National Archives African American newspapers and more this book is a revealing look at the history not only of medicine in the southern United States but also of race and citizenship during one of the nation s most tumultuous eras Ethics: A Guided Tour John Goldingay, 2019-04-16 How might we learn ethics from the Old Testament Trusted guide John Goldingay urges us to let the Old Testament itself set the agenda Topically organized with short stand alone chapters this volume takes readers through the Old Testament's teaching about relationships work Sabbath character and more featuring Goldingay's own translation and discussion guestions for group use Changing Lenses Howard Zehr, 2015-06-01 Does the criminal justice system actually help victims and offenders What does justice look like for those who have been harmed For those who have done harm Twenty five years after it was first published Changing Lenses by Howard Zehr remains the classic text of the restorative justice field Now with valuable author updates on the changing landscape of restorative justice and a new section of resources for practitioners and teachers Changing Lenses offers a framework for understanding crime injury accountability and healing from a restorative perspective Uncovering widespread assumptions about crime the courts retributive justice and the legal process Changing Lenses offers provocative new paradigms and proven alternatives for public policy and judicial reform What's New in the Twenty Fifth Anniversary Edition Author updates of terminology paradigms and recommended reading Foreword by restorative justice practitioner Sujatha Baliga New resources for teachers Uncover the mysteries within Explore with is enigmatic creation, Love Liberation The Law.
