Fallen Heroes Tami D. Cowden, 2011 The villain is the hero of his own story and is every bit as important as the heroic characters This book contains the lectures and exercises from Tami Cowden's popular online class on villain archetypes The workshop identifies and examines the motivations of the 16 literary villain archetypes and shows what happens when heroes and heroines turn to the dark side Here's what participants have said about the workshop I really enjoyed this class Seeing these archetypes spelled out like this really gives perspective instinct does not Not only did this give me some really good tips on villain archetypes but seeing the thought process behind creating a character for the archetypes helped me with your hero/heroine archetypes as well WONDERFUL class again It was quite a thrill figuring out which archetype matched up with the villainess of my WIP I have your exclamation about motivation stuck to my wall just as a reminder I did get a chance to apply this to my characters I put a lot more thought into my characters motivations and I think I will have a stronger book for it The workshop really helped me make more consistent characters and to work through how my characters act I'm having trouble getting a handle on my villain in my next book and these archetypes are really helping me The exercises were enlightening as well as a fun way to get into the heads of these characters You have given me good ideas for use in my current WIP and I'm certain I'll be using some of the others archetypes in future works The Cure of Souls Phil

Rickman, 2011-10-01 Merrily Watkins faces multiple occult threats in her fourth outing In Herefordshire's hop growing country where the river flows as dark as beer a converted kiln is the scene of a savage murder When the local vicar refuses to help its new owners cope with the aftermath diocesan exorcist Merrily Watkins is sent in by the Bishop Already involved in the case of a schoolgirl whose mother thinks she's possessed by evil the hesitant Merrily is drawn into a deadly tangle of deceit corruption and sexual menace as she uncovers the secrets of a village with a past as twisted as the hop vines which once enclosed it

Chocolat Joanne Harris, 2010-12-03 When the exotic stranger Vianne Rocher arrives in the old French village of Lansquenet and opens a chocolate boutique called La Celeste Praline directly across the square from the church Father Reynaud identifies her as a serious danger to his flock It is the beginning of Lent the traditional season of self denial The priest says she'll be out of business by Easter To make matters worse Vianne does not go to church and has a penchant for superstition Like her mother she can read Tarot cards But she begins to win over customers with her smiles her intuition for everyone's favourites and her delightful confections Her shop provides a place too for secrets to be whispered grievances aired She begins to shake up the rigid morality of the community Vianne's plans for an Easter Chocolate Festival divide the whole community Can the solemnity of the Church compare with the pagan passion of a chocolate clair For the first time here is a novel in which chocolate enjoys its true importance emerging as an agent of transformation Rich clever and mischievous reminiscent of a folk tale or fable this is a triumphant read with a memorable character at its heart Says Harris

You might see Vianne as an archetype or a mythical figure I prefer to see her as the lone gunslinger who blows into the town has a showdown with the man in the black hat then moves on relentless But on another level she is a perfectly real person with real insecurities and a very human desire for love and acceptance Her qualities too kindness love tolerance are very human Vianne and her young daughter Anouk come into town on Shrove Tuesday Carnivals make us uneasy says Harris because of what they represent the residual memory of blood sacrifice it is after all from the word carne that the term arises of pagan celebration And they represent a loss of inhibition carnival time is a time at which almost anything is possible The book became an international best seller and was optioned to film quickly The Oscar nominated movie with its star studded cast including Juliette Binoche The English Patient and Judi Dench Shakespeare in Love was directed by Lasse Hallstrom whose previous film The Cider House Rules based on a John Irving novel also looks at issues of community and moral standards though in a less lighthearted vein The idea for the book came from a comment her husband made one day while he was immersed in a football game on TV It was a throwaway comment designed to annoy and it did It was along the lines of Chocolate is to women what football is to men The idea stuck and Harris began thinking that people have these conflicting feelings about chocolate and that a lot of people who have very little else in common relate to chocolate in more or less the same kind of way It became a kind of challenge to see exactly how much of a story I could get which was uniquely centred around chocolate Rich with metaphor and gorgeous writing sit back and gorge yourself on Chocolat A Private Cathedral James Lee Burke, 2020-08-11 After finding himself caught up in one of Louisiana s oldest and bloodiest family rivalries Detective Dave Robicheaux must battle the most terrifying adversary he has ever encountered a time traveling superhuman assassin The Shondell and Balangie families are longtime enemies in the New Iberia criminal underworld and show each other no mercy Yet their youngest heirs Johnny Shondell and Isolde Balangie rock and roll musician teenagers with magical voices have fallen in love and run away after Isolde was given as a sex slave to Johnny s uncle As he seeks to uncover why Detective Dave Robicheaux gets too close to both Isolde s mother and the mistress of her father a venomous New Orleans mafioso whose jealousy has no bounds In retribution he hires a mysterious assassin to go after Robicheaux and his longtime partner Clete Purcel This hitman is unlike any the Bobbsey Twins from Homicide have ever faced He has the ability to induce horrifying hallucinations and travels on a menacing ghost ship that materializes without warning In order to defeat him and rescue Johnny and Isolde Robicheaux will have to overcome the demons that have tormented him throughout his adult life alcoholism specters from combat in Vietnam and painful memories of women to whom he opened his heart only to see killed A Private Cathedral James Lee Burke s fortieth book is his most powerful tale one that will captivate readers mixing crime romance mythology horror and science fiction to produce a thrilling story about the all consuming all conquering power of love The Tiger's Wife Téa Obreht, 2011-03-08 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER NATIONAL BOOK AWARD FINALIST The instant classic debut novel from the author of Inland and The Morningside hailed as a thrilling beginning to what will
