Indigenous communities worldwide confront new social and environmental challenges this book addresses the questions How do Indigenous communities come to terms with legacies of taking and collecting How are cultural materials in digital formats received and ritualised How do traditional forms of exchange continue to mediate relationships Combining ethnomusicological analysis and linguistically and historically informed ethnography this book reveals how multilingualism and musical diversity are maintained through kun borrk manyardi a major genre of Indigenous Australian song and dance It retheorises the core anthropological concept of exchange and enriches understanding of repatriation as a process of re embedding tangible objects through intangible practices of ceremony and language Circulating Cultures Amanda Harris, 2014-12-18 Circulating Cultures is an edited book about the transformation of cultural materials through the Australian landscape The book explores cultural circulation exchange and transit through events such as the geographical movement of song series across the Kimberley and Arnhem Land the transformation of Australian Aboriginal dance in the hands of an American choreographer and the indigenisation of symbolic meanings in heavy metal music Circulating Cultures crosses disciplinary boundaries with contributions from historians musicologists linguists and dance historians to depict shifts of cultural materials through time place and interventions from people It looks at the way Indigenous and non Indigenous performing arts have changed through intercultural influence and collaboration Romantic Passion William Jankowiak, William R. Jankowiak, 1997-02-13 Observers from the West the book contends have incorrectly projected rigid ethnocentric notions of love and marriage onto cultures around the world Contributors look beyond each society's official institutions to explore expressions of love offering new perspectives on arranged marriages and polygamy and reexamining as well the other side of the equation rejection and grief Love & Eroticism Mike Featherstone, 1999-03-19 This major collection explores the contested nature of love and eroticism examining the ways in which erotic bodily pleasures have become central to contemporary consumer culture It investigates the spatial dimension of erotic life through considerations of Bohemian love the gay city and the ways in which the urban landscape and everyday life have become sexualized issues which have become central to the emergence of queer as a new form of gender politics and more general questions of sexual citizenship Drawing on the work of feminists sociologists and cultural theorists this book contains a wide ranging and accessible set of contributions to contemporary debates on sexuality love and eroticism Love Eroticism is simultaneously published as volume 15 issue 3 4 of Theory Culture Society Becoming Art Howard Morphy, 2020-08-28 Thirty years ago Australian Aboriginal art was little more than a footnote to world art Today it is considered to be an important contemporary art movement often promoted as being connected to a deep cultural past Becoming Art provides a new analysis of the shifting cultural and social contexts that surround the production of Aboriginal art Transcending the boundaries between anthropology and art history the book draws on arguments from both disciplines to provide a unique interdisciplinary perspective that places the artists themselves at the centre of the argument Western art history has traditionally regarded

Aboriginal art as distanced from time and place Becoming Art uses the recent history of Aboriginal art to challenge some of the presuppositions of western art discourse and western art worlds It argues for a more cross cultural perspective on world art history

Irregular Connections Andrew P. Lyons, Harriet Lyons, 2004-12-01 Irregular Connections traces the anthropological study of sex from the eighteenth century to the present focusing primarily on social and cultural anthropology and the work done by researchers in North America and Great Britain Andrew P and Harriet D Lyons argue that the sexuality of those whom anthropologists studied has been conscripted into Western discourses about sex including debates about prostitution homosexuality divorce premarital relations and hierarchies of gender class and race Because sex is the most private of activities and often carries a high emotional charge it is peculiarly difficult to investigate At times such as the late 1920s and the last decade of the twentieth century sexuality has been a central concern of anthropologists and focal in their theoretical formulations At other times the study of sexuality has been marginalized The anthropology of sex has sometimes been one of the main faces that anthropology presented to the public often causing resentment within the discipline Andrew P Lyons is an associate professor of anthropology at Wilfrid Laurier University Harriet D Lyons is an associate professor of anthropology at the University of Waterloo

Romantic Love in Cultural Contexts Victor Karandashev,2016-12-24 This volume presents a conceptual historical anthropological and sociological review of how culture affects our experience and expression of romantic love What is romantic love and how is it different from and similar to other kinds of love How is romantic love related to sex and marriage in human history and across contemporary cultures What cultural factors mediate attraction in love These are some of the questions the volume explores through its interdisciplinary yet focused lens Much of the current research evidence suggests that love is a universal emotion experienced by a majority of people in various historical eras and in all the world s cultures Yet love displays in different ways because culture has an impact on people s conceptions of love and the ways they feel think and behave in romantic relationships This volume summarizes classical knowledge on love and culture while at the same time focusing sharply on recent studies and cutting edge research that has advanced the field Divided into three parts the volume begins by defining and analyzing the concept of romantic love and interdisciplinary approach to its study in cultural context Part II traces the origin and evolution of romantic love both in various places throughout the world and various time periods throughout history Part III presents the revolutionary expansion of romantic love ideas and practices in the late 20th and early 21st centuries in various parts of the world focusing particularly on the development of romantic love as a cultural ideal of the modern cultures Finally the book concludes by summarizing the major achievements in this field of study and predicts future development A timely and thoughtful addition to the literature Romantic Love in Cultural Contexts delivers thought provoking insights to researchers in relationship scholarship sociology anthropology and cultural studies and all those interested in the universal human concept of love Overall I find Dr Victor Karandashev is an excellent and fine scholar who has a firm grasp of both the fundamental principles of cross cultural research and of anthropology In our increasingly connected world Romantic Love in Cultural Contexts updates and adds to the descriptions and explanations of similarities and differences in romantic love across generations and cultures Romantic love encompasses the life span rather than being a phenomenon largely confined to youthful years The topic of this project concerns the deepest of our sentiments and pervades life from birth to death This book contributes to better knowledge of this phenomenon across generations Flix Neto Professor of Psychology Faculdade de Psicologia e de Ciências da Educação Universidade do Porto Portugal

The Spirit in the Gene Reg Morrison, 1999 From famines and deforestation to water pollution global warming and the rapid rate of extinction of plants and animals the extent of the global damage wrought by humankind is staggering Why have we allowed our environment to reach such a crisis What produced the catastrophic population explosion that so taxes the earth's resources Reg Morrison's search for answers led him to ponder our species astonishing evolutionary success His extraordinary book describes how a spiritual outlook combined with a capacity for rational thought have enabled Homo sapiens to prosper through the millennia It convincingly depicts these traits as part of our genetic makeup and as the likely cause of our ultimate downfall against the inexorable laws of nature The book will change the way readers think about human evolution and the fate of our species Small bands of apes walked erect on the dangerous plains of East Africa several million years ago Morrison marvels that they not only survived but migrated to all corners of the earth and established civilizations To understand this feat he takes us back to a critical moment when these hominids developed language and with it the unique ability to think abstractly He shows how at this same time they began to derive increasing advantage from their growing sense of spirituality He convincingly depicts spirituality as an evolutionary strategy that helped rescue our ancestors from extinction and drive the species toward global dominance Morrison concludes that this genetically productive spirituality which has influenced every aspect of our lives has led us to overpopulate the world and to devastate our own habitats Sobering sometimes chilling consistently fascinating his book offers a startling new view of human adaptation running its natural course
