Pulitzer Prize winning art critic Sebastian Smee tells the fascinating story of four pairs of artists Manet and Degas Picasso and Matisse Pollock and de Kooning Freud and Bacon whose fraught competitive friendships spurred them to new creative heights Rivalry is at the heart of some of the most famous and fruitful relationships in history The Art of Rivalry follows eight celebrated artists each linked to a counterpart by friendship admiration envy and ambition All eight are household names today But to achieve what they did each needed the influence of a contemporary one who was equally ambitious but possessed sharply contrasting strengths and weaknesses Edouard Manet and Edgar Degas were close associates whose personal bond frayed after Degas painted a portrait of Manet and his wife Henri Matisse and Pablo Picasso swapped paintings ideas and influences as they jostled for the support of collectors like Leo and Gertrude Stein and vied for the leadership of a new avant garde Jackson Pollock s uninhibited style of action painting triggered a breakthrough in the work of his older rival Willem de Kooning After Pollock s sudden death in a car crash de Kooning assumed Pollock s mantle and became romantically involved with his late friend s mistress Lucian Freud and Francis Bacon met in the early 1950s when Bacon was being hailed as Britain s most exciting new painter and Freud was working in relative obscurity Their intense but asymmetrical friendship came to a head when Freud painted a portrait of Bacon which was later stolen Each of these relationships culminated in an early flashpoint a rupture in a budding intimacy that was both a betrayal and a trigger for great innovation Writing with the same exuberant wit and psychological insight that earned him a Pulitzer Prize for art criticism Sebastian Smee explores here the way that coming into one s own as an artist finding one s voice almost always involves willfully breaking away from some intimate s expectations of who you are or ought to be Praise for The Art of Rivalry Gripping Mr Smee s skills as a critic are evident throughout He is persuasive and vivid You leave this book both nourished and hungry for more about the art its creators and patrons and the relationships that seed the ground for moments spent at the canvas The New York Times With novella like detail and incisiveness Sebastian Smee opens up the worlds of four pairs of renowned artists Each of his portraits is a biographical gem The Art of Rivalry is a pure informative delight written with canny authority The Boston Globe An Introduction to Criminological Theory Roger Hopkins Burke,2018-11-01 This book provides a comprehensive and up to date introduction to criminological theory for students taking courses in criminology at both undergraduate and postgraduate level Building on previous editions this book presents the latest research and theoretical developments The text is divided into five parts the first three of which address ideal type models of criminal behaviour the rational actor predestined actor and victimized actor models Within these the various criminological theories are located chronologically in the context of one of these different traditions and the strengths and weaknesses of each theory and model are clearly identified The fourth part of the book looks closely at more recent attempts to integrate theoretical elements from both within and across models of criminal behaviour while the fifth part addresses a number of key recent concerns of criminology postmodernism cultural criminology globalization and communitarianism the penal society southern criminology and critical criminology All major theoretical perspectives are considered including classical criminology biological and psychological positivism labelling theories feminist criminology critical criminology and left realism situation action desistance theories social control theories the risk society postmodern condition and terrorism The new edition also features comprehensive coverage of recent developments in criminology including the myth of the crime drop the revitalization of critical criminology and political economy shaming and crime defiance theory coerced mobility theory and new developments in social control and general strain theories This revised and expanded fifth edition of An Introduction to Criminological Theory includes chapter summaries critical thinking questions policy implications a full glossary of terms and theories and a timeline of criminological theory making it essential reading for those studying criminology and taking courses on theoretical criminology understanding crime and crime and deviance Pitch Dark

Renata Adler,2013-03-19 A strange thrilling novel about desperate love paranoia and heartbreak by one of America s most singular writers What s new What else What next What s happened here Pitch Dark is a book about love Kate Ennis is poised at a critical moment in an affair with a married man The complications and contradictions pursue her from a house in rural Connecticut to a brownstone apartment in New York City to a small island off the coast of Washington to a pitch black night in backcountry Ireland Composed in the style of Renata Adler s celebrated novel Speedboat and displaying her keen journalist s eye and mastery of language both simple and sublime Pitch Dark is a bold and astonishing work of art Ninth Street Women Mary Gabriel,2019-09-24 The rich revealing and thrilling story of five women whose lives and painting propelled a revolution in modern art from the National Book Award finalist Set amid the most turbulent social and political period of modern times Ninth Street Women is the impassioned wild sometimes tragic always exhilarating chronicle of five women who dared to enter the male dominated world of twentieth century abstract painting not as muses but as artists From their cold water lofts where they worked drank fought and loved these pioneers burst open the door to the art world for themselves and countless others to come Gutsy and indomitable Lee Krasner was a hell raising leader among artists long before she became part of the modern art world s first celebrity couple by marrying Jackson Pollock Elaine de Kooning whose brilliant mind and peerless charm made her the emotional center of the New York School used her work and words to build a bridge between the avant garde and a public that scorned abstract art as a hoax Grace Hartigan fearlessly abandoned life as a New Jersey housewife and mother to achieve stardom as one of the boldest painters of her generation Joan Mitchell whose notoriously tough exterior shielded a vulnerable artist within escaped a privileged but emotionally damaging Chicago childhood to translate her fierce vision into magnificent canvases And Helen Frankenthaler the beautiful daughter of a prominent New York family chose the difficult path of the creative life Her gamble paid off At twenty three she created a work so original it launched a new school of painting These women changed American art and society tearing up the prevailing social code and replacing it with a doctrine of liberation In Ninth Street Women acclaimed author Mary Gabriel tells a remarkable and inspiring story of the power of art and artists in shaping not just postwar America but the future

Jackson Pollock Kirk Varnedoe, Pepe Karmel, Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.), 1999 Based on a symposium held in 1999 during The Museum of Modern Art's retrospective this volume presents nine critical essays offering dramatically different ways of understanding Pollock's art and influence The essays reveal not just the richness of Pollock's work but also the vitality and diversity of contemporary criticism The essays were written by Robert Storr Pepe Karmel James Coddington and Carol Mancusi Ungaro Kirk Varnedoe T J Clark Jeremy Lewison Rosalind Krauss and Anne Wagner The Solaris Effect Steven Dillon, 2010-01-01 What do contemporary American movies and directors have to say about the relationship between nature and art How do science fiction films like Steven Spielberg's A.I. and Darren Aronofsky's represent the apparent oppositions between nature and culture wild and tame Steven Dillon's intriguing new volume surveys American cinema from 1990 to 2002 with substantial descriptions of sixty films emphasizing small budget independent American film Directors studied include Steven Soderbergh Darren Aronofsky Todd Haynes Harmony Korine and Gus Van Sant as well as more canonical figures like Martin Scorsese Robert Altman David Lynch and Steven Spielberg The book takes its title and inspiration from Andrei Tarkovsky's 1972 film Solaris a science fiction ghost story that relentlessly explores the relationship between the powers of nature and art The author argues that American film has the best chance of aesthetic success when it acknowledges that a film is actually a film The best American movies tell an endless ghost story as they perform the agonizing nearness and distance of the cinematic image This groundbreaking commentary examines the rarely seen bridge between select American film directors and their typically more adventurous European counterparts Filmmakers such as Lynch and Soderbergh are cross cut together with Tarkovsky and the great French director Jean Luc Godard in order to test the limits and possibilities of American film Both enthusiastically cinephilic and fiercely critical this book puts a decade of U.S. film in its global place as part of an ongoing conversation on nature and art Car Crash Culture M. Brottman, 2016-04-30 A morbidly fascinating and articulate collection of essays this book explores the grim underside of America's cult of the automobile and the disturbing frequently conspiratorial speculations that arise whenever the car becomes the cause or the site of human death Through analysis of fatal celebrity car accidents and other examples of death by automobile as well as through personal memoir and forensic reports cultural critics ponder our very human fascination with the car crash Topics include the roles and experiences of passengers and bystanders car crash conspiracy theories the automobile as a site of murder studies of car crash cinema and psychological interpretations of the notion of the accident The book features original essays by such underground icons as Kenneth Anger and Adam Parfrey George Gershwin Howard Pollack, 2007-01-15

This comprehensive biography of George Gershwin 1898 1937 unravels the myths surrounding one of America's most celebrated composers and establishes the enduring value of his music Gershwin created some of the most beloved music of the twentieth century and along with Jerome Kern Irving Berlin and Cole Porter helped make the golden age of Broadway golden Howard Pollack draws from a wealth of sketches manuscripts letters interviews books articles recordings films and other materials including a large cache of Gershwin scores discovered in a Warner Brothers warehouse in 1982 to create an expansive chronicle of Gershwin's meteoric rise to fame He also traces Gershwin's powerful presence that even today extends from Broadway jazz clubs and film scores to symphony halls and opera houses Pollack's lively narrative describes Gershwin's family childhood and education his early career as a pianist his friendships and romantic life his relation to various musical trends his writings on music his working methods and his tragic death at the age of 38 Unlike Kern Berlin and Porter who mostly worked within the confines of Broadway and Hollywood Gershwin actively sought to cross the boundaries between high and low and wrote works that crossed over into a realm where art music jazz and Broadway met and merged The author surveys Gershwin's entire oeuvre from his first surviving compositions to the melodies that his brother and principal collaborator Ira Gershwin lyricized after his death Pollack concludes with an exploration of the performances and critical reception of Gershwin's music over the years from his time to ours Jackson Pollock.

"psychoanalytic" Drawings Claude Cernuschi, Jackson Pollock, 1992 Perhaps no aspect of Jackson Pollock's oeuvre one of the most important American artists of the twentieth century has been more misunderstood than the drawings Pollock created during Jungian psychoanalysis sessions from 1939 40 Presented to his psychotherapist where they remained in private files for almost three decades until their publication in 1970 these drawings have been shrouded in both personal and art historical controversy from a lawsuit filed by Pollock's widow Lee Krasner to wide ranging justifications of them as Jungian iconography or as proof of Pollock's supposed mental disorder Published in conjunction with an exhibition touring the United States this book draws together sixty nine drawings and one gouache beautifully reproduced in accurate color for the first time The images reveal a range of styles from highly refined and elaborate sketches to rapid and automatic improvisations as well as a range of subjects from human figures animals and cryptic figures to purely abstract forms Together they bear witness to Pollock's intense interest in the latest contemporary art as well as non Western traditions Art historian Claude Cernuschi's essay addresses key historical and interpretive questions surrounding these drawings what was their intended purpose do they have particular psychoanalytic importance what is the relationship between psychoanalysis and art Ultimately Cernuschi argues for the importance of reintegrating these works into their rightly held place in Pollock's oeuvre Remarkable for their beauty as well as spontaneity these drawings reflect the conscious intellectual choice of an artist blazing new trails Film Maria Pramaggiore, Tom Wallis, 2008-07-31 Film A Critical Introduction provides a comprehensive framework for studying films with an emphasis on writing as a means of exploring film's aesthetic and cultural significance. This text's consistent and comprehensive focus on writing allows students to master film vocabulary and concepts while learning to formulate rich interpretations. Part I introduces readers to the importance of film analysis offering helpful strategies for discerning the way films produce meaning. Part II examines the fundamental elements of film including narrative form mise en scene cinematography editing and sound and shows how these concepts can be used to interpret films. Part III moves beyond textual analysis to explore film as a cultural institution and introduce students to essential areas of film studies research.
