Excerpt from Love Among the Artists Dear Sir or Madam Will you allow me a word of personal explanation now that I am for the second time offering you a novel which is not the outcome of my maturer experience and better sense If you have read my Irrational Knot to the bitter end you will not accuse me of mock modesty when I admit that it was very long that it did not introduce you to a single person you could conceivably have been glad to know and that your knowledge of the world must have forewarned you that no satisfactory ending was possible You may it is true think that a story teller should not let a question of mere possibility stand between his audience and the satisfaction of a happy ending Yet somehow my conscience stuck at it for I am not a professional liar I am even ashamed of the extent to which in my human infirmity I have been an amateur one No my stories were meant to be true ex hypothesi the persons were fictitious but had they been real they must or so I thought at the time have acted as I said About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
