Love And Laughter:

Rumi's Little Book of Love and Laughter Coleman Barks, 2016-10-01 Rowdy ecstatic and sometimes stern these teaching stories and fables reveal new and very human properties in Rumi's vision Included here are the notorious Latin parts that Reynold Nicholson felt were too unseemly to appear in English in his 1920s translation For Rumi anything that human beings do however compulsive affords a glimpse into the inner life Here are more than 40 fables or teaching stories that deal with love laughter death betrayal and the soul The stories are exuberant earthy and bursting with vitality much like a painting by Hieronymus Bosch or Chaucer's Canterbury Tales The characters are guilty lecherous tricky ribald and finally possessors of opened souls Barks writes These teaching stories are a kind of scrimshaw intricately carved busy figures confused and threatening and weirdly funny This is an entertaining collection from one of the greatest spiritual poets of all time rendered by his most popular translator The minute I heard my first love story I started looking for you not knowing how blind that was Lovers don't finally meet somewhere They're in each other all along Rumi

Leading with Love and Laughter Zina Sutch, Patrick Malone, 2021-05-25 Leadership has for too long been treated as a function and not as a relationship Zina Sutch and Patrick Malone argue that successful leadership must be based on love altruism and empathy and laughter positive emotions and joy Science tells us that humans are deeply wired for empathy and compassion and that our emotional selves help us make better decisions and motivate others However the tactics we use to train leaders bear little reflection of these advancements we're still creating competent but emotionally distant leaders who manage human assets and lead by setting goals deadlines and deliverables Zina Sutch and Patrick Malone hope to flip a light switch and illuminate above all else that leadership begins with heart and soul Too many training programs reduce leadership to an equation matrix or acronym But leadership is a relationship It's one human helping another The most successful leaders show they genuinely care about their employees and are well fun It's just like any relationship In seven succinct chapters the authors show that people lead best when they tap into their genetically driven human nature to love and nurture connect and trust Leading with love and laughter offers powerful dividends tighter teams stronger performance improved morale greater trust more creativity and even better health While Sutch and Malone cite the science and offer examples tips and practices their larger purpose is to reintroduce the warmth of human interaction and emotion as the foundation of what leadership is all about
