Ministry: Impacting the Postmodern Culture John Garner, 2016-12 How open is our culture to recreation and sports The popular culture today is saturated with recreation and sports The Olympics Super Bowl World Series X Games Iron Man events the Final Four in college basketball and the playoff series in professional basketball capture the imaginations of millions of people in America each time they are held The questions are according to general editor John Garner where is the church and how is the church using these tools to reach people and will the church see the opportunity to use recreation and sports as ministry tools The fact is most churches are not reaching the postmodern culture and are being ignored by an increasingly non Christian American culture because people see no relevance to their lives What they do see relevance in is re creative leisure they pursue it at break neck speed and often at great costs Somehow the church must learn to capture the imagination of a world that is passing it by If the church can capture the imaginations of people it can get their attention can gain access to their minds and can reach the heart with the message of the love of God It's Not Just My Only Love

Story Bhuvanesh Baisakha, It is a story that takes you into the life of a 12 years old young boy called Brijesh who always had certain awkwardness around girls to which he finally overcame when on one fine winter morning he met a girl around his age in the school bus Soon their friendship grew which later got converted into a flawed love story Though they survived the early challenges of romantic relationships that one faces at that young age but their hearts were still filled with doubts Though she promised to be with him she never called after the completion of the schooling But after years of separation life gave them a second chance to reconnect They again fell in love and believed that they are supposed to together forever This time they even had a well made plan for their future but destiny had a different plan for them They both tried to hold on to their plans but with time people change and so as their plans As the boy suffered from serious physical mental health issues which also made their love miserable and eventually led to separation After a decade they both meet again at a relationship counseling program on his birthday from where the story took an unexpected turn Will they both give themselves a third chance or are they just happy to be remain unknown Read the story to get all your questions answered Pierce Egan's
