Niklas Luhmann, 2014-12-08 In this important book Niklas Luhmann one of the leading social thinkers of the late 20th century analyses the emergence of love as the basis of personal relationships in modern societies He argues that while family systems remained intact in the transition from traditional to modern societies a semantics for love developed to accommodate extra marital relationships this semantics was then transferred back into marriage and eventually transformed marriage itself Drawing on a diverse range of historical and literary sources Luhmann retraces the emergence and evolution of the special semantics of passionate love that has come to form the basis of modern forms of intimacy and personal relationships This classic book by Luhmann has been widely recognized as a work of major importance It is an outstanding contribution to social theory and it provides an original and illuminating perspective on the nature of modern marriage and sexuality Passion Pursuit Linda Dillow, Dr. Juli Slattery, 2013-07-22 A Bible study about sex for women Now that's different This new study Passion Pursuit What Kind of Love Are You Making lets God's Word speak about sex as being holy and erotic blessed by God and satisfying far beyond what the world can even imagine Picture that as a headline on the cover of Cosmopolitan By using scripture throughout the Bible Passion Pursuit not only urges women to pursue passion but details how God has given them permission to do so Though there is fun to be had along the way in this study it hits hard on the questions women have but are hesitant to ask like What does God say is okay and not okay in the bedroom I'm 54 years old how can my husband still be attracted to me Why did God make men and women so different This audaciously bold study combines the psychological expertise of Dr Juli Slattery formerly of Focus on the Family along with moving stories from trusted Bible teacher and best selling author Linda Dillow The groups who have already done this study have seen their marriages come alive whether they've been married four months or forty years be next PLUS Check out the Passion Pursuit DVD for even more great teaching from Lisa Dillow and Dr Slattery It's the perfect resource for individuals or small groups

Dangerous Passion David M. Buss, 2000-02-14 Why do men and women cheat on each other How do men really feel when their partners have sex with other men What worries women more men who turn to other women for love or men who simply want sexual variety in their lives Can the jealousy husbands and wives experience over real or imagined infidelities be cured Should it be In this surprising and engaging exploration of men's and women's darker passions David Buss acclaimed author of The Evolution of Desire reveals that both men and women are actually designed for jealousy Drawing on experiments surveys and interviews conducted in thirty seven countries on six continents as well as insights from recent discoveries in biology anthropology and psychology Buss discovers that the evolutionary origins of our sexual desires still shape our passions today According to Buss more men than women want to have sex with multiple partners Furthermore women who cheat on their husbands do so when they are most likely to conceive but have sex with their spouses when they are least likely to conceive These findings show that evolutionary tendencies to acquire better genes through different partners still lurk beneath modern sexual behavior To counteract these desires to stray and to strengthen the bonds between partners jealousy evolved as an early detection system of infidelity in the ancient and mysterious ritual of mating Buss takes us on a fascinating journey through many cultures from pre historic to the present to show the profound evolutionary effect jealousy has had on all of us Only with a healthy balance of jealousy and trust can we be certain of a mate's commitment devotion and true love Well-Being Marc H. relating it to the unthought forces that condition it And it is clinical because thought becomes possessed by a power of selection The purely active i e free floating unrecorded desire is never enough to produce a consistent relation to the future which is why we need the passions to give us an initial orientation to force and enable us to think Passions are the beliefs perceptions representations and opinions that attach us to the world they make up the very material of which our lives and thoughts are composed Instead of truth as the ultimate criterion of judgment the only principle according to which affective becomings can be selected and evaluated is the extent to which they proliferate joy Spinoza and Marx show how the recruitment of desire traditionally takes place through the tyrants and priests who inspire sad passions in us Similarly the work of Deleuze and Guattari on capitalism and schizophrenia can be read as an encyclopedia of the passions that constitute the affective infrastructure of the socius of contemporary capitalism If it takes a lot of inventiveness or imagination to be able to diagnose our present becomings this is because becomings are always composites of joyful and sad passions Capitalism could not exist if it did not also inspire happiness love courage and perhaps even beatitude That is why today we witness the spectacle of the happily dominated Fr d ric Lordon of the self entrepreneur the managerial class the flex worker the citizen consumer the bean roasting hipster and the self managed team It is within this field of contradictory and heterogeneous passions that the authors of this volume pursue the diagnosis of our past and present becomings Their contributions add up to a systematic taxonomy of the passions and indicate their importance for a thinking that reaches beyond itself
