Love and War Charisse Spiers, 2018-12-14 They say your childhood paves the way to adulthood and maybe it does I know mine was lit up in flames I walked the roads of Hell until I figured out that the only way to survive was to exist under a cloak of darkness to deal with the devil himself It was the only way to escape the pain the torment But the nightmares are still very real They ll never leave me alone The shadows of solitude follow me wherever I go Weapons they can be anything I need them to be Unlike people in my life they are predictable dependable Without any effort they can cause so much destruction but also so much peace Through the internal chaos the anger that won t cease and the constant noise everything is silenced with the pull of the trigger Ink I ve loved it since I can remember It defines me It s my release When I feel like I m about to blow I turn to the needle It is the one high I need I brand people It s what I do Kross Brannon is the best there is when it comes to tattoos The success of my company proves it But I never teach Those that work for me learn from someone else I m a solo artist Always have been and always will be but then I looked up and saw her standing in my shop beautiful tattooed and her soul screaming for me to reach out She was a force of nature I couldn t turn away That s the moment everything started falling into place

Of Love and War Angela Wanhalla, 2023 Between 1942 and 1945 more than two million servicemen occupied the southern Pacific theater the majority of whom were Americans in service with the U S Army Navy Air Force and Marines During the occupation American servicemen married approximately 1 800 women from New Zealand and the island Pacific creating legal bonds through marriage and through children Additionally American servicemen fathered an estimated four thousand nonmarital children with Indigenous women in the South Pacific Command Area In Of Love and War Angela Wanhalla details the intimate relationships forged during wartime between women and U S servicemen stationed in the South Pacific traces the fate of wartime marriages and addresses consequences for the women and children left behind Paying particular attention to the experiences of women in New Zealand and in the island Pacific including Tonga Fiji Samoa and the Cook Islands Of Love and War aims to illuminate the impact of global war on these women their families and Pacific societies Wanhalla argues that Pacific war brides are an important though largely neglected cohort whose experiences of U S military occupation expand our understanding of global war By examining the effects of American law on the marital opportunities of couples their ability to reunite in the immediate postwar years and the citizenship status of any children born of wartime relationships Wanhalla makes a significant contribution to a flourishing scholarship concerned with the intersections between race gender sexuality and militarization in the World War II era
