Love, Harry Jr. Harry B. Hamilton, 2001-11-01 Letters of World War II foot soldier Harry B Hamilton to his parents A
Wing and a Prayer Harry H. Crosby, 2021-09-14 A compelling account of the air war against Germany written by the navigator portrayed by Anthony Boyle in Apple TV's Masters of the Air Publishers Weekly They began operations out of England in the spring of 43 They flew their Flying Fortresses almost daily against strategic targets in Europe in the name of freedom Their astonishing courage and appalling losses earned them the name that resounds in the annals of aerial warfare and made the Bloody Hundredth a legend Harry H Crosby depicted in the miniseries Masters of the Air developed by Tom Hanks and Steven Spielberg arrived with the very first crews and left with the very last After dealing with his fear and gaining in skill and confidence he was promoted to Group Navigator surviving hairbreadth escapes and eluding death while leading thirty seven missions some of them involving two thousand aircraft Now in a breathtaking and often humorous account he takes us into the hearts and minds of these intrepid airmen to experience both the triumph and the white knuckle terror of the war in the skies Affecting A vivid account Uncommonly thoughtful recollections that address the moral ambiguities of a great cause without in any way denigrating the selfless valor or camaraderie that helped ennoble it Kirkus Reviews Re creates for us the sense of how it was when European skies were filled with noise and danger when the fate of millions hung in the balance An evocative and excellent memoir Library Journal The acrid stench of fear and cordite the coal burning stoves the heroics the losses This has to be the best memoir I have read bar none George Hicks director of the Airmen Memorial Museum

Soaring to Glory Philip Handleman, 2019-06-04 This book is a masterpiece It captures the essence of the Tuskegee Airmen's experience from the perspective of one who lived it The action sequences make me feel I'm back in the cockpit of my P 51C Kitten If you want to know what it was like fighting German interceptors in European skies while winning equal opportunity at home be sure to read this book Colonel Charles E McGee USAF ret former president Tuskegee Airmen Inc All Americans owe Harry Stewart Jr and his fellow airmen a huge debt for defending our country during World War II In addition they have inspired generations of African American youth to follow their dreams Henry Louis Gates Jr Alphonse Fletcher University Professor Harvard University He had to sit in a segregated rail car on the journey to Army basic training in Mississippi in 1943 But two years later the twenty year old African American from New York was at the controls of a P 51 prowling for Luftwaffe aircraft at five thousand feet over the Austrian countryside By the end of World War II he had done something that nobody could take away from him He had become an American hero This is the remarkable true story of Lt Col Harry Stewart Jr one of the last surviving Tuskegee Airmen pilots who experienced air combat during World War II Award winning aviation writer Philip Handleman recreates the harrowing action and heart pounding drama of Stewart's combat missions including the legendary mission in which Stewart downed three enemy fighters Soaring to Glory also reveals the cruel injustices Stewart and his fellow Tuskegee Airmen faced during their wartime service and upon return home after the war Stewart's heroism was not celebrated as it should have been in postwar America but now his boundless courage and determination will never be forgotten

Guys Like Me Michael A. Messner, 2020-12-18 Guys Like Me introduces us to five ordinary veterans from different generations who have done extraordinary work as peace activists Michael A. Messner reveals how the horror and trauma of the battlefield motivated onetime warriors to reconcile with former enemies, crusade for justice and heal themselves and others

Design for Victory William L. Bird, Harry Rubenstein, 1998-06 The poster, inexpensive, colorful and immediate, was an ideal medium for delivering messages about Americans' duties on the home front during World War II. Design for Victory presents more than 150 of these stunning images, many never reproduced since their first issue, culled from the collections of the National Museum of American History, Smithsonian Institution. William L. Bird Jr. and Harry R. Rubenstein delve beneath the surface of these colorful graphics, telling the stories behind their production and revealing how posters fulfilled the goals and needs of their creators. The authors describe the history of how specific posters were conceived and received, focusing on the workings of the wartime advertising profession and demonstrating how posters often reflected uneasy relations between labor and management

Lockheed, Atlanta, and the Struggle for Racial Integration Randall L. Patton, 2019-11-15 Lockheed has been one of America's largest corporations and most important defense contractors from World War II to the present day. Since 1995, as part of Lockheed Martin Aeronautics Company, during the postwar era its executives enacted complicated business responses to black demands for equality. Based on the papers of a personnel executive, the memoir of an African American employee, interviews and company publications, this narrative history offers a unique inside perspective on the evolution of equal employment and affirmative action policies at Lockheed Aircraft's massive Georgia plant from the early 1950s through the early 1980s. Randall L. Patton provides a rare, perhaps unique, account of African American struggle and management response set within the context of the regional and national struggles for civil rights. The book describes the complex interplay of black protest, federal policy and management action in a crucial space in the national economy and within the South, contributing to business history, policy history, labor history and civil rights history

Gretchie's Gift: a collection of seasonal writings Rus VanWestervelt, 2020-11-20 They wish wearing a mask would keep them safe from cancer. The sad truth is masks and social distancing won't stop cancer and other life-threatening illnesses from attacking the children who will be spending the holidays in the hospital, most likely alone. But you can make a difference. You can bring light to the lives of the innocent who battle their diseases behind the walls and windows of our pediatric wards. Download GRETCHIE'S GIFTS for free, read the preface and be a part of a 40-year movement to make a difference for our children in need. We have choices; they don't. Join us in letting them know they are not alone for the holidays
