Jeffares, 2013-06-17 This set comprises of 40 volumes covering nineteenth and twentieth century European and American authors These volumes will be available as a complete set mini boxed sets by theme or as individual volumes This second set compliments the first 68 volume set of Critical Heritage published by Routledge in October 1995 Poems Written Abroad

Stephen Spender, 2019-07-01 Poems Written Abroad is the first publication of the earliest collection of poetry by the famous poet novelist literary critic translator and radical Sir Stephen Spender 1909 1995 Spender wrote and compiled this manuscript in 1927 when he was living in Nantes and Lausanne In tone and diction Spender s poems range from creatively traditional to unexpectedly innovative They reflect his reading in Shakespeare and French poetry as well as his absorption in music and modern art They also document his struggles with his sexual identity and his emerging desire to devote his life at whatever cost to the writing of poetry This beautiful facsimile edition authorized by the Spender estate faithfully reproduces the features of the original manuscript now held by the Lilly Library including the frontispiece an ink drawing by Spender himself and little known photographs of the poet The editor s extensive introduction and detailed explanatory notes situate Spender s juvenilia in the context of his life and work and the history of modern poetry The volume will appeal to readers with interests in modern poetry gender studies and fine books The Spectator, 1915 Emotions in American History

Jessica C. E. Gienow-Hecht, 2010-04-01 The study of emotions has attracted anew the interest of scholars in various disciplines igniting a lively public debate on the constructive and destructive power of emotions in society as well as within each of us Most of the contributors to this volume do not hail from the United States but look at the nation from abroad They explore the role of emotions in history and ask how that exploration changes what we know about national and international history and in turn how that affects the methodological study of history In particular they focus on emotions in American history between the 18th century and the present in war in social and political discourse as well as in art and the media In addition to case studies the volume includes a review of their fields by senior scholars who offer new insights regarding future research projects Love-hate relationships S. Spender, 1974 Something We Have That They Don't Steve & Mark Clark & Ford, Steven H. Clark, 2004-04 There is some connexion I like the way the English spell it They re so clever about some things Probably smarter generally than we are Although there is supposed to be something We have that they don't don't ask me What it is John Ashbery Tenth Symphony Something We Have That They Don't presents a variety of essays on the relationship between British and American poetry since 1925 The essays collected here all explore some aspect of the rich and complex history of Anglo American poetic relations of the last seventy years Since the dawn of Modernism poets either side of the Atlantic have frequently inspired each other's developments from Frost's galvanizing advice to Edward Thomas to rearrange his prose as verse to Eliot's and Auden's enormous influence on the poetry of their adopted nations whichever Auden is Eliot once replied when asked if he were a British or an American poet I suppose I must be the other from the impact of Charles Olson and other Black Mountain poets on J H Prynne and the Cambridge School to the widespread influence of Frank O'Hara and Robert Lowell on a diverse range of contemporary British poets Clark and Ford's study aims to chart some of the currents of these ever shifting relations Poets discussed in these essays include John Ashbery W H Auden Elizabeth Bishop T S Eliot Mark Ford Robert Graves Thom Gunn Lee Harwood Geoffrey Hill Michael Hofmann Susan Howe Robert Lowell and W B Yeats Poetry and sovereignty Philip Larkin remarked in an interview of 1982 are very primitive things these essays consider the ways in which even seemingly very unprimitive poetries can be seen as reflecting and engaging with issues of national sovereignty and self interest and in the process they pose a series of fascinating questions about the national narratives that currently dominate definitions of the British and American poetic traditions This innovative and exciting new collection will be of great interest to students and scholars of British and American poetry and comparative literature

Who's Who in Gay and Lesbian History Robert Aldrich, Garry Wotherspoon, 2020-10-07 Who's Who in Gay and Lesbian History From Antiquity to the Mid Twentieth Century is a comprehensive and fascinating survey of the key figures in gay and lesbian history from classical times to the mid twentieth century Among those included are Classical heroes Achilles Aeneas Ganymede Literary giants Sappho Christopher Marlowe Arthur Rimbaud Oscar Wilde Royalty and politicians Edward II King James I Horace Walpole Michel de Montaigne Over the course of some 500 entries expert contributors provide a complete and vivid picture of gay and lesbian life in the Western world throughout the ages

Sylvia Plath Linda Wagner-Martin, 2013-04-15 This set comprises 40 volumes covering 19th and 20th century European and American authors These volumes will be available as a complete set mini boxed sets by theme or as individual volumes This second set compliments the first 68 volume set of Critical Heritage published by Routledge in October 1995 The Past Is a Foreign Country - Revisited David Lowenthal, 2015-10-01 The past remains essential and inescapable A quarter century after the publication of his classic account of man's attitudes to his past David Lowenthal revisits how we celebrate expunge contest and domesticate the past to serve present needs He shows how nostalgia and heritage now pervade every facet of public and popular culture History embraces nature and the cosmos as well as humanity The past is seen and touched and tasted and smelt as well as heard and read about Empathy re enactment memory and commemoration overwhelm traditional history A unified past once certified by experts and reliant on written texts has become a fragmented contested history forged by us all New insights into history and memory bias and objectivity artefacts and monuments identity and authenticity and remorse and contrition make this book once again the essential guide to the past that we inherit reshape and bequeath to the future

America Embattled Richard Crockatt, 2012-10-12 What causes Anti Americanism and where are its historical roots What is the impact of 9 11 on America s sense of itself and its role in the world Is America paradoxically a victim of its own political and economic power This book seeks to understand the terrible attacks of September 11th within a broader historical political and ideological context Rather than drawing on simple clash of civilisation oppositions the author argues that it is important to have an awareness of the complex historical processes which influence America s sense of itself and its changing view of the world How the world especially the Muslim world views America The changing nature of international politics and the global system since the end of the cold war Drawing on a wide range of contemporary and historical sources Richard Crockatt has written a balanced subtle and highly readable book which provides genuine insight into American foreign policy anti Americanism and Islamic fundamentalism It will be important reading for all those seeking to understand the background to the war on terror

Against Oblivion Ian Hamilton, 2012-02-14 Ian Hamilton s last book published posthumously in 2002 is a typically brilliant revisiting of the concept of Samuel Johnson s classic Lives of the English Poets wherein Hamilton considers 45 deceased poets of the twentieth century offering his personal estimation of what claims they will have on posterity and against oblivion Examples of each poet s verse accompany Hamilton s text making the book both a provocative primer and a kind of critical anthology The affective power of this book lies in its understatement and its understanding of what we might care about From a century of Manifestoes and Movements Hamilton works as a corrective for the local and particular his idea of poetry of what made greatness in poetry emerges intact from each measured sentence His criticism always pointed you towards all that he could find that was true in a piece of writing Tim Adams Observer

America's 'Special Relationships' John Dumbrell, Axel Schäfer, 2009-09-10 This unique volume offers an original collection of essays on the theme of America s special relationships It interrogates in an original and provocative manner the distinctive character of America s interactions with an array of allies and clients both international and domestic The essays vary in their focus some are primarily historical some are more contemporary All consider the quality of specialness in the context of America s relationship with particular countries including the United Kingdom Canada Australia New Zealand Holland Russia Iran and Israel The collection also concerns the relationship between the American state and key special foreign policy interests notably ethnic lobbies and religious groups Bringing together a wide range of experts this timely collection provides a valuable addition to the debates surrounding US foreign policy and will be of great interest to students and scholars of American politics American history and international relations

W.H. Auden Dr John Haffenden, 2002-09-11 This set comprises of 40 volumes covering nineteenth and twentieth century European and American authors These volumes will be available as a complete set mini boxed sets by theme or as individual volumes This second set compliments the first 68 volume set of Critical Heritage published by Routledge in October 1995      The Oxford Companion to Twentieth-Century Literature in English Jenny Stringer, 1996-09-26 This is a unique new reference book to English language writers and writing throughout the present century in all major genres and from all around the world from Joseph Conrad to Will Self Virginia Woolf to David Mamet Ezra Pound to Peter Carey James Joyce to Amy Tan The survivors of the Victorian age who feature in The Oxford Companion to Twentieth Century Literature in English writers such as Thomas Hardy Olive Schreiner Rabindranath Tagore Henry James could hardly have imagined how richly diverse Literature in English would become by the end of the century Fiction plays poetry and a whole range of non fictional writing are celebrated in this informative readable and catholic reference book which includes entries on literary movements periodicals and over 400 individual works as well as articles on some 2 400 authors All the great literary figures are included whether American or Australian British Irish or Indian African or Canadian or Caribbean among them Samuel Beckett Edith Wharton Patrick White T S Eliot Derek Walcott D H Lawrence Tennessee Williams Vladimir Nabokov Wole Soyinka Sylvia Plath as well as a wealth of less obviously canonical writers from Ana s Nin to L M Montgomery Bob Dylan to Terry Pratchett The book comes right up to date with contemporary figures such as Toni Morrison Ben Okri Salman Rushdie Carol Shields Tim Winton Nadine Gordimer Vikram Seth Don Delillo and many others Title entries range from Aaron s Rod to The Zoo Story topics from Angry Young Men Bestsellers and Concrete Poetry to Soap Opera Vietnam Writing and Westerns A lively introduction by John Sutherland highlights the various and sometimes contradictory canons that have emerged over the century and the increasingly international sources of writing in English which the Companion records Catering for all literary tastes this is the most comprehensive single volume guide to modern and postmodern literature      British Influence On The Birth Of American Literature Linden Peach, 1982-07-08      Love-hate Relations: a Study of Anglo-American Sensibilities Stephen Spender, 1974      Teaching Nineteenth-Century Fiction A. Maunder, J. Phegley, 2015-12-04 This book brings together the experiences of Anglo American teachers and discusses some of the challenges which face teachers of nineteenth century fiction suggesting practical ways in which these might start to be overcome by considering the constantly changing canon issues related to course design and the possibilities offered by film and ICT      The Protected Vista Tom Brigden, 2019-05-03 The Protected Vista draws a historical lineage from the eighteenth century picturesque to present day planning policy highlighting how the values embedded within familiar views have developed over time through appropriation by diverse groups for cultural and political purposes The book examines the intellectual construction of the protected vista questioning the values entrenched within the view by whom and how they are observed and disseminated to reveal how these views have been and continue to be part of a changing historical and political narrative With a deeper knowledge and understanding of the shifting values in urban views we will be better equipped to make decisions surrounding their protection in our urban centres The book identifies the origins of current view protection policy in the aesthetic convention of the picturesque drawing on a range of illustrated

examples in the UK the US Australia Canada and South Africa to serve as a useful reference for students researchers and academics in architecture architectural conservation landscape and urban planning      Voices Carry Kirsten Jamsen, 1999
