Love In The Real World Starting And Keeping Close Relationships:

Love in the Real World Rhonda Pritchard, 1996 At last A relationship book that confirms what many successful long term couples already know perfect relationships are more of a fantasy than a reality Don't aim for the stars in your relationship try and settle for good enough Many personal growth books convey the idea that here is a state of perfect happiness to be reached This book takes apart the myths of relationships and will help people work towards accepting the differences in each other

How to Fall in Love with Anyone Mandy Len Catron, 2017-06-27 A beautifully written and well researched cultural criticism as well as an honest memoir Los Angeles Review of Books from the author of the popular New York Times essay To Fall in Love with Anyone Do This explores the romantic myths we create and explains how they limit our ability to achieve and sustain intimacy What really makes love last Does love ever work the way we say it does in movies and books and Facebook posts Or does obsessing over those love stories hurt our real life relationships When her parents divorced after a twenty eight year marriage and her own ten year relationship ended those were the questions that Mandy Len Catron wanted to answer In a series of candid vulnerable and wise essays that takes a closer look at what it means to love someone be loved and how we present our love to the world Catron melds science and emotion beautifully into a thoughtful and thought provoking meditation Bookpage She delves back to 1944 when her grandparents met in a coal mining town in Appalachia to her own dating life as a professor in Vancouver She uses biologists research into dopamine triggers to ask whether the need to love is an innate human drive She uses literary theory to show why we prefer certain kinds of love stories She urges us to question the unwritten scripts we follow in relationships and looks into where those scripts come from And she tells the story of how she decided to test an experiment that she'd read about where the goal was to create intimacy between strangers using a list of thirty six questions and ended up in the surreal situation of having millions of people following her brand new relationship Perfect fodder for the romantic and the cynic in all of us Booklist How to Fall in Love with Anyone flips the script on love Clear eyed and full of heart it is mandatory reading for anyone coping with or curious about the challenges of contemporary courtship The Toronto Star

Why You Will Marry the Wrong Person The School of Life, 2017-04-27 A collection of essays extended from The New York Times most read article of 2016 Anyone we might marry could of course be a little bit wrong for us We don't expect bliss every day The fault isn't entirely our own it has to do with the devilish truth that anyone we're liable to meet is going to be rather wrong in some fascinating way or another because this is simply what all humans happen to be including sadly ourselves This collection of essays proposes that we don't need perfection to be happy So long as we enter our relationships in the right spirit we have every chance of coping well enough with and even delighting in the inevitable and distinctive wrongness that lies in ourselves and our beloveds Eight
