Love Is A Solitary Game:

Love is a Solitary Game Esther Tusquets, 1985      Solitaire of Love Cristina Peri Rossi, 2000 Experimental erotic novel by a renowned Latin American fiction writer and political activist      Private Correspondence Esther Tusquets, 2008 Esther Tusquets was already well known in Spain as director of the Barcelona publishing house Editorial Lumen when she stunned the reading public in the late 70s and 80s with the publication of a highly acclaimed narrative cycle whose daringly innovative content and prose style broke new ground for the Spanish novel and for women's writing      Contemporary Spanish Women's Narrative and the Publishing Industry Christine Henseler, 2003 As in other countries the effects of commercialization in Spain are changing the direction of publishing Arguing that women face a particularly complex situation because the inclusion of their work is still considered a novelty in a male dominated field Christine Henseler examines the strategies of Spanish women authors in the face of market forces In a consumer economy that places books in supermarkets and mega bookstores and in which novels are promoted and read more for entertainment than for their literary merit women's books tend to be more highly regarded when they cater to feminist erotic or commercial niche markets Henseler examines the visual creation of the seductive female body inside and outside the texts and the verbal application of this female figure on a narrative level in the works of authors including Paloma Díaz Mas Lourdes Ortiz Cristina Peri Rossi Esther Tusquets Almudena Grandes and Lucía Etxebarria She looks at novels of seduction award winning novels and novels sold on the basis of an author's prior reputation as well as advertisements literary prizes and reviews She also draws on interviews with authors to provide insider views of contemporary Spanish publishing Contemporary Spanish Women's Narrative and the Publishing Industry reveals the ways women writers are reacting both textually and promotionally to the changing demands of the publishing industry and the construction of a literary canon      The Apple of Earthly Love Barbara Franklin Ichiishi, 1994 The narrative tetralogy of Esther Tusquets is a daringly innovative series of female novels of development which suggests through narrative structure voice and style a distinctive psychic make up and developmental path for woman Drawing on American and French feminist theory this study views the cycle as an unconscious pilgrimage in search of the lost primal mother a quest rendered formally through the circular repetitive pattern of the texts and the musical oneiric prose style which reproduces the endless prolongation and flow of female desire As the texts go over and over the same psychic issues Tusquets fictional personae laboriously spiral upwards to ever higher levels of maturity and self knowledge While recording her protagonists struggle to grow and adapt to the world in which they live the narrative also challenges the belief systems of patriarchal society through the inscription of an alternative model which dissolves the barriers among diverse modes of sexuality and affirms love in all its forms as the supreme value of life      The Sea of Becoming Mary S. Vasquez, 1991 The present volume responds to a perceived need for a unified body of serious critical work from a variety of perspectives on the literary production of this dynamic and original writer It includes ten essays
