The Women's Study Bible Mary J. Evans, 2009 Everyone knows about Noah Moses and Paul But what about Hagar Michal and Priscilla all women who had a direct influence in the story of God's people The Bible is full of fascinating powerful and faithful women as well as lessons that have unique meaning for women today In The Women's Study Bible respected Bible scholars draw out these often overlooked stories and reveal the lives of women at the time and share lessons for women of today Separate sidebars cover topics such as midwifery women disciples and female images of God The Women's Study Bible doesn't shy away from the difficult issues but helps readers to understand them better in both their original context and the modern world The New Living Translation of the Bible uses inclusive language for humanity and where it is clear that both male and female are meant to be included Book Jacket Children of God in the World Paul O'Callaghan, 2016-10-14

Children of God in the World is a textbook of theological anthropology structured in four parts The first attempts to clarify the relationship between theology philosophy and science in their respective approaches to anthropology and establishes the fundamental principle of the text stated in Vatican II's Gaudium et spes n 22 Christ manifests man to man The second part provides a historical overview of the doctrine of grace in Scripture especially the teaching of the book of Genesis on humans made in the image of God as well as Paul and John among the Fathers in particular the oriental doctrine of divinization and Augustine during the Middle Ages especially Thomas Aquinas and the Reformation period centered particularly on Luther and the Council of Trent right up to modern times The third part of the text the central one provides a systematic understanding of Christian grace in terms of the God's life present in human believers by which they become children of God disciples friends and brothers of Christ temples of the Holy Spirit This section also provides a reflection on the theological virtues faith hope and charity on the relationship between grace and human freedom on the role of the Church and Christian apostolate in the communication of grace and on the need humans have for divine grace After considering the relationship between the natural and the supernatural order the fourth and last part deals with different philosophical aspects of the human condition in the light of Christian faith the union between body and soul humans as free historical social sexual and working beings The last chapter concludes with a consideration of the human person Christianity's greatest and most enduring contribution to human thought
