shows himself torn between sexual desire and a hunger to be free of failed love affairs and turbulent karma Schelling's translation represents a rare opportunity for English language readers to become acquainted with this fascinating poet Attuned to Bhartrihari's unique poetic sensibility Schelling has produced a compelling personally curated set of translations

V. S. Naipaul and World Literature Vijay Mishra, 2024-02-08 V S Naipaul is a major and controversial figure in postcolonial and world literature This book provides a challenging and uncompromisingly honest study that engages with history genre theory aesthetics and global literary culture with close reference to Naipaul's published and archival material In his fiction and creative histories the definition of the modern idea of world literature is informed by the importance of an artistic ordering of perception Although often expressing ideas that are prejudicial and morally repugnant there is an honesty in his writings where one finds extraordinary insights into how life is experienced within colonial structures of power These colonial structures provided no abstract unity to the field of literary expression and ignored vernacular cultures The book argues that a universal ideology of the aesthetic transcending time regions and languages provides world literature with a unity which is possible only within a critical universal humanism attuned to heroic readings of texts and cultures

The Body Adorned Vidya Dehejia, 2009-02-26 The sensuous human form elegant and eye catching is the dominant feature of premodern Indian art From the powerful god Shiva greatest of all yogis and most beautiful of all beings to stone dancers twisting along temple walls the body in Indian art is always richly adorned Alankara ornament protects the body and makes it complete and attractive to be unornamented is to invite misfortune In The Body Adorned Vidya Dehejia who has dedicated her career to the study of Indian art draws on the literature of court poets the hymns of saints and acharyas and verses from inscriptions to illuminate premodern India's unique treatment of the sculpted and painted form She focuses on the coexistence of sacred and sensuous images within the common boundaries of Buddhist Jain and Hindu sacred spaces redefining terms like sacred and secular in relation to Indian architecture She also considers the paradox of passionate poetry in which saints praised the sheer bodily beauty of the divine form and nonsacred Rajput painted manuscripts which freely inserted gods into the earthly realm of the courts By juxtaposing visual and literary sources Dehejia demonstrates the harmony between the sacred and the profane in classical Indian culture Her synthesis of art literature and cultural materials not only generates an all inclusive picture of the period but also revolutionizes our understanding of the cultural ethos of premodern India All You Want is Money, All You Need is Love Rachel Dwyer,2000 This is an examination of India s bourgeois its lifestyle and aspirations as manifested in fiction and film It looks at idealised womanhood and examines how these are reworked in narratives how conflicts are resolved and new models developed Black Marigolds E.
