Love Of The Land:

Land of Love and Ruins Oddný Eir, 2016-10-25 Oddn Eir is an authentic author philosopher and mystic She weaves together diaries and fiction She is the writer I feel can best express the female psyche of now and has bridged the gap between rural Iceland and Western philosophy A true pioneer Bj rk The winner of the Icelandic Women s Literature Prize in 2012 Land of Love and Ruins is the debut novel by a daring new voice in international fiction Oddn Eir Written in the form of a diary but with fantastical linguistic verve the narrator sets out on a universal quest to find a place to belong and a way of being in the world Paradoxically her longing to settle down drives her to embark on all kinds of journeys physical and mental through time and space in order to find answers to questions that concern not only her personally but also the whole of humankind She explores various modes of living ponders different types of relationships and contemplates her bond with her family land and nation trying to find a balance between companionship and independence movement and stability past present and future An enchanting blend of autobiography diary philosophical inquiry and fantasy Land of Love and Ruins is a richly imagined and utterly unique book about being human in the modern world Love in the Land of Dementia

Deborah Shouse, 2013-10-28 For many families a diagnosis of dementia is an ending For Deborah Shouse it was a beginning My mother taught me how to celebrate and appreciate what we have right now Through her mother s dementia Deborah discovered compassion deepening love and increased connection with her mother and her family Love in the Land of Dementia offers hope to family members friends and care partners of people who are living with memory loss Strong fluid organization and tender writing distinguish this purposeful and compelling read which is filled with practical suggestions compassionate support and unexpected insights Deborah Shouse s writing has appeared in the Washington Post Christian Science Monitor Reader s Digest Newsweek Woman s Day Hemispheres Family Circle Spirituality Health Chicago Tribune and Ms She writes a weekly column on love stories for the Kansas City Star and has co authored Working Woman s Communications Survival Guide which is in its fifth printing and Antiquing for Dummies She has written several memoirs and business books and has been featured in more than a dozen Chicken Soup books Land of Love and Drowning Tiphane Yanique, 2014-07-10 Recipient of the 2014 American Academy of Arts and Letters Rosenthal Foundation Award A major debut from an award winning writer an epic family saga set against the magic and the rhythms of the Virgin Islands In the early 1900s the Virgin Islands are transferred from Danish to American rule and an important ship sinks into the Caribbean Sea Orphaned by the shipwreck are two sisters and their half brother now faced with an uncertain identity and future Each of them is unusually beautiful and each is in possession of a particular magic that will either sink or save them Chronicling three generations of an island family from 1916 to the 1970s Land of Love and Drowning is a novel of love and magic set against the emergence of Saint Thomas into the modern world Uniquely imagined with echoes of Toni Morrison Gabriel Garcia M rquez and the author s own Caribbean family history the story is told in a language and rhythm that evoke an entire world and way of life and love Following the Bradshaw family through sixty years of fathers and daughters mothers and sons love affairs curses magical gifts loyalties births deaths and triumphs Land of Love and Drowning is a gorgeous vibrant debut by an exciting prizewinning young writer For Love of the Land R. Neil Sampson,1985 In the spring of 1935 the skies of New York and Washington D C were darkened by windblown soils from farms of Texas and Oklahoma Congressmen could taste the grit in their mouths as they listened to Hugh Hammond Bennett testify about the need for a national soil conservation program Conservation districts local units of government designed to guide soil and water conservation work led the action to get soil erosion under control For Love of the Land tells the story of their founding recounting how they built a national organization the National Association of Conservation Districts NACD to represent them in the fight for a sound national conservation program For Love of the Land also describes the people whose bold ideas sparked the conservation movement The characters are strong Hugh Bennett charismatic leader of the Soil Conservation Service E C Mac McArthur the dedicated first president of NACD from South Carolina who didn't see why World War II equipment shouldn't go to conservation districts Water Davis the burly Texas rancher who tackled conservation with the same energy that he used to organize his timber cotton cattle and grain holdings Additionally this book provides a track record of the accomplishments and the unfinished agenda of the conservation movement in this country Keeping soil on the land and out of our waters is a goal everyone agrees upon But how to get that job done is another matter Should the federal government mandate erosion and pollution control standards Who should set the priorities for resource conservation work What happens when the goals of environmentalists conflict with the economic needs of farmers Author R Neil Sampson introduces us to the complex array of conservation programs that have grown as our national answer to those questions Woven into the texture of the book are the many quieter achievements of NACD the founding and growth of its conservation awards programs its weekly newsletter Ladies Auxiliary and the programs that reach out to districts with needed services to get conservation on the land and protect the nation's waters This book provides an inside look at how the soil and water conservation programs and policies in the United States were developed and why they work as they do About the Author R Neil Sampson operates a natural resource consulting firm in Alexandria Virginia He was executive vice president of the National Association of Conservation Districts from 1978 to 1984 A native of Idaho he has degrees in agronomy from the University of Idaho and public administration from Harvard University He is the author of Farmland or Wasteland A Time to Choose and With One Voice The National Association of Conservation Districts He has also published dozens of book chapters professional papers and popular articles about natural resource concerns and policy issues The Earth Abideth George Dell,1998-11 The Linthorne family settle in the untilled farmland of Ohio in 1866 a man who could turn raw earth into prosperity but could not know the love of his sons a beautiful woman who sacrifices her feelings for the sake of her family and four children who fulfill destinies far different from their parents dreams Love of the Land Edgar Pankey,2000 Their Promised Land Ian

Buruma, 2016-01-19 A family history of surpassing beauty and power Ian Buruma's account of his grandparents enduring love through the terror and separation of two world wars During the almost six years England was at war with Nazi Germany Winifred and Bernard Schlesinger Ian Buruma's grandparents and the film director John Schlesinger's parents were like so many others thoroughly sundered from each other Their only recourse was to write letters back and forth And write they did often every day In a way they were just picking up where they left off in 1918 at the end of their first long separation because of the Great War that swept Bernard away to some of Europe's bloodiest battlefields The thousands of letters between them were part of an inheritance that ultimately came into the hands of their grandson Ian Buruma Now in a labor of love that is also a powerful act of artistic creation Ian Buruma has woven his own voice in with theirs to provide the context and counterpoint necessary to bring to life not just a remarkable marriage but a class and an age Winifred and Bernard inherited the high European cultural ideals and attitudes that came of being born into prosperous German Jewish migr families To young Ian who would visit from Holland every Christmas they seemed the very essence of England their spacious Berkshire estate the model of genteel English country life at its most pleasant and refined It wasn't until years later that he discovered how much more there was to the story At its heart Their Promised Land is the story of cultural assimilation The Schlesingers were very British in the way their relatives in Germany were very German until Hitler destroyed that option The problems of being Jewish and facing anti-Semitism even in the country they loved were met with a kind of stoic discretion But they showed solidarity when it mattered most As the shadows of war lengthened again the Schlesingers mounted a remarkable effort which Ian Buruma describes movingly to rescue twelve Jewish children from the Nazis and see to their upkeep in England Many are the books that do bad marriages justice precious few books take readers inside a good marriage In Their Promised Land Buruma has done just that introducing us to a couple whose love was sustaining through the darkest hours of the century Look for Ian's new book A Tokyo Romance in March 2018 Love in a Fearful Land Henri J. M. Nouwen, 2006 This is Henri Nouwen's personal account of a pilgrimage to Santiago Atitlan a Mayan town in the highlands of Guatemala It was there that an American priest Father Stanley Rother was murdered by a death squad in the parish where he served In traveling to Santiago Nouwen hoped to learn more about this modern martyr about the faith that drew him there and the love that held him in place even when his life was threatened Voices for the Land, 2002 A celebration of the special bond Minnesotans have with the land expressed through compelling essays and beautiful photographs Her Land, Her Love Evangeline Parsons-Yazzie, 2014 Ninaanibaa's heart belonged to Hashk Yi Naabaah The Warrior Who Fights with Anger She loved him for protecting his awee babies K e kinship Naabeeho Navajo people and Din tah land Hashke Yi Naabaah is summoned on a pursuit to restore peace and harmony to Din tah N n n baa gently placed her hand over her heart and wondered if her own heart was prepared to never feel love again She stopped to think about life without love the kind of love that her husband showered upon her Leaving their sacred land was a painful decision forced upon them but Hashk Yi

Naabaah and N n n baa always relied on their love prayers and kinship in overcoming hardship loneliness and suffering Will they escape the shackles of war and reunite with their children within the four sacred mountains of Dietah American Fire: Love, Arson, and Life in a Vanishing Land Monica Hesse, 2017-07-11 A New York Times Notable Book of the Year A Washington Post Notable Book of the Year One of Amazon's 20 Best Books of the Year Named one of the Best Books of the Year by BuzzFeed Bustle NPR NYLON and Thrillist Finalist for the Goodreads Book Award Nonfiction Finalist for the Edgar Award Best Fact Crime A Book of the Month Club Selection A New York Times Book Review Editors Choice Selection A brisk captivating and expertly crafted reconstruction of a community living through a time of fear Masterful Washington Post The arsons started on a cold November midnight and didn't stop for months Night after night the people of Accomack County waited to see which building would burn down next regarding each other at first with compassion and later suspicion Vigilante groups sprang up patrolling the rural Virginia coast with cameras and camouflage Volunteer firefighters slept at their stations The arsonist seemed to target abandoned buildings but local police were stretched too thin to surveil them all Accomack was desolate there were hundreds of abandoned buildings And by the dozen they were burning One of the year's best and most unusual true crime books Christian Science Monitor American Fire brings to vivid life the reeling county of Accomack Ace reporter Entertainment Weekly Monica Hesse spent years investigating the story emerging with breathtaking portraits of the arsonists troubled addict Charlie Smith and his girlfriend Tonya Bundick Tracing the shift in their relationship from true love to crime spree Hesse also conjures the once thriving coastal community decimated by a punishing economy and increasingly suspicious of their neighbors as the culprits remained at large Weaving the story into the history of arson in the United States the critically acclaimed American Fire re-creates the anguished nights this quiet county lit up in flames evoking a microcosm of rural America a land half gutted before the fires began Love In A Torn Land Jean Sasson, 2011-12-31 Bestselling author Jean Sasson tells the dramatic true story of a young woman caught up in Saddam Hussein's genocide of the Kurdish people of Iraq One morning Joanna a young bride living in the Kurdish mountains of Iraq was surprised to see dead birds drop silently out of the clear sky They were followed by sinister canisters falling to the ground bringing fear and death It was 1987 and Saddam Hussein had ordered his cousin Chemical Ali to bombard Joanna's village Bergalou with chemical weapons Temporarily blinded in the attack Joanna was rescued by her husband a Kurdish freedom fighter After being caught in another bombardment and left for dead in the rubble they managed to flee over the mountains in a harrowing escape Now living in the UK and working for British Airways Joanna has told the story of her eventful life to Jean Sasson the bestselling chronicler of oppressed women's lives in the Princess trilogy and Mayada Love in a Torn Land is published while the world watches the trial of the notorious Chemical Ali Saddam Hussein's most bloodthirsty henchman for crimes including the genocide of the Kurdish people Mels Love Land Melanie Lutz, 2015-03-07 What would the world be like If Love always remained the answer If 80% of the thoughts flying in the air were loving Imagine the

club even when it doesn t always seem to love you back But it is also a book about much more than that Anthony Clavane loves Leeds certainly the football club but also the city and the tribes that make it Now that he is an exile in the South his frequent pilgrimages to the stadium speak for themselves But he no less loves the rarely glimpsed back streets of his youth and even has a feel for the long gone slums where his ancestors once settled Leeds is his promised land idealised and unreachable yet still it defines him Sports writing at its very best Daily Telegraph
