Hebrew Love Poems David C. Gross, Shraga Weil, 1995 Several translators have reworked over 90 love lyrics from biblical times to current poetry written in modern Israel

Arabic and Hebrew Love Poems in Al-Andalus Shari Lowin, 2013-11-20 Arabic and Hebrew Love Poems in al Andalus investigates a largely overlooked subset of Muslim and Jewish love poetry in medieval Spain hetero and homo erotic love poems written by Muslim and Jewish religious scholars in which the lover and his sensual experience of the beloved are compared to scriptural characters and storylines This book examines the ways in which the scriptural referents fit in with or differ from the traditional Andalusian poetic conventions The study then proceeds to compare the scriptural stories and characters as presented in the poems with their scriptural and exegetical sources This new intertextual analysis reveals that the Jewish and Muslim scholar poets utilized their sacred literature in their poems of desire as more than poetic ornamentation in employing Qur'anic heroes in their secular verses the Muslim poets presented a justification of profane love and sanctification of erotic human passions In the Hebrew lust poems which utilize biblical heroes we can detect subtle subversive and surprisingly placed interpretations of biblical accounts Moving beyond the concern with literary history to challenge the traditional boundaries between secular and religious poetry this book provides a new multidisciplinary approach to existing materials and will be of interest to students scholars and researchers of Islamic and Jewish Studies as well as to those with an interest in Hebrew and Arabic poetry of Islamic Spain

adornments and engaging the reader with an uncompromising even disarming directness Goldberg's last poems enact and manifest a poetics of intrepid truth telling The play between revelation and concealment the language precision and the unflinching end of life gaze transform these texts into powerfully moving and often surprising poems The book itself in the original format as masterfully edited by Tuvia Ruebner and with drawings by Goldberg herself interspersed among the poems is a significant and beautiful artifact of modern Hebrew culture This bilingual edition with translations by award winning translator Rachel Tzvia Back brings us poems from a singular poetic voice of the 20th century poems which will enrich reflect and stir the reader's heart
