

A Walk with You

By 365PoetryDays.com

I use to call you my knight in shining armor,
For you have rescued my weeping heart in bitter fervor,
My hero in the darkest hours of my loneliness,
And broke the shackles of my melancholic distress.

I've been walking this road for several years,
Passed the curves in the shadow of my fears,
Then you held my hand as I took a step,
And together we danced for a blissful leap.

You held me in your arms like there's no tomorrow,
Your smiles have been the antidote of my sorrows,
No longer afraid to surpass a crossroad's uncertainties,
You taught me to drop off my insecurities.

There must've been someone else better for you,
But you define "ME" as the best one for "You",
No longer "I" but "We" is the promise we formulated,
A perpetual journey together is what we have created.

I look behind not with bitter regrets,
For my feet landed me to your memoirs I dare not forget,
We have reached this point with this love so true,
I'd be glad to walk an extra mile with you.

Love Visions Geoffrey Chaucer, 2006-05-25 Spanning Chaucer's working life these four poems build on the medieval convention of love visions poems inspired by dreams woven into rich allegories about the rituals and emotions of courtly love In The Book of the Duchess the most traditional of the four the dreamer meets a widower who has loved and lost the perfect lady and The House of Fame describes a dream journey in which the poet meets with classical divinities Witty lively and playful The Parliament of Birds details an encounter with the birds of the world in the Garden of Nature as they seek to meet their mates while The Legend of Good Women sees Chaucer being censured by the God of Love and seeking to make amends for writing poems that depict unfaithful women Together the four create a marvellously witty lively and humane self portrait of the poet

The Satisfied Life Jane Ellen McAvoy,2009-07-01 Christianity centers on the life and death of Jesus as Christ Often Christians focus on the importance of Christ s Sacrifice as the means of human salvation and the faithful are encouraged to imitate this suffering through self sacrifice and self denial More than a few Christians particularly women have found such encouragement to self sacrifice to be a means for continuing oppression men over women colonizers over the colonized the powerful over the powerless In The Satisfied Life Jane McAvoy constructs a feminist theology of atonement or satisfaction for sin that draws on the insights of six medieval women mystics Julian of Norwich Mechthild of Magdeburg Hildegard of Bingen Margery Kempe Hadewijch of Brabant and Catherine of Siena These Christian writers reveal alternatives to a theology of oppression Salvation for them means experiencing the death and resurrection of Christ not as life denying but as a life affirming celebration of God s love for us through the sustaining love of Jesus

The Great Fires Jack Gilbert,2013-09-11 JOYCE S MOTTO has had much fame but few apostles Among them there has been Jack Gilbert and his orthodoxy a strictness that has required of this poet now in the seventh decade of his severe life the penalty of his having had almost no fame at all In an era that puts before the artist so many sleek and official temptations keeping unflinchingly to a code of silence exile and cunning could not have been managed without a show of strictness well beyond the reach of the theater of the coy The far stubborn disastrous course of Jack Gilbert's resolute journey not one that would promise in time to bring him home to the consolations of Penelope and the comforts of Ithaca but one that would instead take him ever outward to the impossible blankness of the desert could never have been achieved in the society of others What has kept this great poet brave has been the difficult company of his poems and now we have in Gilbert's third and most silent book what may be what must be the bravest of these imperial accomplishments Hardy's Poetic Vision in The Dynasts Susan Dean, 2015-03-08 Susan Dean uses Hardy's own metaphor the diorama of a dream to interpret The Dynasts his largest and last major composition She shows that the poem presents a model of the human mind In that mind is enacted an event the war with Napoleon and simultaneously the watching of that event The author provides a reading of the poem in visual dramatic terms using the diorama stage as the vehicle for the poet's field of vision She then defines various visual dimensions the relationships between them and the various ways in which they can be seen and understood Her interpretation draws on Hardy's autobiography and critical essays Originally published in 1977 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905
