tumultuous love affairs this is the enormously contradictory and glamorous life of Hollywood's last great star Gone with the Wind on Film Cynthia Marylee Molt, 1990 This is the definitive collection of data about all aspects of this film the ten sections focus on characters in the novel the players and their own histories costuming every major garment worn major set furnishings the filming schedule etc Also bibliographies discographies filmographies of the actors and actresses and collectibles An appendix lists available still photographs Vivien Alexander Walker, 1994-01-12 Vivien Leigh is best known as the former Mrs Laurence Olivier the beautiful but willful Scarlett O'Hara and the fading southern belle with a tenuous grip on reality Blanche Du Bois In life and on the screen these were her public roles Walker's excellent biography fills the gaps giving insights into her private life into what it must have been like to be Vivien Leigh Walker author of Garbo A Portrait CH Mar 81 Dietrich 1984 and Bette Davis A Celebration 1986 is a careful researcher who managed to win the confidence of the right people His interview subjects include Vivien Leigh's only daughter Suzanne Farrington her first agent John Glidden and her last husband Jack Merivale Vivien is personal without being excessively gossipy and informative without being pedantic Walker's book should delight filmgoers theatergoers and readers curious about prominent people Leigh's achievements were many but her personality had its darker side even her 20 years as half of Britain's reigning theatrical couple the Oliviers took its toll on her physical and mental health Amply supplied with photographs of the actress at all stages of her life Vivien is an engaging book about an engaging figure Undergraduates and general readers J L Cohen Los Angeles County Museum of Art Olivier Philip Ziegler, 2014-06-03 A finalist for the Sheridan Morley Prize that has been called probably the best Olivier book for general readers Kirkus Reviews Philip Ziegler's Olivier provides an incredibly accessible and comprehensive portrait of this Hollywood superstar Oscar winning director and one who is considered the greatest stage actor of the twentieth century The era abounded in great actors Gielgud Richardson Guinness Burton O Toole but none could challenge Laurence Olivier's range and power By the 1940s he had achieved international stardom His affair with Vivien Leigh led to a marriage as glamorous and as tragic as any in Hollywood history He was as accomplished a director as he was a leading man his three Shakespearian adaptations are among the most memorable ever filmed And yet at the height of his fame he accepted what was no more than an administrator's wage to become the founding Director of the National Theatre In 2013 the theatre celebrates its fiftieth anniversary without Olivier's leadership it would never have achieved the status that it enjoys today Off stage Olivier was the most extravagant of characters generous yet almost insanely jealous of those few contemporaries whom he deemed to be his rivals charming but with a ferocious temper With access to more than fifty hours of candid unpublished interviews Ziegler ensures that Olivier's true character at its most undisguised shines through as never before Olivier Terry Coleman, 2006-10-31 Based on exclusive unprecedented access the definitive biography of Sir Laurence Olivier the dashing self-invented Englishman who became the greatest actor of the twentieth century Sir Laurence Olivier met everyone knew everyone and played every role in existence But Olivier was as elusive in life as he was on the stage a bold and practiced pretender who changed names altered his identity and defied characterization In this mesmerizing book acclaimed biographer Terry Coleman draws for the first time on the vast archive of Olivier s private papers and correspondence and those of his family finally uncovering the history and the private self that Olivier worked so masterfully all his life to obscure Beginning with the death of his mother at age eleven Olivier was defined throughout his life by a passionate devotion to the women closest to him Acting and sex were for him inseparable through famous romances with Vivien Leigh and Joan Plowright and countless trysts with lesser known mistresses these relationships were constantly entangled with his stage work each feeding the other and driving Olivier to greater heights And the heights were great at every step he was surrounded by the foremost celebrities of the time on both sides of the Atlantic Richard Burton Greta Garbo William Wyler Katharine Hepburn The list is as long as it is dazzling Here is the first comprehensive account of the man whose autobiography written late in his life told only a small part of the story In Olivier Coleman uncovers the origins of Olivier s genius and reveals the methods of the century s most fascinating performer British Popular Films 1929-1939 Stephen Shafer,2003-09-02 Shafer s study challenges the conventional historical assumption that British feature films during the Thirties were mostly oriented to the middle class Instead he makes the critical distinction between films intended for West End and international circulation and those intended primarily for domestic working class audiences Far from being alienated by a middle class institution working men and women flocked to see pictures featuring such music hall luminaries as Gracie Fields and George Formby Scandals of Classic Hollywood Anne Helen Petersen,2015 A collection of shocking clashes and controversies from Hollywood s Golden Age featuring notorious personalities including Judy Garland Cary Grant Jean Harlow and more Movie Anecdotes Peter Hay,1991-12-12 Hollywood Walter Winchell quipped is where they shoot too many movies and not enough actors Always looking for an angle always scheming always the scene of clashing egos the movie industry is where they place you under contract instead of observation and if you don t have anything nice to say write it down In 1940 I had my choice between Hitler and Hollywood French director Ren e Clair recalled and I preferred Hollywood just a little In Movie Anecdotes Peter Hay treats us to a delightful ride through the world that has captivated audiences for almost a century with stories that are often hilarious sometimes tragic and always entertaining He takes us from the rough and tumble early days when one studio paid Pancho Villa 25 000 to launch his attacks only in daylight after a film crew had set up to the studio era when Joan Crawford refused to cross the street on the MGM lot except in a chauffeured limousine to the shenanigans of today s global industry Here are stories about all the legends Charlie Chaplin Greta Garbo John Barrymore Mae West Lucille Ball Marilyn Monroe Errol Flynn Humphrey Bogart Bette Davis Judy Garland Sophia Loren John Wayne and of course Ronald Reagan There are the great directors from D W Griffith Hitchcock and Eisenstein to Kurosawa Bergman Visconti Huston Ford and Woody Allen And Hay has selected tales of the writers the wits and the grand moguls including perhaps the largest collection of Goldwynisms both genuine and apocryphal Along with the laughter this volume recreates the conflicts that have torn the movie world from battles over money and contracts to discrimination divorces and scandals Colorful incredible bitter funny the stories about moviemaking are as fantastic as the pictures themselves Now they have been gathered together in an irresistible bouquet that is certain to delight every movie buff and provide fascinating insights for serious students of film

Natasha Suzanne Finstad, 2009-11-04 The New York Times bestselling definitive biography of Natalie Wood Natasha is the haunting story of a vulnerable and talented actress whom many of us felt we knew We watched her mature on the movie screen before our eyes in Miracle on 34th Street Rebel Without a Cause West Side Story Splendor in the Grass and on and on She has been hailed along with Marilyn Monroe and Elizabeth Taylor as one of the top three female movie stars in the history of film making her a legend in her own lifetime and beyond But the story of what Natalie endured of what her life was like when the doors of the soundstages closed has long been obscured Natasha is based on years of exhaustive research into Natalie s turbulent life and mysterious drowning Author Suzanne Finstad conducted nearly four hundred interviews with Natalie s family close friends legendary costars lovers film crews and virtually everyone connected with the investigation of her strange death Through these firsthand accounts from many who have never spoken publicly before Finstad has reconstructed a life of emotional abuse and exploitation of almost unprecedented fame great loneliness poignancy and loss She sheds an unwavering light on Natalie s complex relationships with James Dean Elvis Presley Frank Sinatra Raymond Burr Warren Beatty and Robert Wagner and reveals the two lost loves of Natalie s life whom her controlling mother prevented her from marrying Finstad tells this beauty s heartbreaking story with sensitivity and grace revealing a complex and conflicting mix of fragility and strength in a woman who was swept along by forces few could have resisted
