Webb, 1998 Many of us keep pet animals we rely on them for companionship and unconditional love For some people their closest relationships may be with their pets In the wake of the animal rights movement some ethicists have started to re-examine this relationship and to question the rights of humans to own other sentient beings in this way In this engaging and thought provoking book Stephen Webb brings a Christian perspective to bear on the subject of our responsibility to animals looked at through the lens of our relations with pets especially dogs Webb argues that the emotional bond with companion animals should play a central role in the way we think about animals in general and against the more extreme animal liberationists defends the intermingling of the human and animal worlds He tries to imagine what it would be like to treat animals as a gift from God and indeed argues that not only are animals a gift for us but they give to us we need to attend to their giving and return their gifts appropriately Throughout the book he insists that what Christians call grace is present in our relations with animals just as it is with other humans Grace is the inclusive and expansive power of God's love to create and sustain relationships of real mutuality and reciprocity and Webb unfolds the implications of the recognition that animals too participate in God's abundant grace Webb's thesis affirms and persuasively defends many of the things that pet lovers feel instinctively that their relationships with their companion animals are meaningful and important and that their pets have value and worth in themselves in the eyes of God His book will appeal to a broad audience of thoughtful Christians and animal lovers The Daily Round. Meditation, Prayer and Praise Adapted to the Course of the Christian Year Thomas Benson Pollock, 1882 Peace to All Beings Judy Carman, 2003 This visionary book of hope for a world at peace is also an excellent reference for animal activists who wish to explore the interconnectedness of animal rights ecology world peace and social justice Peace to All Beings shows how animal rights and liberation are an essential part of any movement that is working to make the world a better place It is a valuable aid for anyone seeking to live in harmony with the values of compassion nonviolence and reverence for all life Animal Reiki Elizabeth Fulton, Kathleen Prasad, 2006-04-05 A great introduction to the growing field of energy medicine Easy to read this book will be enjoyed by animal guardians and veterinarians alike Shawn Messonnier DVM author of The Natural Health Bible for Dogs Cats Whether you're a newcomer to the field of energy healing an experienced practitioner or an animal lover committed to learning everything you can about your companion's health Animal Reiki will open your eyes to a new level of health and well being From dogs and cats to horses and birds this book is everything you need to understand and appreciate the power of Reiki to heal and deepen the bond with the animals in your life I learned a lot from Animal Reiki and highly recommend it to a wide audience Marc Bekoff University of Colorado author of Minding Animals and editor of the Encyclopedia of Animal Behavior Fulton and Prasad have created a much needed guide to a method of helping animals heal that is gentle intuitive safe and powerful Susan Chernak McElroy author of All My Relations Living with Animals as Teachers and Healers A powerful reminder of the wider uses of the system of Reiki and how humanity can be of purposeful benefit to all Bronwen and Frans Stiene International House of Reiki authors of A Z of Reiki The Japanese Art of Reiki and The Reiki Sourcebook East and West Series, 1992 Largely composed of excerpts from the writings of T L Vaswani Love between Equals Polly Young-Eisendrath, 2019-01-15 Learn how to successfully negotiate conflicts and deepen our most intimate relationships in this practical and thoughtful guide by an experienced Buddhist teacher psychotherapist and couples counselor A committed relationship as most people see it today is a partnership of equals who share values and goals a team united by love and dedicated to each other's growth on every level This contemporary model for coupledness requires real intention and work and more often than not the traditional archetypes of relationships experienced by our parents and
