London Docklands Brian C. Edwards, 2013-10-22 London Docklands Urban Design in an Age of Deregulation discusses the process and products of the first 10 years of the London Docklands The book is comprised of 10 chapters that are organized into three parts The first part talks about the potentials of the London Docklands The second part presents the area of studies which are the Isle of Dogs Surrey Docks Wapping and the Royal Docks The last part deals with the observations and speculations The text will be a great source to urban planners particularly those who are involved in projects that deal with cities that are in close proximity to large bodies of water Intertwining: Steven Holl, 1996-04 To his earlier articulated concept of anchoring which connects a construction with the history of the ground locale and region Holl adds the concept of intertwining which is illuminated by sensory perceptual conceptual and emotional experiences Illustrates with drawings plans and photographs projects in Japan Finland Germany Switzerland Holland Korea and Norway No index Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Architectural Possibilities in the Work of Eisenman Michael Jasper, 2022-11-11 This book examines the central decades of Peter Eisenman's work through a formal and thematic analysis of key architectural projects and writings revealing underlying characteristics and arguing for their productive continuity and transformative role The book explores Eisenman's approach to architectural form generation and thinking It does this through a thematic and formal analysis of projects and writings from the mid 1970s to the mid 1990s Following an introductory chapter addressing the theme of potentialities the book is organised in two parts The first part focuses on key period writings of Eisenman framing the close reading around a practice of resistance the architect's approach to history as analysis and the transformative conceptualisation of time In the second part the book undertakes an analysis of select projects from the 1980s and 1990s Three formal preoccupations and conceptual orientations ground manipulations figuration and spatial events organise this part of the book Previously unpublished material from the Peter Eisenman fonds Canadian Centre for Architecture Montreal provides primary source material A concluding chapter addresses Eisenman's teaching its relation to his larger project and possible legacies for educators practitioners scholars and theorists Lotus International, 2001 Avery Index to Architectural Periodicals. 2d Ed., Rev. and Enl Avery Library, 1993 Avery Index to Architectural Periodicals Avery Library, 1997 Architectural Publications Index, 2002 Aldo Rossi Aldo Rossi, 1993 Admired as much for his artistic ability as for his architectural skill Rossi has exhibited at galleries around the world The Politics of Architectural Pedagogy in Iran Ali Javid, 2024-08-26 The Politics of Architectural Pedagogy in Iran explores the evolution of architectural pedagogy during two significant socio political upheavals in Iran The White Revolution 1963 and the Islamic Revolution 1979 It examines how these transformative periods influenced the field providing valuable insights into the intersection of architectural education and broader socio political shifts in Iran By examining the critical role of education in achieving geopolitical objectives during the Cold War this book explores architectural pedagogy

as an agent for resistance and revolution It highlights how architectural pedagogy not only reflects radical ideologies but also actively engages in socio political transformation The book uncovers how architectural pedagogy became one of the mechanisms to accomplish revolutionary goals This is evident in initiatives like the Pedagogical Revolution during the White Revolution 1963 aimed at modernizing educational institutions and the Revolutionary Pedagogy during the Islamic Revolution 1979 which sought to serve the masses and the religious revolutionary society In this way the book adds a new geopolitical perspective to the contemporary discourse of radical pedagogies This book explores the intricate connections between architectural pedagogy and politics through a transdisciplinary approach It analyzes original multilingual documents including political agendas cultural agreements curricula teaching methods student works exhibitions and conferences It will be of interest to architectural historians and architecture students particularly those interested in Global South development modernism architectural pedagogy international relations and Middle Eastern studies Many Urbanisms Martin J. Murray, 2022-02-15 Winner 2023 Choice Outstanding Academic Title Now for the first time in history the majority of the world's population lives in cities But urbanization is accelerating in some places and slowing down in others The sprawling megacities of Asia and Africa as well as many other smaller and medium sized cities throughout the Global South are expected to continue growing At the same time older industrial cities in wealthier countries are experiencing protracted socioeconomic decline Nonetheless mainstream urban studies continues to treat a handful of superstar cities in Europe and North America as the exemplars of world urbanism even though current global growth and development represent a dramatic break with past patterns Martin J Murray offers a groundbreaking guide to the multiplicity heterogeneity and complexity of contemporary global urbanism He identifies and traces four distinct pathways that characterize cities today tourist entertainment cities with world class aspirations struggling postindustrial cities megacities experiencing hypergrowth and instant cities or master planned cities built from scratch Murray shows how these different types of cities respond to different pressures and logics rather than progressing through the stages of a predetermined linear path He highlights new spatial patterns of urbanization that have undermined conventional understandings of the city exploring the emergence of polycentric fragmented haphazard and unbounded metropolises Such cities he argues should not be seen as deviations from a norm but rather as alternatives within a constellation of urban possibility Innovative and wide ranging Many Urbanisms offers ways to understand the disparate forms of global cities today on their own terms

Publishers Weekly, 1987 Customary International Humanitarian Law Jean-Marie Henckaerts, Carolin Alvermann, Comité international de la Croix-Rouge, 2005-03-03 Customary International Humanitarian Law Volume I Rules is a comprehensive analysis of the customary rules of international humanitarian law applicable in international and non international armed conflicts In the absence of ratifications of important treaties in this area this is clearly a publication of major importance carried out at the express request of the international community In so doing this study identifies the
