Exploring Site-specific Art Judith Rugg, 2010-02-28 Over recent years a greater diversity of spaces has opened up worldwide for the making and display of art beyond the gallery. A new space consciousness has developed with an emphasis on the significance of the spatial. Judith Rugg takes up a range of site specific artworks internationally located in countries ranging from China to France, Italy and the UK, Argentina and Canada to Australia, Poland and the Netherlands to explore the relationships between site specific art and space set within its globalising contexts. Through close inspection of works such as artists as Doris Salcedo, Langlands and Bell, Phyllida Barlow and Vong Phaophanit, Rugg considers how an interdisciplinary spatial theory can inform many elements of contemporary art. In clear illustrated chapters she engages with very contemporary spatial issues including those of the environment, cultural identity and belonging as well as experiences of displacement, migration and marginalisation and the effects of urbanization and tourism. For students and practitioners of fine arts, art theory and history as well as those who are fascinated by site specific art, this is an original and challenging exploration.

Nothingness and Emptiness Steven W. Laycock, 2012-02-01 This sustained and distinctively Buddhist challenge to the ontology of Jean Paul Sartre's Being and Nothingness resolves the incoherence implicit in the Sartrean conception of nothingness by opening to a Buddhist vision of emptiness. Rooted in the insights of Madhyamika dialectic and an articulated meditative Zen phenomenology, Nothingness and Emptiness uncovers and examines the assumptions that sustain Sartre's early phenomenological ontology and questions his theoretical elaboration of consciousness as nothingness. Laycock demonstrates that in addition to a relative nothingness, the for-itself defined against the positivity and plenitude of the in-itself, Sartre's ontology requires but also repudiates a conception of absolute nothingness. The Buddhist emptiness and is thus as it stands logically unstable, perhaps incoherent. The author is not simply critical; he reveals the junctures at which Sartrean ontology appeals for a Buddhist conception of emptiness and offers the needed supplement.
