goats meat in a desolate town of Santiago del Estero watched illegal cockfights and vicious machete battles between plantation workers in Jujuy and was healed by an Indian herb doctor in the mountains of Bolivia for his infection after excavating graves these obstacles have captured the hearts of people from around the world In addition to the remarkable details of his travel expedition Tschiffely's relationship with his horses Mancha and Gato is perhaps the most endearing element of the book and his photos of the people and places he encountered make Tschiffely's Ride the perfect travel companion for adventure enthusiasts

for The San Francisco Chronicle Ellery Queen Mystery Magazine and The New York Times From these resources Mr Sobin created Boucher's Best and Important Lists to Consider lists that provide insight into important writing in the field from 1942 through Boucher's death in 1968 This is a great resource for all mystery readers and collectors Winner of the 2008 Macavity Awards for Best Mystery Nonfiction Here in Spain Chapman Mortimer, 1955 This is neither a guide book nor a travel book It is rather an account of one man's experiences during two years in Spain a country with such a hold on the imagination of so many people that more nonsense is written about it than about any other in Europe The true reasons for Spain's fascination are however apparent enough in this book The author insists that he has invented nothing and writes only about what he knows and clearly it is a country where invention is unnecessary Every new moon and every full moon of every year are spectacles that are not only visible but compelling but in Spain there is not only moonlight not only the Bulls or the spectacle or even the good manners of the Spanish There is something else and obviously it is this something else that the author is in search of even if he himself claims to be looking all over the east coast from Barcelona to Valencia for a little family circus or merely for a bath Dust jacket Leathermouth's Luck Carlton Dawe, 1934 Tennessee Teacher, 1962
