Loudon And The Landscape From Country Seat To Metropolis 1783 1843:

Loudon and the Landscape Dr. Melanie Simo, 1988 The Loudons and the Gardening Press Sarah Dewis, 2016-03-03

Through close readings of individual serials and books and archival work on the publication history of the Gardener's Magazine 1826-44 Sarah Dewis examines the significant contributions John and Jane Webb Loudon made to the gardening press and democratic discourse Vilified during their lifetimes by some sections of the press the Loudons were key players in the democratization of print media and the development of the printed image Both offered women readers a cultural alternative to the predominantly literary and classical culture of the educated English elite In addition they were innovative in emphasizing the value of scientific knowledge and the acquisition of taste as a means of eroding class difference As well as the Gardener's Magazine Dewis focuses on the lavish eight volume Arboretum et Fruticetum Britannicum 1838 an encyclopaedia of trees and shrubs and On the Laying Out Planting and Managing of Cemeteries 1843 arguing that John Loudon was a radical activist who reconfigured gardens in the public sphere as a landscape of enlightenment and as a means of social cohesion Her book is important in placing the Loudons' publications in the context of the history of the book media history garden history urban social history history of education nineteenth century radicalism and women's journalism

Midwestern Landscape Architecture William H. Tishler, 2004 Generously illustrated this collection profiles the bold innovators in turn of the century landscape architecture who developed a new style of design celebrating the native midwestern landscape Garden Plots Shelley Boyd, 2013-05-01 Canadian literature has long been preoccupied with the wilderness and the landscape but the garden has remained neglected terrain In Garden Plots Shelley Boyd focuses on private domestic gardens tended by individual gardeners to show how modest everyday spaces provide fertile grounds for the imagination Combining the history of gardening with literary analysis Garden Plots explores the use of the garden motif in the works of five authors Susanna Moodie Catharine Parr Traill Gabrielle Roy Carol Shields and Lorna Crozier With works spanning the nineteenth to twenty first centuries these writers reveal the associations between the arts of writing and gardening the evolving role of the female gardener and the changes that take place in Canada's literary gardens over time With the task of understanding our connection to the physical environment becoming increasingly important Garden Plots explores the subtle relations between place and narrative This fresh literary approach to Canada's gardening culture reveals that gardens grow and change not simply in the earth but also in the pages of our texts Romantic Genius Andrew

Elfenbein, 1999 Lisa Moore Albion Dictionary of Nineteenth-century Journalism in Great Britain and Ireland Laurel Brake, Marysa Demoor, 2009 A large scale reference work covering the journalism industry in 19th Century Britain

Death and Survival in Urban Britain Bill Luckin, 2015-05-19 The narratives of disease hygiene developments in medicine and the growth of urban environments are fundamental to the discipline of modern history Here the eminent urban historian Bill Luckin re-introduces a body of work which published together for the first time along with new material and contextualizing notes marks the beginning of this important strand of historiography Luckin charts the spread of cholera fever and the everyday but frequently deadly infections that afflicted the inhabitants of London and its new manufacturing districts between the 1830s and the end of the nineteenth century A second part Pollution and the Ills of Urban Industrialism concentrates on the water and smoke problems and the ways in which they came to be perceived defined and finally brought under a degree of control Death and Survival in Urban Britain explores the layered and interacting narratives within the framework of the urban revolution that transformed British society between 1800 and 1950 Country, Park and City

Francis R. Kowsky, 2003 After beginning his career as an architect in London Calvert Vaux 1824 1895 came to the Hudson River valley in 1850 at the invitation of Andrew Jackson Downing the reform minded writer on houses and gardens As Downing's partner and after Downing's death in 1852 Vaux designed country and suburban dwellings that were remarkable for their well conceived plans and their sensitive rapport with nature By 1857 the year he published his book Villas and Cottages Vaux had moved to New York City There he asked Frederick Law Olmsted to join him in preparing a design for Central Park He spent the next 38 years defending and refining their vision of Central Park as a work of art After the Civil War he and Olmsted led the nascent American park movement with their designs for parks and parkways in Brooklyn Buffalo and many other American cities Apart from undertakings with Olmsted Vaux cultivated a distinguished architectural practice Among his clients were the artist Frederic Church whose dream house Olana he helped create and the reform politician Samuel Tilden whose residence on New York's Gramercy Park remains one of the country's outstanding Victorian buildings A pioneering advocate for apartment houses in American cities Vaux designed buildings that mirrored the advance of urbanization in America including early model housing for the poor He planned the original portions of the Metropolitan Museum of Art and the American Museum of Natural History and conceived a stunning proposal for a vast iron and glass building to house the Centennial Exhibition in Philadelphia Especially notable are the many bridges and other charming structures that he designed for Central Park Vaux considered the Park's Terrace decorated by J W Mould as his greatest achievement An active participant in the cultural and intellectual life of New York Vaux was an idealist who regarded himself as an artist and a professional And while much has been written on Olmsted comparatively little has been published about Vaux The first in depth account of Vaux's career Country Park and City should be of great interest to historians of art architecture and urbanism as well as preservationists and other readers interested in New York City's past and America's first parks Literary Remains Mary Elizabeth Hotz, 2009-02-06

Literary Remains explores the unexpectedly central role of death and burial in Victorian England As Alan Ball creator of HBO's Six Feet Under quipped Once you put a dead body in the room you can talk about anything So too with the Victorians dead bodies especially their burial and cremation engaged the passionate attention of leading Victorians from sanitary reformers like Edwin Chadwick to bestselling novelists like Charles Dickens Elizabeth Gaskell Thomas Hardy and Bram Stoker Locating corpses at the center of an extensive range of concerns including money and law medicine and urban architecture social planning and folklore religion and national identity Mary Elizabeth Hotz draws on a range of legal administrative journalistic and literary writing to offer a thoughtful meditation on Victorian attitudes toward death and burial as well as how those attitudes influenced present day deathway practices Literary Remains gives new meaning to the phrase that serves as its significant theme Taught by death what life should be

Community Green David Nichols, Robert Freestone, 2024-02-06 Neighbourhood open space ranks highly as a key component in suburban liveability assessments originating from the development of urban planning as a profession and the proliferation of the garden suburb Community Green uniquely connects the past present and future of planning for small open spaces around the narrative of internal reserves The distinctive planned spaces are typically enclosed on every side hidden within residential blocks serving as local pocket parks and reflecting the evolving values of community life from the garden city movement to contemporary new urbanism This book resuscitates the enclosed almost secretive reserve from history as a distinctive form of local open space whose problems and potentialities are relevant to many other green community spaces In so doing it opens up even wider connections between localism and globalism the past and the future and for connecting community initiatives to broader global challenges of cohesion health food and climate change This fully illustrated book charts the outcomes and implications of this evolution across several continents injecting human stories of civic initiatives struggles and triumphs along the way Community Green will be of interest to a wide readership interested in studying managing and improving the quality of all small open spaces in the urban landscape The Cultured Landscape Sheila Harvey, Ken Fieldhouse, 2005 A team of eminent practitioners and writers contribute to an assessment of the philosophy of landscape and collectively form a new approach to creative design Northern Landscapes Tom E. Faulkner, Helen Berry, Jeremy Gregory, 2010 How distinctive is the landscape of the North East of England How far does its distinctive nature contribute to region s identity These are key questions addressed by this book drawing on hitherto little known detail and many new research findings Nature and Ideology Joachim Wolschke-Bulmahn, 1997 The essays in this volume explore the broad range of ideas about nature reflected in twentieth century concepts of natural gardens and their ideological implications They also investigate garden designers use of earlier ideas of natural gardens and their relationship to the rich model that nature offers To Live in the New World Judith K. Major, 1997 While most historians and critics have focused on the treatise Judith Major gives equal emphasis to Downing s spirited monthly editorials in the Horticulturist In the journal Downing spoke American and encouraged his countrymen and women to practice economy to use America s rich natural resources wisely yet artfully to be content with a little cottage and a few fine native trees Bridging Divides Eve Darian-Smith, 1999-10-01 In a study that is original and timely Eve Darian Smith uses the Channel Tunnel between England and France to explore the shifting geographies of nationalism postcolonialism and legal autonomy in the formation of the European Union Conducting ethnographic research in Kent the county at the English mouth of the Tunnel she looks at regional differences in feelings about Europe and at the vocabulary used in discussing the Tunnel Visual representations political cartoons photographs etchings regarding the Tunnel are also examined Two hundred years after Napoleon planned to invade England via a tunnel the completion in 1994 of a fast rail link between Great Britain and the European mainland symbolizes the disintegration of conventional state borders While the Tunnel precariously affirms the ideal of a united Europe it also brings to the fore questions of boundaries between the first and third worlds colonizers and colonized and the East and the West Bridging Divides is about much more than an engineering feat By exploring historical narratives tunnel stories and legal myths Darian Smith s study shows the interconnections between people s memories of the past and current history

Twentieth-Century Suburbs C.M.H Carr,J.W.R Whitehand,2014-04-08 Major contribution to the growing field of urban morphology Covers a neglected area Suburban growth in the interwar period Based on original research by the Urban Morphology Research Group UMRG Compliments the Changing Suburbs volume

Figuring it Out Ann B. Shteir,Bernard V. Lightman,2006 A collection of fifteen original essays analyzing gender in the imagery of science

History of Architectural Theory Hanno-Walter Kruft,1994 As the first comprehensive encyclopedic survey of Western architectural theory from Vitruvius to the present this book is an essential resource for architects students teachers historians and theorists Using only original sources Kruft has undertaken the monumental task of researching organizing and analyzing the significant statements put forth by architectural theorists over the last two thousand years The result is a text that is authoritative and complete easy to read without being reductive

John Clare in Context Geoffrey Summerfield,Hugh Haughton,Adam Phillips,1994-05-12 Critics including Seamus Heaney provide a welcome reappraisal in the wake of Clare s bicentenary

Landscape Design in Color Mira Engler,2022-12-27 Architects landscape architects and urban designers experiment with color and lighting effects in their daily professional practice Over the past decade there has been a reinvigorated discussion on color within architectural and cultural studies Yet scholarly enquiry within landscape architecture has been minimal despite its important role in landscape design This book posits that though color and lighting effects appear natural fleeting and difficult to comprehend the sensory palette of built landscapes and gardens has been carefully constructed to shape our experience and evoke meaning and place character

Landscape Design in Color History Theory and Practice 1750 to Today is an inquiry into the themes theories and debates on color and its impact on practice in Western landscape architecture over the past three centuries Divided into three key periods each chapter in the book looks at the use of color in the written and built work of key prominent designers The book investigates thematic juxtapositions such as natural and artificial color and line design and draftsmanship sensation and concept imitation and translation deception and display and decoration and structure and how these have appeared faded disappeared and reappeared throughout the ages Richly designed and illustrated in full color throughout including color palettes this book is a must have resource for students scholars and design professionals in landscape architecture and its allied disciplines
