

SHORTENED TITLE OF YOUR PAPER

[Title of Your Paper]

Comment [54]: Do not bold, italicize, underline or format the title in any way.

[In the body of your paper, make sure you begin with an introduction, regardless of whether one was specified in the instructions. An introduction is always expected in [American Psychological Association (APA)] format unless otherwise stated by your assignment or your professor. Your introduction should conclude with a thesis that describes the topic you will be discussing in your paper – this should be the topic for the whole paper – as well as an opinion of judgment or why the topic is important.] In your thesis, you should make clear to the reader why the topic is so significant that the reader should be interested in finding out more about it and about your position on the topic.]

Comment [55]: Every first line of a paragraph should be indented.

Comment [56]: The first time you introduce an abbreviation or acronym, spell out what it stands for in the body of the paper and include the shortened version in parentheses. Later in the paper, you may use only the abbreviated version without the parentheses. You must mention the full name once per paper.

[The Topic Sentence]

Comment [57]: In your introduction, this is where your thesis would appear.

Comment [58]: 1st level heading

[Each subsequent paragraph should begin with a topic sentence.] The topic sentence should follow a similar format to your thesis in that it should include the topic of the paragraph and an opinion of judgment or why the topic is important. The reader should get a sense from the topic sentence of what will be covered in the paragraph and why the reader should want to read about it. The topic sentences should also relate directly to the thesis support it.

Comment [59]: In supporting paragraphs, this is where your topic sentence goes.

[Supporting Paragraphs]

Comment [610]: 1st Level Heading for Sub-Headings

Following your topic sentence, you should include sufficient supporting sentences to prove or validate every element mentioned in your topic sentence. Support may include data or studies – but make sure you indicate the significance of the information and how it helps to support your topic sentence. You may also include expert opinion in your supporting sentences as well as your own ideas on the topic.

When citing your source, do not insert the in-text citation at the end of a paragraph to “cover” the preceding paragraph. Remember, when you use an in-text citation you are
