Louis Kahns Situated Modernism:

Louis Kahn's Situated Modernism Sarah Williams Goldhagen, Sarah Goldhagen Williams, Louis I. Kahn, 2001-01-01 She demonstrates instead that Kahn's architecture is grounded in his deeply held modernist political social and artistic ideals which guided him as he sought to rework modernism into a socially transformative architecture appropriate for the postwar world Louis I. Kahn's Jewish Architecture Susan G. Solomon, 2015-05-01 In 1961 famed architect Louis I Kahn 1901 1974 received a commission to design a new synagogue His client was one of the oldest Sephardic Orthodox congregations in the United States Philadelphia's Mikveh Israel Due to the loss of financial backing Kahn's plans were never realized Nevertheless the haunting and imaginative schemes for Mikveh Israel remain among Kahn's most revered designs Susan G Solomon uses Kahn's designs for Mikveh Israel as a lens through which to examine the transformation of the American synagogue from 1955 to 1970 She shows how Kahn wrestled with issues that challenged postwar Jewish institutions and evaluates his creative attempts to bridge modernism and Judaism She argues that Kahn provided a fresh paradigm for synagogues one that offered innovations in planning decoration and the incorporation of light and nature into building design Welcome to Your World Sarah Williams Goldhagen, 2020-02-24 One of the nation's chief architecture critics reveals how the environments we build profoundly shape our feelings memories and well being and argues that we must harness this knowledge to construct a world better suited to human experience Taking us on a fascinating journey through some of the world's best and worst landscapes buildings and cityscapes Sarah Williams Goldhagen draws from recent research in cognitive neuroscience and psychology to demonstrate how people's experiences of the places they build are central to their well being their physical health their communal and social lives and even their very sense of themselves From this foundation Goldhagen presents a powerful case that societies must use this knowledge to rethink what and how they build the world needs better designed healthier environments that address the complex range of human individual and social needs By 2050 America's population is projected to increase by nearly seventy million people This will necessitate a vast amount of new construction almost all in urban areas that will dramatically transform our existing landscapes infrastructure and urban areas Going forward we must do everything we can to prevent the construction of exhausting overstimulating environments and enervating understimulating ones Buildings landscapes and cities must both contain and spark associations of natural light greenery and other ways of being in landscapes that humans have evolved to need and expect Fancy exteriors and dramatic forms are never enough and may not even be necessary authentic textures and surfaces and careful well executed construction details are just as important Erudite wise lucidly written and beautifully illustrated with more than one hundred color photographs Welcome to Your World is a vital eye opening guide to the spaces we inhabit physically and mentally and a clarion call to design for human experience Tradition as Mediation: Louis I. Kahn Dana Margalith, 2018-07-11 This book explores Louis I Kahn's approach to tradition as revealed in two of his important unbuilt projects Focusing on Kahn's century Featuring extensive archival research and illuminating firsthand accounts from alumni faculty and administrators this well rounded and engaging narrative is richly illustrated with historic photos of the school and its studios images of student work and important architectural achievements on and off campus Louis Kahn Michael Merrill,2010 It was not by chance that Louis Kahn s move into his profession s spotlight coincided with the crisis of modern architecture representing as his work increasingly did those aspects of space which modernism had so ambitiously removed from its program Kahn s rethinking of modern architecture s paradigm of space belongs to his most important contributions to the metier In tracing the genesis of the unbuilt project for the Dominican Motherhouse we are given a close up view of Kahn at work on a few fundamental questions of architectural space seeking the sources of its meaning in its social morphological landscape and contextual dimensions This rich and multivalent project opens the way to a second section which sheds new light on several of major works in a timely reappraisal of Kahn s work The result of extensive research illustrated with unpublished archival material and new analytic drawings this affordable volume is an indispensable companion to Drawing to Find Out Topophilia and Topophobia Xing Ruan,Paul Hogben,2020-10-28 This book is about the love and hate relations that humans establish with their habitat which have been coined by discerning modern thinkers as topophilia and topophobia Whilst such affiliations with the topos our manmade as well as natural habitat have been traced back to antiquity a wide range of twentieth century cases are studied here and reflected upon by dwelling on this framework The book provides a timely reminder that the qualitative aspects of the topos sensual as well as intellectual should not be disregarded in the face of rapid technological development and the mass of building that has occurred since the turn of the millennium Topophilia and Topophobia offers speculative and historical reflections on the human habitat of the century that has just passed authored by some of the world s leading scholars and architects including Joseph Rykwert Yi Fu Tuan Vittorio Gregotti and Jean Louis Cohen Human habitats ranging broadly from the cities of the twentieth century highbrow modern architecture both in Western countries and in Asia to non architect planner designed vernacular settlements and landscapes are reviewed under the themes of topophilia and topophobia across the disciplines of architecture landscape studies philosophy human geography and urban planning Reading Kenneth Frampton Gevork Hartoonian,2022-05-10 This book focuses on the first edition of Kenneth Frampton s Modern Architecture A Critical History published in 1980 It searches for clues and positions that will provide the reader with an unprecedented insight into the significance of Frampton s historiography of modern architecture It explores selected themes in line with Frampton s many faceted contribution certain aspects of which can be noted between the lines of his ongoing criticism of the present day architecture which inevitably lead us to a critical understanding of the past the modernity of architecture s contemporaneity The compiled chapters attempt to open a window onto the constellation of themes that allowed Frampton to hold on to his anteroom view of history even amidst the flow of time and flood of temporalities spanning 1980 2020 The book elucidates how Frampton s critical presentation of the history of modern movement architecture and the book's classificatory mode periodization contribute to our understanding of the contemporaneity of architecture today Air-Conditioning in Modern American Architecture, 1890-1970 Joseph M. Siry, 2021-02-01 Air Conditioning in Modern American Architecture 1890 1970 documents how architects made environmental technologies into resources that helped shape their spatial and formal aesthetic In doing so it sheds important new light on the ways in which mechanical engineering has been assimilated into the culture of architecture as one facet of its broader modernist project Tracing the development and architectural integration of air conditioning from its origins in the late nineteenth century to the advent of the environmental movement in the early 1970s Joseph M Siry shows how the incorporation of mechanical systems into modernism's discourse of functionality profoundly shaped the work of some of the movement's leading architects such as Dankmar Adler Louis Sullivan Frank Lloyd Wright Ludwig Mies van der Rohe Gordon Bunshaft and Louis Kahn For them the modernist ideal of functionality was incompletely realized if it did not wholly assimilate heating cooling ventilating and artificial lighting Bridging the history of technology and the history of architecture Siry discusses air conditioning's technical and social history and provides case studies of buildings by the master architects who brought this technology into the conceptual and formal project of modernism A monumental work by a renowned expert in American modernist architecture this book asks us to see canonical modernist buildings through a mechanical engineering oriented lens It will be especially valuable to scholars and students of architecture modernism the history of technology and American history Kenosis Creativity Architecture Randall S. Lindstrom, 2021-03-21 Kenosis Creativity Architecture locates and explores creativity's grounding in the ancient concept of kenosis the emptying that allows creativity to happen that makes appearance possible It concretises that grounding through architecture a primal expression of human creativity critically examining for the first time kenotic instantiations evidenced in four iconic international projects works by Kahn Pei Ando and Libeskind Then in a final turn the potentiality of architecture's own emptying is probed Architect and author Randall Lindstrom draws on Western and Eastern philosophy including that of Heidegger Levinas Derrida Vattimo Nishida and Nishitani as well as on the theology of Christianity Judaism and aspects of Buddhism Hinduism and Islam Every chapter expands the argument that if responsiveness to our world is taken seriously if proper and sustainable responses are to be realised then a deeper understanding of creativity and so kenosis is essential This book opens up a way of thinking about creativity and humanity's readiness to be creative It thereby presents a crucial enquiry at the nexus of architecture philosophy and theology for researchers graduate and postgraduate students and practitioners alike Berlin Contemporary Julia Walker, 2021-11-18 For years following reunification Berlin was the largest construction site in Europe with striking new architecture proliferating throughout the city in the 1990s and early 2000s Among the most visible and the most contested of the new projects were those designed for the national government and its related functions Berlin Contemporary explores these buildings and plans tracing their antecedents while also situating their iconic forms and influential designers within the spectacular world of global contemporary architecture Close studies of these sites including the Reichstag the Chancellery and the reconstruction of the Berlin Stadtschloss now known as the Humboldt Forum demonstrate the complexity of Berlin's political and architectural rebuilding and reveal the intricate historical negotiations that architecture was summoned to perform

Architecture Post Mortem Donald Kunze, David Bertolini, Simone Brott, 2016-04-15 Architecture Post Mortem surveys architecture's encounter with death decline and ruination following late capitalism As the world moves closer to an economic abyss that many perceive to be the death of capital contraction and crisis are no longer mere phases of normal market fluctuations but rather the irruption of the unconscious of ideology itself Post mortem is that historical moment wherein architecture's symbolic contract with capital is put on stage naked to all Architecture is not irrelevant to fiscal and political contagion as is commonly believed it is the victim and penetrating analytical agent of the current crisis As the very apparatus for modernity's guilt and unfulfilled drives modernity's debt architecture is that ideological element that functions as a master signifier of its own destruction ordering all other signifiers and modes of signification beneath it It is under these conditions that architecture theory has retreated to an Alamo of history a final desert outpost where history has been asked to transcend itself For architecture's hoped for utopia always involves an apocalypse This timely collection of essays reformulates architecture's relation to modernity via the operational death drive architecture is but a passage between life and death This collection includes essays by Kazi K Ashraf David Bertolini Simone Brott Peggy Deamer Didem Ekici Paul Emmons Donald Kunze Todd McGowan Gevork Hartoonian Nadir Lahiji Erika Naginski and Dennis Maher

Rethinking Global Modernism Vikramaditya Prakash, Maristella Casciato, Daniel E. Coslett, 2021-11-22 This anthology collects developing scholarship that outlines a new decentred history of global modernism in architecture using postcolonial and other related theoretical frameworks By both revisiting the canons of modernism and seeking to decolonize and globalize those canons the volume explores what a genuinely global history of architectural modernism might begin to look like Its chapters explore the historiography and weaknesses of modernism's normative interpretations and propose alternatives to them The collection offers essays that interrogate transnationalism in new ways reconsiders the agency of the subaltern and the roles played by infrastructures materials and global institutions in propagating a diversity of modernisms internationally Issues such as colonial modernism architectural pedagogy cultural imperialism and spirituality are engaged With essays from both established scholars and up and coming researchers this is an important reference for a new understanding of this crucial and developing topic

The Architecture of Influence Amanda Reeser Lawrence, 2023-11-21 How do we create the new from the old The Architecture of Influence explores this fundamental question by analyzing a broad swath of twentieth century architectural works including some of the best known examples of the architectural canon modern and postmodern through the lens of influence The book serves as both a critique of the discipline's long standing focus on genius and a celebration of the creative act of revisioning and reimagining the past

It argues that all works of architecture not only depend on the past but necessarily alter rewrite and reposition the traditions and ideas to which they refer Organized into seven chapters Replicas Copies Compilations Generalizations Revivals Emulations and Self Repetitions the book redefines influence as an active process through which the past is defined recalled and subsequently redefined within twentieth century architecture Islamabad and the Politics of International Development in Pakistan Markus Daechsel, 2015-03-19 This is a highly original account of the design and development of Pakistan's capital city one of the most iconic and ambitious urban reconstruction projects of the twentieth century Balancing archival research with fresh theoretical insights Markus Daechsel surveys the successes and failures of Greek urbanist Constantinos A Doxiadis's most ambitious endeavour Islamabad analysing how the project not only changed the international order but the way in which the Pakistani state operated in the 1950s and 1960s In dissecting Doxiadis's fraught encounter with Pakistani policy makers bureaucrats and ordinary citizens the book offers an unprecedented account of Islamabad's place in post war international development Daechsel provides new insights into this period and explores the history of development as a charged transnational venture between foreign consultants and donors on the one side and the postcolonial nation state on the other The Turn to Transcendence Glenn W. Olsen, 2012-07-30 Phenomenal A must read for us who desire to topple the dictatorship of relativism and culture of death and replace it with the only alternative The Imaginative Conservative Especially concerned with the public nature of religion historian Glenn W Olsen author of Christian Marriage A Historical Study and On the Road to Emmaus The Catholic Dialogue with American and Modernity sets forth an exhaustively researched and persuasive account of how religion has been reshaped in the modern period The Turn to Transcendence traces both the loss of transcendence and attempts to recover it while making its own proposals Neither reactionary nor modernist it questions how under conditions of modern life some form of the sacred and some form of the secular might both flourish at the same time But it also provides a warning that a religion unable to maintain itself with its own overt architecture language and calendars against an enveloping secular culture is destined for oblivion Glenn Olsen's book could hardly be more pivotal or insightful Confronting the growing amnesia regarding culture's religious origin and transcendent purpose Olsen proves both a masterful cartographer of modernity and a visionary of a culture that encourages and enables us to seek beyond ourselves Carl A Anderson Supreme Knight of the Knights of Columbus A brilliant book It rests on an amazing amount of scholarship that is wide ranging in history literature art science music theology and philosophy James Hitchcock professor of history St Louis University Architecture Re-assembled Trevor Garnham, 2013-04-26 Beginning from the rise of modern history in the eighteenth century this book examines how changing ideas in the discipline of history itself has affected architecture from the beginning of modernity up to the present day It reflects upon history in order to encourage and assist the reader in finding well founded principles for architectural design This is not simply another history of architecture nor a history of histories Setting buildings in their contemporaneous ideas about history it spans from Fischer von Erlach to Venturi and Rossi and beyond to architects working in the fallout from both the Modern Movement Aalto Louis Kahn Aldo van Eyck and Post modernism such as Rafael Moneo and Peter Zumthor It shows how Soane Schinkel and Stirling amongst others made a meaningful use of history and contrasts this with how a misreading of Hegel has led to an abuse of history and an uncritical flight to the future This is not an armchair history but a lively discussion of our place between past and future that promotes thinking for making
