Louise Bourgeois Jerry Gorovoy, 1986 Transformative Objects and the Aesthetics of Play Lynn M.

Somers, 2024-12-26 This book considers the sculpture of Louise Bourgeois 1911-2010 in light of psychoanalyst D W Winnicott's 1896-1971 radical ideas regarding transitional objects, potential space, and play, offering a model for exploring the complex and psychologically evocative work Bourgeois produced from 1947 to 2000. Critical concepts from British object-relational theories, destruction, reparation, integration, relationality, and play, drawn from the writings of Winnicott, Melanie Klein, Marion Milner, and Christopher Bollas, among others, bear upon the decades-long study of psychoanalysis Bourgeois brought to her sculptural production that was symbolic, metaphorical, and most importantly, useful. The book demonstrates how Bourgeois's transformative sculptural objects and environments are invested in object relations, both psychical and tangible, and explores Bourgeois's contention that the observer physically engages with the intricate sculptural objects and architectural spaces she produced. Each chapter focuses on a key body of work: Femme Maison, Personages, Lairs, Janus, and Cells, examining how these imaginative and playful objects are staged as embodied encounters in space and time to invoke the mutuality, reciprocity, and ambivalence of our object relationships. Weaving a tapestry of aesthetic, cultural, and psychological encounters, Transformative Objects and the Aesthetics of Play addresses critical relationships among Bourgeois's work and that of other artists, from Pieter Bruegel to Eva Hesse. It brings together practical, archival, and theoretical material, offering close examinations of historically situated objects and analyses of their complex affects and spatiality. Gathering critical perspectives from psychoanalysis, cultural analysis, feminist, queer, literary, and affect studies, the book extends its specific art-historical scope to investigate the crucial roles that art and cultural experience assume in everyday life.
