Food Stories T. Jameson Brewer, Cleveland Hayes, 2025-03-10 Food Stories Navigating the Academy with Cultural Lessons from the Kitchen is the first volume in the series Culinary Canvas A Series on Integrating the Arts and Food into Higher Education The purpose of the series is to explore the innovative integration of arts and food into higher education Each volume aims to inspire a paradigm shift in academia advocating for a more holistic creative and inclusive approach to learning teaching researching serving and existing in the academy In the present volume Food Stories makes the case that food and the culture surrounding food is a closely held and powerful reality that shapes who we are as individuals as members of varied communities and invariably informs who we are as educators and researchers This book gives space for the authors to explore not only the impact that food and culture have had and continue to have on them as individuals how that culture and experiences impact them as members of the academy in teaching research and service but also in providing some guidance to graduate students and junior faculty In effect chapters explore navigating academic work teaching research and service through the lens of food and the transferable lessons that can be gleaned from our grandmothers mothers fathers and our own kitchens It is often the case that higher education fosters both imposter syndrome and a workaholic disposition that can be detrimental to teaching and research What this book does then is to not only explore the ways in which what may seem as non academic work such as cooking a meal can have on our work life balance but also how to incorporate the very lessons of food into who we are as educators how we teach and how we can approach the work we do more broadly Through carefully curated chapters this text presents a wide array of perspectives across food and cultural regions as well as imparting insights from the academy from authors spanning the spectrum of the career It is an important book full of valuable lessons for graduate students faculty and teachers who wish to use its content in their classrooms Perfect for courses such as Cultural Studies Culturally Responsive Pedagogy Inventing New Orleans Lafcadio Hearn,2001 A selection of writings from the author who created America s notion of New Orleans as an exotic and mysterious place

Chef Paul Prudhomme's Louisiana Kitchen Paul Prudhomme,2012-03-13 Here for the first time the famous food of Louisiana is presented in a cookbook written by a great creative chef who is himself world famous The extraordinary Cajun and Creole cooking of South Louisiana has roots going back over two hundred years and today it is the one really vital growing regional cuisine in America No one is more responsible than Paul Prudhomme for preserving and expanding the Louisiana tradition which he inherited from his own Cajun background Chef Prudhomme s incredibly good food has brought people from all over America and the world to his restaurant K Paul s Louisiana Kitchen in New Orleans To set down his recipes for home cooks however he did not work in the restaurant In a small test kitchen equipped with a home size stove and utensils normal for a home kitchen he retested every recipe two and three times to get exactly the results he wanted

Logical though this is it was an unprecedented way for a chef to write a cookbook But Paul Prudhomme started cooking in his mother's kitchen when he was a youngster To him the difference between home and restaurant procedures is obvious and had to be taken into account So here in explicit detail are recipes for the great traditional dishes gumbos and jambalayas Shrimp Creole Turtle Soup Cajun Popcorn Crawfish Etouffee Pecan Pie and dozens more each refined by the skill and genius of Chef Prudhomme so that they are at once authentic and modern in their methods Chef Paul Prudhomme's Louisiana Kitchen is also full of surprises for he is unique in the way he has enlarged the repertoire of Cajun and Creole food creating new dishes and variations within the old traditions Seafood Stuffed Zucchini with Seafood Cream Sauce Panted Chicken and Fettucini Veal and Oyster Crepes Artichoke Prudhomme these and many others are newly conceived recipes but they could have been created only by a Louisiana cook The most famous of Paul Prudhomme's original recipes is Blackened Redfish a daringly simple dish of fiery Cajun flavor that is often singled out by food writers as an example of the best of new American regional cooking For Louisianians and for cooks everywhere in the country this is the most exciting cookbook to be published in many years
