Process and the Authentic Life Jason W. Brown, 2013-05-02 The thesis advanced in this book is that feeling and cognition actualize through a process that originates in older brain formations and develops outward through limbic and cortical fields through the self concept and private space into as the world An iteration of this transition deposits acts objects feelings and utterances Value is a mode of conceptual feeling that depends on the dominant phase in this transition from desire through interest to object worth Among the topics covered are subjective time and change the epochal nature of objects and their temporal extensibility and the evolution of value from inorganic matter into organic form The theory of microgenesis informs this work According to this theory acts and objects evolve in milliseconds through phases that replicate patterns in forebrain evolution The progression in the actualization of the mind brain state is from archaic to recent in brain formation from unity to diversity from past to present and from mind to world An account is given of the diversity of felt experience avoiding the reductionist moves characteristic of biological materialism and the inherent dualism of psychoanalytic and related theories This book is intended for any reader interested in the psychology of the inner life and philosophy of mind including philosophers psychologists psychiatrists and others with an interest in problems of value and moral feeling

himself after the fall in diamond shares a collapse that annihilated a part of his fortune This is the first ever translation into English of this startling tour de force by one of the twentieth century s greatest writers The Lemoine Affair was inspired by the real life French scandal involving Henri Lemoine who claimed he could manufacture diamonds from coal and convinced numerous people including officers of the De Beers diamond mine company and Proust himself to invest in the scheme In a series of pastiches imitations written in the style of other writers Proust tells the story of the embarrassment rippling across high society Paris in the wake of the scandal poking fun at himself in one story a character declares that Marcel Proust is so embarrassed he s suicidal while lampooning some of France s greatest writers including Flaubert Balzac and Saint Simon Full of sophisticated wit and dazzling wordplay and rife with allusions to his friend and fictional characters many Proust scholars see the dead on mimicry of The Lemoine Affair written soon after Proust s rejection of society life as the work by which he honed his own unique masterly voice The Art of The Novella Series Too short to be a novel too long to be a short story the novella is generally unrecognized by academics and publishers Nonetheless it is a form beloved and practiced by literature s greatest writers In the Art Of The Novella series Melville House celebrates this renegade art form and its practitioners with titles that are in many instances presented in book form for the first time Love and Other Emotions

Jason W. Brown,2018-03-08 This book is an account of the psychology of romantic love in the context of a theory of emotions The account develops out of studies in brain psychology and the extension to topics in process philosophy such as the nature of value and belief and the central role of feeling in mental process The approach is subjectivist that is from the internal standpoint and in this respect it differs greatly from the externalist and objectivist trends in modern cognitive science and empiricist philosophy Love is the ultimate in value so that a theory of love is also a theory of the nature of value and its relation to feeling belief and to drive and desire The role of intention reason and appraisal is critiqued The relation to other feelings such as jealousy envy anger loss and grief is discussed in terms of a general theory of emotion and the basis in a process account of the mind brain state Life of David Hockney Catherine Cusset,2019-05-14 Named a Best Book of the Year by The Advocate Catherine Cusset s book caught a lot of me I could recognize myself David Hockney With clear vivid prose this meticulously researched novel draws an intimate moving portrait of the most famous living English painter Born in 1937 in a small town in the north of England David Hockney had to fight to become an artist After leaving his home in Bradford for the Royal College of Art in London his career flourished but he continued to struggle with a sense of not belonging because of his homosexuality which had yet to be decriminalized and his inclination for a figurative style of art not sufficiently contemporary to be valued Trips to New York and California where he would live for many years and paint his iconic swimming pools introduced him to new scenes and new loves beginning a journey that would take him through the fraught years of the AIDS epidemic A compelling hybrid of novel and biography Life of David Hockney offers an insightful overview of a painter whose art is as accessible as it is compelling and whose passion to create has never been deterred by
