pass judgment on anyone new she meets neither the gipsy nor the Jewish woman because she is young and modern minded But when her father finds out about this friendship he threatens her with the asylum and Yvette realizes that at his heart her father too is mean spirited bigoted provincial and shallow Apparently her father believes that one cannot associate with a wealthy divorced woman who is merely marrying a handsome man who happens to be a war hero as an excuse to dump her first and older husband The novel has a surprise twist at the end A huge flood surges through the vale coming from a burst dam at a nearby reservoir It just so happens that the gipsy man is approaching the rectory house Nobody is at home but Yvette and her blind grandmother In the nick of time the brave gipsy man rescues Yvette despite the fact that the surprise flood washes most of the rectory away drowning the grandmother A moving scene ensues as the gipsy hero breathes life and warmth back into the virginal Yvette who feels the powerful attraction of his manhood and strength She falls asleep and the gipsy disappears Her family returns home to find her safe and they adulate the gipsy as her savior Love among the

Lawrence, 2014-09-30 A level 2 Oxford Bookworms Library graded reader This version includes an audio book listen to the story as you read Retold for Learners of English by Jennifer Bassett It is hay making time on the Wookey farm Two brothers are building the haystack but thinking about other things about young women and love There are angry words and then a fight between the brothers But the work goes on visitors come and go and the long hot summer day slowly turns to evening Then the sun goes down covering the world with a carpet of darkness From the hedges around the hayfield comes the rich sweet smell of wild flowers and the hay will make a fine soft bed Love Among the Haystacks and Other Stories D. H. Lawrence, 1987-07-31 Each story in Love Among the Haystacks appears in a new authoritative text Love Among the Haystacks D. H. Lawrence, 2018-05-31 Love Among the Haystacks by David Herbert Lawrence Love Among the Haystacks (Annotated) David Herbert Lawrence, 2021-06-16 The two large fields lay on a hillside facing south Being newly cleared of hay they were golden green and they shone almost blindingly in the sunlight Across the hill half way up ran a high hedge that flung its black shadow finely across the molten glow of the sward The stack was being built just above the hedge It was of great size massive but so silvery and delicately bright in tone that it seemed not to have weight It rose dishevelled and radiant among the steady golden green glare of the field A little farther back was another finished stack The empty wagon was just passing through the gap in the hedge From the far off corner of the bottom field where the sward was still striped grey with winrows the loaded wagon launched forward to climb the hill to the stack The white dots of the hay makers showed distinctly among the hay The two brothers were having a moment's rest waiting for the load to come up They stood wiping their brows with their arms sighing from the heat and the labour of placing the last load The stack they rode was high lifting them up above the hedge tops and very broad a great slightly hollowed vessel into which the sunlight poured in which the hot sweet scent of hay was suffocating Small and inefficacious the brothers looked half submerged in the loose great trough lifted high up as if on an altar reared to the sun

Maurice the younger brother was a handsome young fellow of twenty one careless and debonair and full of vigour His grey eyes as he taunted his brother were bright and baffled with a strong emotion His swarthy face had the same peculiar smile expectant and glad and nervous of a young man roused for the first time in passion Tha sees he said as he leaned on the pommel of his fork tha thowt as tha d done me one didna ter He smiled as he spoke then fell again into his pleasant torment of musing I thought nowt tha knows so much retorted Geoffrey with the touch of a sneer His brother had the better of him Geoffrey was a very heavy hulking fellow a year older than Maurice His blue eyes were unsteady they glanced away quickly his mouth was morbidly sensitive One felt him wince away through the whole of his great body His inflamed self consciousness was a disease in him Ah but though I know tha did mocked Maurice Tha went slinkin off Geoffrey winced convulsively thinking as that wor the last night as any of us ud ha e ter stop here an so tha d leave me to sleep out though it wor thy turn He smiled to himself thinking of the result of Geoffrey s ruse I didna go slinkin off neither retorted Geoffrey in his heavy clumsy manner wincing at the phrase Didna my feyther send me to fetch some coal Oh yes oh yes we know all about it But tha sees what tha missed my lad Maurice chuckling threw himself on his back in the bed of hay There was absolutely nothing in his world then except the shallow ramparts of the stack and the blazing sky He clenched his fists tight threw his arms across his face and braced his muscles again
