Extravagant Strangers Caryl Phillips, 2010-05-05 Shakespeare called Othello an extravagant and wheeling stranger Of here and every where In this exciting anthology Caryl Phillips has collected writings by thirty nine extravagant strangers British writers who were born outside of Britain and see it with clear and critical eyes These eloquent and incisive voices prove that English literature far from being pure or homogenous has in fact been shaped and influenced by outsiders for over two hundred years Here are slave writers such as Ignatius Sancho an eighteenth century African who became a friend to Samuel Jonson and Laurence Sterne writers born in the colonies such as Thackeray Kipling and Orwell subject writers such as C L R James and V S Naipaul foreign migr s such as Joseph Conrad and Kazuo Ishiguro and postcolonial observers of the British scene such as Salman Rushdie Ben Okri and Anita Desai With this eloquent and often inspiring collection Phillips proves if proof be needed that the greatest literature is often born out of irreconcilable tensions between a writer and his or her society

Commonwealth Novel in English , 2001 Varieties of African American Religious Experience Anthony B. Pinn, 2017-10-15 Twenty years ago Anthony Pinn s engrossing survey highlighted the rich diversity of black religious life in America revealing expressions of an ever changing black religious quest Based on extensive research travel and interviews Pinn s work provides a fascinating look especially at Voodoo Santeria the Nation of Islam and black humanism in the United States and uses the diversity of religious belief to begin formulation of a comparative black theology the first of its kind This twentieth anniversary edition is an expanded version including a new preface and a new concluding chapter An important contribution to classroom studies

Finding a Place Kris Rampersad, 2002 Kris Rampersad s book takes an intimate look at the blossoming of Trinidad s literary consciousness Through the eyes and the words of the writers she maps their contribution to Indo Trinidadian literature from those evolutionary years in 1850 to it flowering in the 1950s It also represents a close look at the exciting oral culture of these people as depicted by their music dance and storytelling and examines the biographies of the main figures who contributed to social cultural economic and political development throughout this period While the main focus of the work is on language and literary development other aspects of Trinidad s development are also explored cross cultururation politics race relations social mobility and women's issues in relation to their influence and impact on the writings Further the raw material of Finding A Place 12 little known and rare publications between 1850 and 1950 introduces a new set of data through which the evolution of Trinidad and Tobago can be examined by others Love and Death in the Great War Andrew J.

Huebner,2018-02-01 Americans today harbor no strong or consistent collective memory of the First World War Ask why the country fought or what they accomplished and democracy is the most likely if vague response The circulation of confusing or lofty rationales for intervention began as soon as President Woodrow Wilson secured a war declaration in April 1917 Yet amid those shifting justifications Love and Death in the Great War argues was a more durable and resonant one Americans would fight for home and family Officials in the military and government grasping this crucial reality invested the war with personal meaning as did popular culture Make your mother proud of you And the Old Red White and Blue went George Cohan's famous tune Over There Federal officials and their allies in public culture in short told the war story as a love story Intervention came at a moment when arbiters of traditional home and family were regarded as under pressure from all sides industrial work women's employment immigration urban vice woman suffrage and the imagined threat of black sexual aggression Alleged German crimes in France and Belgium seemed to further imperil women and children War promised to restore convention stabilize gender roles and sharpen male character Love and Death in the Great War tracks such ideas of redemptive war across public and private spaces policy and implementation home and front popular culture and personal correspondence In beautifully rendered prose Andrew J Huebner merges untold stories of ordinary men and women with a history of wartime culture Studying the radiating impact of war alongside the management of public opinion he recovers the conflict's emotional dimensions its everyday rhythms heartbreaking losses soaring possibilities and broken promises Love and Death Martin Avery,2011 A Country for Dying Abdellah Taïa,2020-09-29 An exquisite novel of North Africans in Paris by one of the most original and necessary voices in world literature WINNER OF THE 2021 PEN TRANSLATION PRIZE Paris Summer 2010 Zahira is 40 years old Moroccan a prostitute traumatized by her father's suicide decades prior and in love with a man who no longer loves her Zannouba Zahira's friend and protege formerly known as Aziz prepares for gender confirmation surgery and reflects on the reoccurring trauma of loss including the loss of her pre transition male persona Mojtaba is a gay Iranian revolutionary who having fled to Paris seeks refuge with Zahira for the month of Ramadan Meanwhile Allal Zahira's first love back in Morocco travels to Paris to find Zahira Through swirling perpendicular narratives A Country for Dying follows the inner lives of emigrants as they contend with the space between their dreams and their realities a schism of a postcolonial world where as Taïa writes So many people find themselves in the same situation It is our destiny To pay with our bodies for other people's future Embodiment and the New Shape of Black Theological Thought Anthony B. Pinn,2010-06-07 Black theology tends to be a theology about no body Though one might assume that black and womanist theology have already given significant attention to the nature and meaning of black bodies as a theological issue this inquiry has primarily taken the form of a focus on issues relating to liberation treating the body in abstract terms rather than focusing on the experiencing of a material fleshy reality By focusing on the body as a physical entity and not just a metaphorical one Pinn offers a new approach to theological thinking about race gender and sexuality According to Pinn the body is of profound theological importance In this first text on black theology to take embodiment as its starting point and its goal Pinn interrogates the traditional source materials for black theology such as spirituals and slave narratives seeking to link them to materials such as photography that highlight the theological importance of the body Employing a multidisciplinary approach spanning from the sociology of the body and philosophy to anthropology and art history

Embodiment and the New Shape of Black Theological Thought pushes black theology to the next level The Journal of Commonwealth Literature ,1985 Issues for 1965 include section Annual bibliography of Commonwealth literature 1964
