Love and Exile Isaac Bashevis Singer, 1985 At Home in Exile Russell Jeung, 2016-10-04 Russell Jeung's spiritual memoir shares the difficult often joyful and sometimes harrowing account of his life in East Oakland's Murder Dubs neighborhood and of his Chinese Hakka history On a journey to discover how the poor and exiled are blessed At Home in Exile is the story of his integration of social activism and a stubborn evangelical faith Holding English classes in his apartment which doubled as a food pantry for a local church for undocumented Latino neighbors and Cambodian refugees battling drug dealers who threatened him exorcising a spirit possessing a teen and winning a landmark housing settlement against slumlords with a gathering of his neighbors Jeung's story is by turns moving and inspiring traumatic and exuberant As Jeung retraces the steps of his Chinese Hakka family and his refugee neighbors weaving the two narratives together he asks difficult questions about longing and belonging wealth and poverty and how living in exile can transform your faith Not only did relocation into the inner city press me toward God but it made God's words more distinct and clear to me As I read Scriptures through the eyes of those around me refugees and aliens God spoke loudly to me his words of hope and truth With humor humility and keen insight he describes the suffering and the sturdiness of those around him and of his family He relates the stories of forced relocation and institutional discrimination of violence and resistance and of the persistence of Christ's love for the poor
