Love And Salt Water:

Love and Salt Water Ethel Wilson, 2013-09-03 Ellen Guppy is the reluctant heroine of Ethel Wilson's final novel Love and Salt Water. Saddened by a painful childhood, Ellen has adopted a skeptical independence and learned too well to hold her heart in reserve. But as the novel unfolds, Ellen undergoes something of a sea change, learning to accept love along with the sorrow that is rarely far from love. First published in 1956, Love and Salt Water is a mature and at times disturbing synthesis of Ethel Wilson's major themes: the independence of human lives, the strange alchemy of chance, and the healing illumination of love.

Ethel Wilson David Stouck, 2003-01-01 Ethel Wilson is one of Canada's most important writers. This biography draws on archival material and interviews to describe in detail her early life as an orphan in England and Vancouver and her long writer's apprenticeship, spanning from the publication of some children's stories in 1919 to the appearance of Hetty Dorval in 1947.

Salt Water Josep Pla, 2020-12-01 Peter Bush, winner of the Ramon Llull Prize for Literary Translation, brings to English this most prolific and influential of Catalan writers. Dripping with a panache that can turn in a comic instant to the most conciliatory humility, Josep Pla's foray into the land and sea most familiar to him will plunge readers head first into its mysterious and often tasty depths. Here are adventures and shipwrecks, raspy storytellers and the fishy meals that sustain them. After describing the process of beating an octopus with branches to soften up its flesh, Pla writes: "These are dishes that must be seen as a last resort." Pla inflects the mundane with the hidden rhythms of power, sculpting culture so that a hot supper is never just food; it embodies economic precarity and environmental erosion along with its own peculiar flavor. A lifetime of reporting on current events gave Pla the necessary skills to describe the world in all its gritty, funny, invigorating detail.

Love Like Salt Helen Stevenson, 2016-03-03 CHOSEN BY MAGGIE O'FARRELL IN THE GUARDIAN AS ONE OF HER BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR. It's a slice of a life, a complex, intelligent, beautiful, thoughtful, rather lyrical book. Cathy Rentzenbrink, author of The Last Act of Love: A moving treatise on inheritance, not just of a disease like cystic fibrosis but of our attitudes to living and loving, our sense of cultural and familial landscape, and how these intangibles pass down through generations. Stevenson picks apart her life like a strand of DNA to uncover just how we become the sum of our parts. Daily Telegraph: A beautiful memoir. Stevenson is a novelist and a translator, and her memoir is about translation in the larger sense. Translating the world is what we all do, but she reminds us that one can hope with a mind as intricately well-read and original as hers to translate misfortune to absorb and see beyond it. Stevenson makes of poetry, fiction, and philosophy a protective shawl for her story. Although intense, she has a carefree wit. Kate Kellaway, Observer: Love Like Salt is a human triumph. Ultimately, Love Like Salt follows in the hallowed footsteps of Helen MacDonald's brilliant H is for Hawk, or Cathy Rentzenbrink's The Last Act of Love. These are not misery memoirs but reminders that life comes in all shades, that in the darkest moments, beauty and humour can be found. Francesca Brown, Stylist: Did Clara taste salty when I kissed her? She did.

She tasted of mermaids of the sea Love Like Salt is a deeply affecting memoir beautifully and intelligently written It is about mothers and daughters music and illness genes and inheritance writing and story telling It is about creating joy from the hand you ve been dealt and following its lead in this case to rural France where the author and her family lived for seven years And back again I had always written and until the birth of Clara I wrote for a living Once I knew the Cystic Fibrosis gene had unfolded itself in our daughter s body like a paper flower meeting water I felt that to write even if I had had time or been able would have been to squander a kind of power which was needed for tending and nurturing Every moment became a moment in which I protected my baby Some of it I did in secret like a madwoman muttering spells I thought of her as a candle cupping my hand around her A beautifully written memoir in the vein of H is for Hawk and The Last Act of Love about motherhood music and living the best life you can even in the shadow of illness

Sweet & Salt Tracy Metz, Maartje van den Heuvel, 2012 Water management runs in the blood of the Dutch Draining the Netherlands and keeping it dry is a process they started centuries ago and continue to this day But will this still suffice In the project Sweet Salt book and exhibition author and journalist Tracy Metz and curator Maartje van den Heuvel demonstrate in text and images how the Netherlands shapes its evolving relationship with water The sea level is rising rivers are swelling there is more rain there are more storms and sometimes there s a drought There is a growing awareness that not just dikes and dams but natural processes too play a significant role in our security This is the greatest challenge currently facing Dutch designers There is also increasing attention given to the aesthetics of the water landscape being designed
