Abernathy, 2007-09-01 Have you ever wondered what a worldview is and why it's so important how liberal and conservative Christians both claim the Bible as their foundation why different worldviews attempt to solve the same problems in different ways how two people who formally espouse different worldviews can agree on so many issues why secularism is just as religious as Christianity why secularism has its own mythology why secularists want to silence Christianity in America's legislatures courts schools and churches why education is nearly always offered as a solution to society's ills and why it won't work how to formulate positions on contemporary issues not directly mentioned in the Bible why Christians are often ineffective at influencing culture Abernathy answers these questions and many more by examining the relationship between ideas and their real world consequences This foundational relationship is key to understanding secularism to understanding why its attempts to solve society's problems produce disastrous real world consequences and how its ideas infiltrate the biblical principles of even the most committed Christians Abernathy sifts through the deceptive language of secular orthodoxy and shows how secularism by any other name still has tragic real world consequences Ideologies such as humanism postmodernism and liberal Christianity are exposed as repackaged havens of a failed worldview Seemingly well intentioned notions such as progressive education pacifist foreign policy tolerance and wealth redistribution are debunked as deceptive myths peddled by an impoverished faith By Any Other Name shatters the secular barrier erected to exclude Christianity from the marketplace of ideas and lays the groundwork for engaging a culture contaminated by secular mythology The Complete Works of William Shakespeare William Shakespeare, William Harness, 1855 The Dramatic Works of William Shakspeare William Shakespeare, 1832 The Christianity Reader Mary Gerhart, Fabian Udoh, 2007-09 Christianity is the world's most populous religion with some two billion adherents As a world religion Christianity has flourished because it is capable of taking on new forms in new contexts To understand both the religion's history and its present state Mary Gerhart and Fabian Udoh gather original texts from early Christian writings to contemporary documents on church related issues in The Christianity Reader The most comprehensive anthology of Christian texts ever in English this is a landmark sourcebook for the study of Christianity's historical diversity With newly edited annotated and translated primary texts along with supplemental analytical essays the volume allows Christianity at long last to speak in its many voices Focusing on Christianity as a religion Gerhart and Udoh select texts that illuminate issues such as theology mysticism and ritual while also articulating the stories of previously marginalized groups as well as those in new and growing epicenters of the religion With nearly three hundred selections the texts encompass the entire history of Christian writings excluding the New Testament from Justin Martyr and Tertullian to Fabien Eboussi Boulaga and Teresa of Calcutta Eight thematic sections cover biblical traditions and interpretations early influences nascent forms patterns of worship structures of community philosophy theology and mysticism twentieth century issues and challenges and the contemporary relationship between Christianity and other world religions The Reader's contents are arranged chronologically and are supported with introductions and source notes that explain the rationale for their inclusion and their context Providing a far richer selection than ever before available in a single volume The Christianity Reader will be welcomed as both a classroom resource and a work of reference for decades to come Text & Presentation, 2011 Kiki Gounaridou, 2011-12-01 Text Presentation is an annual anthology of essays devoted to all aspects of theatre and performance scholarship This new volume represents a selection of the best research presented at the 35th international interdisciplinary Comparative Drama Conference in Los Angeles The essays include innovative detective work on Aristophanes's and Aeschylus's plays and discussions of topics including Joe Orton's plays as social protest against the power of psychiatry and the asylum George Eliot's controversial description of the burlesque spirit as fodder for degraded appetites and psychological depictions of young women entering
