Remote Control Barbara Kruger, 1993 Who speaks Who is silent Who is seen Who is absent These questions focus on how cultures are constructed through pictures and words how we are seduced into a world of appearances into a pose of who we are and aren't On both an emotional and an economic level images and texts have the power to make us rich or poor In these essays and reviews written over the last decade Barbara Kruger addresses that power with intelligence and wit in the hope of engaging both our criticality and our dreams of affirmation Barbara Kruger is an artist whose pictures and words engage issues of power sex money difference and death Her work has appeared throughout America Europe and Japan in galleries newspapers magazines and museums and on billboards matchbooks TV programs t-shirts postcards and shopping bags She has written about television film and cultures for Artforum Esquire the New York Times and the Village Voice

Let's Pretend This Never Happened Jenny Lawson, 2013-03-05 The #1 New York Times bestselling mostly true memoir from the hilarious author of Furiously Happy Gasp! Funny and wonderfully inappropriate O The Oprah Magazine When Jenny Lawson was little all she ever wanted was to fit in That dream was cut short by her fantastically unbalanced father and a morbidly eccentric childhood It did however open up an opportunity for Lawson to find the humor in the strange shame spiral that is her life and we are all the better for it In the irreverent Let's Pretend This Never Happened Lawson's long suffering husband and sweet daughter help her uncover the surprising discovery that the most terribly human moments the ones we want to pretend never happened are the very same moments that make us the people we are today For every intellectual misfit who thought they were the only ones to think the things that Lawson dares to say out loud this is a poignant and hysterical look at the dark disturbing yet wonderful moments of our lives Readers Guide Inside Pictures and Tears James Elkins,2005-08-02 This deeply personal account of emotion and vulnerability draws upon anecdotes related to individual works of art to present a chronicle of how people have shown emotion before works of art in the past

Picture/readings Barbara Kruger,1978 Hannah Wilke, a Retrospective Hannah Wilke,Donald Goddard,1998 For pioneering video artist Hannah Wilke the point of departure was always the body and its discontinuous relationship with language In the 1970s Wilke s work particularly the way that she used the body in her artistic practices was considered controversial by many feminist critics Today however when theoretical and artistic strategies have changed and when art is increasingly cognizant of social context Wilke s work has found rightful place among the most important artwork of the past thirty years This catalogue presents a unique survey of Wilke s oeuvre with reproductions of her videos and films four essays focusing on different aspects of her life and work including a detailed biography and a selected biography a complete list of her works and an exhibition checklist One Place after Another Miwon Kwon,2004-02-27 A critical history of site specific art since the late 1960s Site specific art emerged in the late 1960s in reaction to the growing commodification of art and the prevailing ideals of art s autonomy and universality Throughout the 1970s and 1980s as site specific art intersected with land art process art performance art conceptual art installation art institutional critique community based art and public art its creators insisted on the inseparability of the work and its context In recent years however the presumption of unrepeatability and immobility encapsulated in Richard Serra s famous dictum to remove the work is to destroy the work is being challenged by new models of site specificity and changes in institutional and market forces One Place after Another offers a critical history of site specific art since the late 1960s and a theoretical framework for examining the rhetoric of aesthetic vanguardism and political progressivism associated with its many permutations Informed by urban theory postmodernist criticism in art and architecture and debates concerning identity politics and the public sphere the book addresses the siting of art as more than an artistic problem It examines site specificity as a complex cipher of the unstable relationship between location and identity in the era of late capitalism The book addresses the work of among others John Ahearn Mark Dion Andrea Fraser Donald Judd Renee Green Suzanne Lacy Inigo Manglano Ovalle Richard Serra Mierle Laderman Ukeles and Fred Wilson Making WET Leonard Koren,2012 WET was one of the seminal avant garde magazines of the 1970s Matt Groening and others got their start here Anne Collier: Women with Cameras (Anonymous) Anne Collier,2017 Women with Cameras Anonymous is a new artist s book by Anne Collier born 1970 with a text by Hilton Als winner of the 2017 Pulitzer Prize for Criticism that consists of a sequence of 80 images of found amateur photographs that each depict a female subject in the act of holding a camera or taking a photograph Dating from the 1970s to the early 2000s these artifacts of the pre digital age were collected by Collier over a number of years from flea markets thrift stores and online market places Each of these photographs has at some point in the recent past been discarded by its original owner The concept of abandonment of photographic images and the personal histories that they represent is central to Women with Cameras Anonymous which amplifies photography's relationship with memory melancholia and loss The sequence of the images in Collier's book follows the format of her 35mm slide projection work Women with Cameras Anonymous 2016 that was recently shown to great acclaim in Tokyo Japan and Basel Switzerland

A Century of Artists Books Riva Castleman, 1997-09 Published to accompany the 1994 exhibition at The Museum of Modern Art New York this book constitutes the most extensive survey of modern illustrated books to be offered in many years Work by artists from Pierre Bonnard to Barbara Kruger and writers from Guillaume Apollinaire to Susan Sontag An important reference for collectors and connoisseurs Includes notable works by Marc Chagall Henri Matisse and Pablo Picasso
