How to Fall in Love with Anyone Mandy Len Catron,2017-06-27 A beautifully written and well researched cultural criticism as well as an honest memoir Los Angeles Review of Books from the author of the popular New York Times essay To Fall in Love with Anyone Do This explores the romantic myths we create and explains how they limit our ability to achieve and sustain intimacy What really makes love last Does love ever work the way we say it does in movies and books and Facebook posts Or does obsessing over those love stories hurt our real life relationships When her parents divorced after a twenty eight year marriage and her own ten year relationship ended those were the questions that Mandy Len Catron wanted to answer In a series of candid vulnerable and wise essays that takes a closer look at what it means to love someone be loved and how we present our love to the world Catron melds science and emotion beautifully into a thoughtful and thought provoking meditation Bookpage She delves back to 1944 when her grandparents met in a coal mining town in Appalachia to her own dating life as a professor in Vancouver She uses biologists research into dopamine triggers to ask whether the need to love is an innate human drive She uses literary theory to show why we prefer certain kinds of love stories She urges us to question the unwritten scripts we follow in relationships and looks into where those scripts come from And she tells the story of how she decided to test an experiment that she d read about where the goal was to create intimacy between strangers using a list of thirty six questions and ended up in the surreal situation of having millions of people following her brand new relationship Perfect fodder for the romantic and the cynic in all of us Booklist How to Fall in Love with Anyone flips the script on love Clear eyed and full of heart it is mandatory reading for anyone coping with or curious about the challenges of contemporary courtship The Toronto Star

Love, Loss, and What We Ate Padma Lakshmi, 2016-03-08 A vivid memoir of food and family survival and triumph Love Loss and What We Ate traces the arc of Padma Lakshmi's unlikely path from an immigrant childhood to a complicated life in front of the camera a tantalizing blend of Ruth Reichl's Tender at the Bone and Nora Ephron's Heartburn Long before Padma Lakshmi ever stepped onto a television set she learned that how we eat is an extension of how we love how we comfort how we forge a sense of home and how we taste the world as we navigate our way through it Shuttling between continents as a child she lived a life of dislocation that would become habit as an adult never quite at home in the world And yet through all her travels her favorite food remained the simple rice she first ate sitting on the cool floor of her grandmother's kitchen in South India Poignant and surprising Love Loss and What We Ate is Lakshmi's extraordinary account of her journey from that humble kitchen ruled by ferocious and unforgettable women to the judges table of Top Chef and beyond It chronicles the fierce devotion of the remarkable people who shaped her along the way from her headstrong mother who flouted conservative Indian convention to make a life in New York to her Brahmin grandfather a brilliant engineer with an irrepressible sweet tooth to the man seemingly wrong for her in every way who proved to be her truest ally A memoir rich with sensual prose and punctuated with evocative recipes it is alive with the scents tastes and textures of a life that spans complex geographies both internal and external Love Loss and What We Ate is an intimate and unexpected story of food and family both the ones we are born to and the ones we create and their enduring legacies
