Love is a Dog From Hell Charles Bukowski, 2009-03-17 A classic in the Bukowski poetry canon Love Is a Dog from Hell is a raw lyrical exploration of the exigencies heartbreaks and limits of love A book that captures the Dirty Old Man of American letters at his fiercest and most vulnerable on a subject that hits home with all of us Charles Bukowski was a man of intense emotions someone an editor once called a passionate madman Alternating between tough and gentle sensitive and gritty Bukowski lays bare the myriad facets of love its selfishness and its narcissism its randomness its mystery and its misery and ultimately its true joyfulness endurance and redemptive power there is a loneliness in this world so great that you can see it in the slow movement of the hands of a clock

Love is a Dog from Hell Charles Bukowski, 1977 Poems rising from and returning to Bukowski's personal experiences reflect people objects places and events of the external world and reflects on them on their way out and back

The Imagined, the Imaginary and the Symbolic Maurice Godelier, 2020-01-28 Exploring the close relationship between the real and the symbolic and imaginary What you imagined is not always imaginary but everything that is imaginary is imagined It is by imagining that people make the impossible become possible In mythology or religion however those things that are imagined are never experienced as being imaginary by believers The realm of the imagined is even more real than the real it is super real surreal L vi Strauss held that the real the symbolic and the imaginary are three separate orders Maurice Godelier demonstrates the contrary that the real is not separate from the symbolic and the imaginary For instance for a portion of humanity rituals and sacred objects and places attest to the reality and therefore the truth that God gods or spirits exist The symbolic enables people to signify what they think and do encompassing thought spilling over into the whole body but also pervading temples palaces tools foods mountains the sea the sky and the earth It is real Godelier's book goes to the strategic heart of the social sciences for to examine the nature and role of the imaginary and the symbolic is also to attempt to account for the basic components of all societies and ultimately of human existence And these aspects in turn shape our social and personal identity
