Francesca Brown Stylist Did Clara taste salty when I kissed her She did She tasted of mermaids of the sea Love Like Salt is a deeply affecting memoir beautifully and intelligently written It is about mothers and daughters music and illness genes and inheritance writing and story telling It is about creating joy from the hand you ve been dealt and following its lead in this case to rural France where the author and her family lived for seven years And back again I had always written and until the birth of Clara I wrote for a living Once I knew the Cystic Fibrosis gene had unfolded itself in our daughter s body like a paper flower meeting water I felt that to write even if I had had time or been able would have been to squander a kind of power which was needed for tending and nurturing Every moment became a moment in which I protected my baby Some of it I did in secret like a madwoman muttering spells I thought of her as a candle cupping my hand around her A beautifully written memoir in the vein of H is for Hawk and The Last Act of Love about motherhood music and living the best life you can even in the shadow of illness
