

Why I Love You

I love you for so many reasons
Big and small
And all of them are wonderful.
I love you for all the special qualities that make you one of a kind...
The only one in the world for me.
I love you for the things we do
That bring so special meaning to my life
I love you for the silent times
When your eyes and arms tell me all I want to know.
I love you
Just because I do
Because now
In the deepest part of my heart...
A place where there was nothing before

There is Love

Burgin, 1994-07 The weather in Moscow is good there's no cholera there's also no lesbian love Brrr Remembering those persons of whom you write me makes me nauseous as if I'd eaten a rotten sardine Moscow doesn't have them and that's marvellous Anton Chekhov writing to his publisher in 1895 Chekhov's barbed comment suggests the climate in which Sophia Parnok was writing and is an added testament to the strength and confidence with which she pursued both her personal and artistic life Author of five volumes of poetry and lover of Marina Tsvetaeva Sophia Parnok was the only openly lesbian voice in Russian poetry during the Silver Age of Russian letters Despite her unique contribution to modern Russian lyricism however Parnok's life and work have essentially been forgotten Parnok was not a political activist and she had no engagement with the feminism vogueish in young Russian intellectual circles From a young age however she deplored all forms of male posturing and condescension and felt alienated from what she called patriarchal virtues Parnok's approach to her sexuality was equally forthright Accepting lesbianism as her natural disposition Parnok acknowledged her relationships with women both sexual and non sexual to be the centre of her creative existence Diana Burgin's extensively researched life of Parnok is deliberately woven around the poet's own account visible in her writings The book is divided into seven chapters which reflect seven natural divisions in Parnok's life This lends Burgin's work a particular poetic resonance owing to its structural affinity with one of Parnok's last and greatest poetic achievements the cycle of love lyrics Ursa Major Dedicated to her last lover Parnok refers to this cycle as a seven star of verses after the seven stars that make up the constellation Parnok's poems translated here for the first time in English added to a wealth of biographical material make this book a fascinating and lyrical account of an important Russian poet Burgin's work is essential reading for students of Russian literature lesbian history and women's studies Love Poems for Married People John Kenney, 2019-01-08 Are you in the mood I am Let's put the kids down Have a light dinner Shower Maybe not drink so much And do that thing I would rather do with you than

Anatomy of a Poet C. J. Heck, 2013-04 Poetry can be daunting and hard to understand but it doesn't have to be I feel a poet has an obligation to write in a way that everyone can understand Poems should flow softly through a poet's words their meanings gently caressing the heart and mind of its reader If a poem comes from the heart it will reach other hearts and this is what I've tried to do with the poetry in Anatomy of a Poet CJ Heck Like a rose with many petals and sharing its sweet aroma this is how I see and feel about the love of my life CJ Heck She is my electric blue eyed girl She can be both a little girl or a strong woman whenever and wherever the situation calls for it She is both sensuous and exciting and soft and affectionate Tragedy struck her life early with the death of her husband in Vietnam This experience laid open the very core of her heart and soul and opened the channel to a well of compassion and sensitivity that waited deep within Her pain was the fertilizer that helped her bloom as a writer CJ's poetry is not a surface observation but a soulful interpretation of the events and people that inspired her She writes both eloquently and simply of things that touch her heart things she wants to share She is gifted at painting a picture with words on the heart and imagination of others thereby communicating not just an image but a life experience I feel very honored to have been asked to write this introduction and share my feelings about CJ Heck She is the water for my soil the sunlight for my petals and the nurturer of my growth Sit back open your heart and enjoy the journey as revealed through her words images and emotions You are blessed by this opportunity to know her in words as I know her in life Robert S Cosmar Author This is my kind of poetry Direct beautifully expressed and without a hint of pretension Allison Cassidy CJ is predominately viewed as a writer of works for children but CJ now carries over her approach to more adult themes In doing so she presents a profound world that is deeply sad incredibly humorous and sometimes very intimate Joseph Daly I love learning new words especially when they are explained with such diaphanous clarity Whether she talks of love children life or any other subject CJ's words are always clear and harmonious She makes us forget that easy to read is hard to write Marc Mimouni London United Kingdom CJ Heck is a very talented author Her words are enlightening and charismatic to people of all ages It is a privilege and honor to read her
