Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff,Staff Bowker, Ed,2004      L'Espace Littéraire Maurice

Blanchot,1989-01-01 Maurice Blanchot the eminent literary and cultural critic has had a vast influence on contemporary French writers among them Jean Paul Sartre and Jacques Derrida From the 1930s through the present day his writings have been shaping the international literary consciousness The Space of Literature first published in France in 1955 is central to the development of Blanchot s thought In it he reflects on literature and the unique demand it makes upon our attention Thus he explores the process of reading as well as the nature of artistic creativity all the while considering the relation of the literary work to time to history and to death This book consists not so much in the application of a critical method or the demonstration of a theory of literature as in a patiently deliberate meditation upon the literary experience informed most notably by studies of Mallarmé Kafka Rilke and Hölderlin Blanchot s discussions of those writers are among the finest in any language      Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1996      Sufi Aesthetics Cyrus Ali Zargar,2013-05-22 Sufi Aesthetics argues that the interpretive keys to erotic Sufi poems and their medieval commentaries lie in understanding a unique perceptual experience Using careful analysis of primary texts Cyrus Ali Zargar explores the theoretical and poetic pronouncements of two major Muslim mystics Muhyi al Din ibn al Arabi d 1240 and Fakhr al Din Iraqi d 1289 under the premise that behind any literary tradition exist organic aesthetic values The complex assertions of these Sufis appear not as abstract theory but as a way of seeing all things including the sensory world The Sufi masters Zargar asserts shared an aesthetic vision quite different from those who have often studied them Sufism s foremost theoretician Ibn Arabi is presented from a neglected perspective as a poet aesthete and lover of the human form Ibn Arabi in fact proclaimed a view of human beauty markedly similar to that of many mystics from a Persian contemplative school of thought the School of Passionate Love which would later find its epitome in Iraqi one of Persian literature s most celebrated poet saints Through this aesthetic approach this comparative study overturns assumptions made not only about Sufism and classical Arabic and Persian poetry but also other uses of erotic imagery in Muslim approaches to sexuality the human body and the paradise of the afterlife described in the Qur an      Symbolic Misery, Volume 1 Bernard Stiegler,2016-10-03 In this important new book the leading cultural theorist and philosopher Bernard Stiegler re examines the relationship between politics and aesthetics in our contemporary hyperindustrial age Stiegler argues that our epoch is characterized by the seizure of the symbolic by industrial technology where aesthetics has become both theatre and weapon in an economic war This has resulted in a symbolic misery where conditioning substitutes for experience In today s control societies aesthetic weapons play an essential role audiovisual and digital technologies have become a means of controlling the conscious and unconscious rhythms of bodies and souls of modulating the rhythms of consciousness and life The notion of an aesthetic engagement capable of founding a new communal sensibility and a genuine aesthetic community has largely collapsed today This is because the overwhelming majority of the population is now totally subjected to the aesthetic conditioning of marketing and therefore estranged from any experience of aesthetic inquiry That part of the population that continues to experiment aesthetically has turned its back on those who live in the misery of this conditioning Stiegler appeals to the art world to develop a political understanding of its role In this volume he pays particular attention to cinema which occupies a unique position in the temporal war that is the cause of symbolic misery at once industrial technology and art cinema is the aesthetic experience that can combat conditioning on its own territory This highly original work the first in Stiegler's Symbolic Misery series will be of particular interest to students in film studies media and cultural studies literature and philosophy and will consolidate Stiegler's reputation as one of the most original cultural theorists of our time

The Book to Come Maurice Blanchot, Charlotte Mandell, 2003 Featuring essays originally published in La Nouvelle Revue Française this collection clearly demonstrates why Maurice Blanchot was a key figure in exploring the relation between literature and philosophy

Legitimate Dangers Michael Dumanis, Cate Marvin, 2006 Definitive broadly representative anthology of poets born after 1960

The Enduring Kiss Massimo Recalcati, 2021-01-14 The kiss is the image that perhaps more than any other encompasses the beauty and poetry of love Every love is required to maintain the kiss to make it last When they kiss lovers carve out their hiding holes finding their peace from war When they kiss the noise of the world is silenced its laws broken time is stolen from its normal continuity They fall together in their distinct embraced tongues The kiss joins the tongue that declares love with the body of the lover And the extinction of the kiss and most importantly of the desire to kiss one's beloved announces the demise of love In this short book Massimo Recalcati one of Italy's leading intellectuals and bestselling authors offers seven brief lessons on the mystery and miracle of love from the serendipity of the first encounter to its end or its continuation over time as mysterious and miraculous as the first encounter itself

Love Online Jean-Claude Kaufmann, 2012-03-05 A study of the relationship between the internet and relationships that investigates whether we can ever really combine sex and feelings instant gratification and enduring commitment using the example of one night stands arranged via online dating sites

Bordering Nira Yuval-Davis, Georgie Wemyss, Kathryn Cassidy, 2019-06-10 Controlling national borders has once again become a key concern of contemporary states and a highly contentious issue in social and political life But controlling borders is about much more than patrolling territorial boundaries at the edges of states it now comprises a multitude of practices that take place at different levels some at the edges of states and some in the local contexts of everyday life in workplaces in hospitals in schools which taken together construct reproduce and contest borders and the rights and obligations associated with belonging to a nation state This book is a systematic exploration of the practices and processes that now define state bordering and the role it plays in national and global governance Based on original research it goes well beyond traditional approaches to the study of migration and racism showing how these processes affect all members of society not just the marginalized others The uncertainties arising from these processes mean that more and more people find themselves living in grey zones excluded from any form of protection and often denied basic human rights The Spectator, 1862 Sovereignities in Question Jacques Derrida, 2005 This book brings together five encounters They include the date or signature and its singularity the notion of the trace structures of futurity and the to come language and questions of translation such speech acts as testimony and promising the possibility of the impossible and the poem as addressed and destined beyond knowledge Affluence and Freedom Pierre Charbonnier, 2021-06-22 In this pathbreaking book Pierre Charbonnier opens up a new intellectual terrain an environmental history of political ideas His aim is not to locate the seeds of ecological thought in the history of political ideas as others have done but rather to show that all political ideas whether or not they endorse ecological ideals are informed by a certain conception of our relationship to the Earth and to our environment The fundamental political categories of modernity were founded on the idea that we could improve on nature that we could exert a decisive victory over its excesses and claim unlimited access to earthly resources In this way modern thinkers imagined a political society of free individuals equal and prosperous alongside the development of industry geared towards progress and liberated from the Earth's shackles Yet this pact between democracy and growth has now been called into question by climate change and the environmental crisis It is therefore our duty today to rethink political emancipation bearing in mind that this can no longer draw on the prospect of infinite growth promised by industrial capitalism Ecology must draw on the power harnessed by nineteenth century socialism to respond to the massive impact of industrialization but it must also rethink the imperative to offer protection to society by taking account of the solidarity of social groups and their conditions in a world transformed by climate change This timely and original work of social and political theory will be of interest to a wide readership in politics sociology environmental studies and the social sciences and humanities generally

Appalachian Elegy Bell Hooks, 2012-08-16 A collection of poems centered around life in Appalachia addresses topics ranging from the marginalization of the region's people to the environmental degradation it has endured throughout history

Freedom from Violence and Lies Simon Karlinsky, 2013 Freedom from Violence and Lies is a collection of forty one essays by Simon Karlinsky 1924-2009 a prolific and controversial scholar of modern Russian literature sexual politics and music who taught in the University of California Berkeley's Department of Slavic Languages and Literatures from 1964 to 1991 Among Karlinsky's full length works are major studies of Marina Tsvetaeva and Nikolai Gogol Russian Drama from Its Beginnings to the Age of Pushkin editions of Anton Chekhov's letters writings by Russian migrants and correspondence between Vladimir Nabokov and Edmund Wilson Karlinsky also wrote frequently for professional journals and mainstream publications like the New York Times Book Review and the Nation The present volume is the first collection of such shorter writings spanning more than three decades It includes twenty seven essays on literary topics and fourteen on music seven of which have been newly translated from the Russian originals Columbia Dictionary of Modern European Literature Jean Albert

Bédé, William Benbow Edgerton, 1980 With more than 1800 critical entries on the writers and literatures of 33 languages this work presents the entire range of modern European writing from the symbolist and modernist works rooted in the last decades of the nineteenth century through the avant garde and existentialist movement to Barthes Blanchot Breton and continental thought pertinent today

Aesthetics, Method, and Epistemology Michel Foucault, 2019-11-14 Foucault leaves no reader untouched or unchanged Edward Said Aesthetics the second volume of the complete collection of Michel Foucault's courses articles and interviews focuses on the philosophy literature and art which informed his engagement with ethics and power including brilliant commentaries on the work of de Sade Rousseau Marx Magritte Nietzsche Freud and Wagner He also explores a number of avant garde authors who challenge our traditional notions of humanism extends his theories on power relations and looks back over the whole of his extraordinary critical history of thought Edited by James D Faubion Translated by Robert Hurley and Others

The Life of Plants Emanuele Coccia, 2019-01-16 We barely talk about them and seldom know their names Philosophy has always overlooked them even biology considers them as mere decoration on the tree of life And yet plants give life to the Earth they produce the atmosphere that surrounds us they are the origin of the oxygen that animates us Plants embody the most direct elementary connection that life can establish with the world In this highly original book Emanuele Coccia argues that as the very creator of atmosphere plants occupy the fundamental position from which we should analyze all elements of life From this standpoint we can no longer perceive the world as a simple collection of objects or as a universal space containing all things but as the site of a veritable metaphysical mixture Since our atmosphere is rendered possible through plants alone life only perpetuates itself through the very circle of consumption undertaken by plants In other words life exists only insofar as it consumes other life removing any moral or ethical considerations from the equation In contrast to trends of thought that discuss nature and the cosmos in general terms Coccia's account brings the infinitely small together with the infinitely big offering a radical redefinition of the place of humanity within the realm of life

Neoliberalism Damien Cahill, Martijn Konings, 2017-08-31 For over three decades neoliberalism has been the dominant economic ideology While it may have emerged relatively unscathed from the global financial crisis of 2007-8 neoliberalism is now more than ever under scrutiny from critics who argue that it has failed to live up to its promises creating instead an increasingly unequal and insecure world This book offers a nuanced and probing analysis of the meaning and practical application of neoliberalism today separating myth from reality Drawing on examples such as the growth of finance the role of corporate power and the rise of workfare the book advances a balanced but distinctive perspective on neoliberalism as involving the interaction of ideas material economic change and political transformations It interrogates claims about the impending death of neoliberalism and considers the sources of its resilience in the current climate of political disenchantment and economic austerity Clearly and accessibly written this book will be a valuable resource for students and scholars across the social sciences

The New Latin America Fernando Calderón, Manuel Castells, 2020-08-04 Latin America has experienced a profound transformation in the first two decades of the 21st century it has been fully incorporated into the global economy while excluding regions and populations devalued by the logic of capitalism. Technological modernization has gone hand in hand with the reshaping of old identities and the emergence of new ones. The transformation of Latin America has been shaped by social movements and political conflicts. The neoliberal model that dominated the first stage of the transformation induced widespread inequality and poverty and triggered social explosions that led to its own collapse. A new model, neo-developmentalism, emerged from these crises as national populist movements were elected to government in several countries. The more the state intervened in the economy, the more it became vulnerable to corruption until the rampant criminal economy came to penetrate state institutions. Upper middle classes defending their privileges and citizens indignant because of corruption of the political elites revolted against the new regimes, undermining the model of neo-developmentalism. In the midst of political disaffection and public despair, new social movements—women, youth, indigenous people, workers, peasants—opened up avenues of hope against the background of darkness invading the continent. This book, written by two leading scholars of Latin America, provides a comprehensive and up-to-date account of the new Latin America that is in the process of taking shape today. It will be an indispensable text for students and scholars in Latin American Studies, sociology, politics, and media and communication studies, and anyone interested in Latin America today.
