Love And Benjamins:

The Bonds of Love Jessica Benjamin, 2013-05-01 Why do people submit to authority and derive pleasure even others have over them What is the appeal of domination and submission and why are they so prevalent in erotic life Why is it so difficult for men and women to meet as equals Why indeed do they continue to recapitulate the positions of master and slave In The Bonds of Love noted feminist theorist and psychoanalyst Jessica Benjamin explains why we accept and perpetuate relationships of domination and submission She reveals that domination is a complex psychological process which ensnares both parties in bonds of complicity and shows how it underlies our family life our social institutions and especially our sexual relations in spite of our conscious commitment to equality and freedom

Philosophy and Melancholy Ilit Ferber,2013-06-12 This book traces the concept of melancholy in Walter Benjamin's early writings Rather than focusing on the overtly melancholic subject matter of Benjamin's work or the unhappy circumstances of his own fate Ferber considers the concept's implications for his philosophy Informed by Heidegger's discussion of moods and their importance for philosophical thought she contends that a melancholic mood is the organizing principle or structure of Benjamin's early metaphysics and ontology Her novel analysis of Benjamin's arguments about theater and language features a discussion of the Trauerspiel book that is amongst the first in English to scrutinize the baroque plays themselves Philosophy and Melancholy also contributes to the history of philosophy by establishing a strong relationship between Benjamin and other philosophers including Leibniz Kant Husserl and Heidegger The Language of Love and Guilt Ruth Wodak, Muriel Schulz, 1986-01-01 Although mother and daughter are two central female roles they have rarely been investigated The relationship is specific certainly different than the mother son or father daughter relationships And this difference manifests itself in sex specific language behavior Despite eternal features of the mother daughter relationship its quality is affected by individual psychological and by sociocultural variables Thus investigations took place in two big cities with very different structures and traditions Vienna and Los Angeles This is the first cross cultural study which reflects and combines multiple linguistic socio psycholinguistic and text linguistic categories approaches and methods to be able to investigate such an important topic as family relationships and the place of women nowadays in our societies
